Prophetic Eye.

More than three hundred years ago there appeared in the public prints of England a queer bit of doggerel that was entitled "Mother Shipton's Prophecy." It ran as follows: "Carriages without horses shall go, And accidents fill all the world with Iron in the water shall float As easily as a wooden boat, Gold shall be found and shown In a land that's now not known. Fire and water shall wonders do England shall at last admit a foe.

In the light of these latter years there is an almost marvelous truth nany of the quaint conceptions, and while some of "Mother Shipton's" predictions are yet to be made good, number of them are to be met with every day. The horseless carriage, the telegraph, railrooad tunnels, submarine boats and air-ships seem to leave no doubt that the old lady knew something besides her knitting.

Too Late.

There are a great many roses placed on coffins and on graves too late bring gladness to those above silent forms and pulseless hearts they have been placed. Special Washington Letter.] 8 President Roosevelt l'enfant ter rible of the Republicans? It seems so. Just as Brother Sereno E. Payne and the other "white haired mandarins" of the house, as "Uncle Joe" Cannon would des nate them, thought they had se the troublesome Cuban question and were prematurely congratulating themselves that they had prevented a split in the Republican party, the strenuous young han in the White House throws them into a cold awest by summoning them to his presence and giving them the astounding information that the 20 per cent cut in the Dingley rates, so far as Cuba is concerned, is not deep enough and that they will have to do it all over again, whereupon Messrs. Payne & Co. depart the presidential presence with their lips dragging on the ground, murmuring, "On what meat doth this our Cosar feed that he hath grown so great?" If Colonel Roosereit keeps on, the Republicans of the ways and means committee are liable to commit suicide in self-defense. Unchanged.

It is as easy for an Ethiopian to change his skin or the leopard his spots as it is for the Republicans to shake off their inveterate habit of office stealing. They are at it again. Posing as the apostles of purity and sweetness in politics, they are always willing and ready to defraud the people by giving to a Republican who was not cted some office to which a Democrat was elected. It matters little whether the office is the presidency or a constableship. Their latest manifestation of larcenous propensity for office was the unseating of Congressman time to fill their hearts with gladness John S. Rhen of Kentucky, an unusualman, and the seating of Hom McKenzie Moss. Rhea's majority to an office is as valid with the scant with 20,000. to bring representative government into contempt. To such an extent does this feeling prevail that contested sico tion cases in the house are jocularly referred to as "elections." It is a crying shame that such contests are not decid-

That the unseating of Rhea was an infamous outrage is shown conclusively by the fact that, although the Bopublicans have forty odd majority in the house, they could muster only ten majority against him and that two Republicans with more conscience than the rest voted to keep him in.

The lines of Lieutenant General Notunpleasant places in these latter days; to be playing in hard luck. Evidently he is not a favored courtier at our ima soldier with an approved record, yet withstanding the fact that he was commanding general of the army. When he in a modest way said that he agreed with Admiral Dewey that Schley was upon and reprimended publicly, though General Fred Funston is not reprimanded for delivering ferocious harangues at sundry banquets in which he advocates the hanging of divers distingulabed statesmen who have grown gray in the service of the republic, When Miles, grown weary of the cease less butchery in the Philippines, soggests a plan of pacification, his plan s contemptuously thrown into the waste basket by Mr. Secretary of War Elihu Root, who knows about as much about war as a hog does about San skrit. When Miles fights Root's bill for reorganizing the army, it is determined by the administration that the general shall be retired, though he is two years under sixty-four, the age for comput sory retirement.
