WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

JUNE 5TH, 1902.

The executive committee of the Democratic Congressional Committee held a secret session in Washington last week, at which Chairman Ben T. Cable and Judson Harmon of Cincinnati were present. While no information was given out to the press, I learn from undoubtedly reliable sources that a committee of seven was appointed to put in form the conclusion of the Committee that the coming campaign should be made on the ground that the republicans are fostering the trusts and are unwilling to revise the tariff along lines which will afford relief to the consumers at the expense of the capitalists and trusts. The Committee of seven will report to a caucus of the democratic members of the House and if their recommendations receive the approval of the caucus active work will begin at once. It was determined to locate the general headquarters at Washington with Representative Griggs in charge while the Western headquarters will be located at Chicago with Mr. Cable in charge. The full Congressional Committee met the same evening and adopted a resolution which is a practical endorsement of the Hainsbrough Newlands irrigation bill.

The virtual admission of Secretary Root and General Wood that the latter had spent large sums for the purchase of wines and liquors at the expense of the government and that Secretary Root had authorized General Wood to expend $5,000 per year for liquid and other forms of entertainment, while it is quite in accordance with the autocratic and extravagant methods of the administration, was somewhat startling to the members of Congress and may prove so to the taxpayers of the country. Secretary Root also admits the payment of large sums to General Gomez in order to purchase his influence with the large constituency which he is supposed to lead. The Secretary of War has promised to render to Congress an itemized statement of General Wood's expenses but there seems little likelihood that the General will be able to complete his accounts before adjournment, in view of the effect which such a statement would be likely to have on the Fall elections. General Wood is making his home and headquarters on board the transport "Kanawha," which arrangement not only proves an economy to the General but also necessarily delays the rendering of his accounts to the War Department and consequently to Congress. Secretary Root evidently believes that the public will forget all about the rumors of his and Wood's extravagance—the cost of the Philippine war, a statement of which he has refused to render until the next session—and that after election the disclosure of the figures will cause no injury to his party. For the legitimate curiosity which Congress is displaying in regard to Wood's disbursements, the administration has to thank "Subsidy Hanna" whose first threat to make an exposure because the President refused to order a new trial for the embezzler Rathbone, served to bring Mr. Roosevelt to terms but not before the newspaper men had gotten on the track of a very fact story, and their requests for information resulted in the resolutions calling on Root for statements.

The announcement of the President that he has determined to appoint Senator McLaurin to the vacancy on the bench of the Court of Claims is at the same time the death knell of the "White Republican Organization" which the Senator attempted to foster in South Carolina. Had Senator Hanna, in his capacity as Chairman of the Republican National Committee, continued to dictate republican policy in the South this effort of McLaurin's might not have "died a-borning" but the vigorous methods of the President proved disastrous to the puny infant. Those democrats who have entertained a certain admiration for the rugged manliness of which they conceived the President to be possessed, received a severe shock when they heard, or read, the speech which Mr. Roosevelt saw fit to deliver at the National Cemetery at Arlington on Memorial Day. Not content with attempting to vindicate the record of American soldiers in the Philippines, Mr. Roosevelt took occasion to belittle his dignity and indulge in the cheapest sort of demagogism by referring to the lynchings which have occurred in this country and charging those who condemn them as "other violations of the laws of civilized warfare in the Philippines with condoning lynching at home. Disturbing the "bloody shirt" which he had declared at Charleston was buried for all time, he told his hearers, many of them veterans of the Civil War, that the opponents of imperialism had called Grant "the butcher" and had referred to them as "Lincoln's hirelings." Mr. Roosevelt's whole speech was calculated to stir up the bitterest kind of sectional feeling and party strife and was one of the most serious violations of good sense and good taste ever perpetrated in a Decoration Day oration.

The republicans in the Senate are rejecting over the fact that they have gained one democratic vote for the Philippine bill to off-set that of Senator Hoar, the only republican who has frankly stated that his conscience would not permit him to vote for the bill. On Thursday, Senator Morgan of Alabama, made a speech in favor of the Lodge bill but to the careful listener it was plainly evident that the course of the Alabama Senator was entirely the result of his strong convictions on the subject of religion and his belief, that so long as American domination had served to relieve the Filipinos of the burden of an established church, they could afford to put up with whatever injustices the policy of the administration might entail upon them. The vote upon the Philippine bill will be taken tomorrow evening.

Last week the House passed the irrigation bill and the Hill subsidiary coinage bill. Representative Newlands, speaking of the latter, remarked to me upon the evident insincerity of the republicans in passing so important a measure with only two hours deliberation. By the provisions of the bill, according to Mr. Newlands, the Secretary of the Treasury is empowered to retire all silver dollars which are now legal tender and recoin them in subsidiary coins which shall have a legal tender value only in sums not exceeding 5¢. Should the Secretary of the Treasury later see fit to recoin the silver fractional currency into dollars the dollars so coined would have a value only as token money.

Spring Fever.
Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. It neglects, serious illness may follow such symptoms. Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes Mr. E. M. Beverly, Mountsboro, Va. They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." As a rule, sample free at M. K. & F. R. Cooke Drug Co.

Idleness and riches furnish time and tide for the devil's trip.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver and you may just as well expect to find a man who does not eat his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and somnolent dreams. "A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal condition and his vitality improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man." 25 cents. Sample free at M. K. & F. R. Pleasants.

Most divorce suits have a wedding ring in eight.

Ho To Avoid Trouble.
Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is all most certain to be needed before the summer is over, and it procures new supplies from a trip to town in the night or in your busiest season. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. No family can afford to be without it. For sale by M. K. & F. R. Pleasants.

Meditation after marriage is wisdom gone to seed.
My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. Strickland, editor World Herald, Fair, Hay, Wash. For sale by M. K. & F. R. Pleasants.

Courship is a trial court that often gets verdict wrong.
Sacred cows often defile Indian temples, but worse yet is a body that is polluted by constipation. Don't permit it. Cleanse your system with King's New Life Pills and avoid untold misery. They give lively liver, active bowels, good digestion, fine appetite. Only 25c at Pleasants Bros' Drug Store.

HAPPY TIME IN OLD TOWN
"We felt very happy," writes N. B. Bell, Old Town, Me., "when Buckler's Arnica Salve, which cured our daughter of a bad case of scalds here." It cures all who use it for cuts, corns, burns, bruises, boils, Ulcers, Eruptions. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at Pleasants Bros' Drug Store.
