regarded as Democratic day, for we gressmen from Iowa. Under the Re-HAT will the Globe-Democrat publican gerrymander they do not elect do now, poor thing? It will any. If the Globe Democrat's philosbe remembered by the readers ophy may be made to fit Iowa, we may of these letters that on June reasonably expect a solid Democratic delegation from that state. What about Minnesota, where four Democratic congressmen would be elected under a fair apportionment, but where the Republicans manipulated the thing so skillfully that the Democrats have not elected a representative in six years? What of Wisconsin and Michigan, where the Democrats could elect almost half the delegation if they had a fair show? They have not elected a representative since 1892. What of Connecticut, where the Democrats could elect two out of five if it were not for the gerrymander? They have elected none since 1892. Of course gerrymandering is not a commendable habit in either Democrats or Republicans. The intent of this article is not to defend the practice, but to call the attention of the G.-D. to the fact that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. If the Republicans persist in doing it

It is not an unheard of practice to which General Henderson assigned for fight the devil with fire. his action confounded the Republicans Each party now claims that it will in general and demonstrated that the elect a majority of the lower house of G.-D. is a blind leader of the blind in congress this fail. The house passed a jam up good published a historic fable, to use no bill, with which I am glad to say I had a good deal to do. The senate passed a substitute bill, which was much worse than the house bill. The Nowhere have the differences bebill finally agreed on was not so good tween Democracy and Republicanism as the house bill, but better than the been stated more clearly or more tersesenate substitute. One of the best fealy than in the following editorial from tures of it was that it shut the Chinese out of the Philippines. Now the press The Democratic party stands for govdispatches say that Governor Taft, our proconsul in the Philippines, since his an party stands for government by a few return to Manila has been advocating of the people. This is the supreme difference between the two great political organizations. Issues change with each a modification of the law so that it will be made easier for the Chinese to get campaign, but principles remain unaltered. Democracy minimizes the government and maximizes the individual. It in there, the very thing the American laborers do not want. Every one who is opposed to the oligarchy of trusts, the was around Washington while the bill aristocracy of wealth, the domination of was being considered knows that the imperialism. The Republican party seeks openly or by veiled ways to bring the government into the control of certain covert influence of the Republicans was against rigorous exclusion, and it classes. It was inevreading of the following editorial from itable, for example, that the Republican the Baltimore Herald, a Republican party should become the party of protection, supporting the tariff system which paper, will throw some light on the levies burdens upon the people to promote private business. The Democratic party, subject: on the contrary, could not do otherwise

The Chinese exclusion act passed during the last session of congress applies equally to the Philippine Islands. Yet in the archipelago a vast majority of the trustworthy agriculturists and laborers in manufactories have hitherto been Chinese in character. The experience of many American employers has shown that the native Filipino is inferior in industrial and commercial qualities to the Mongolian.

As a matter of fact, the tribes making up the mixed population of the islands form the tall end of a race that has invariably yielded to the Chinese whenever the struggle for existence has brought them face to face. The Moros, a pure Malay people, while intractable to a marked extent, are about the most highly developed among the people outside of Manila and its environs. Yet the Chinese are superior to any Malay tribe, both morally and intellectually.

The reason for Chinese exclusion in the Philippine Islands is not then, probably, so much to aid the natives as it is to prevent the accumulation of a race that can withstand American conditions, yet does not blend with an occidental population. In the long run this extension of our American barrier against Chinese labor almost to the doors of Hongkong will pay, but it is apt to cripple commerce and manufactures until the influx of Let the Republican party beware of the American labor will take up the induseffects of the coal strike in the congressional canvass of 1902. The laboring people of the United States had better put on their thinking caps and decide now whether they had not better join in with the Democrats and get rid of the Philippines, Chinese and all, rather than wake up a few years hence and endeavor to lock the barn after the horse is gone.

The Prosperity Issue. Our Republican friends have so much to say about prosperity that the following editorial from the Washington Post may be read with interest by every American citizen:

The prosperity argument being a de-cidedly good thing, indeed the best thing the Republican campaign managers have in stock, it is natural and quite proper or Republican papers to make the most of it. It may and it may not prove a winning card. Ten years ago there was unexampled prosperity in this country and no premonition of the crash that fate had billed to show up twelve months later. Prosperity was exploited then as it is now, but it failed to win out.

That was the day on which Mr. Littlefield of Maine fell to the bottom of the coal hole a in Mr. McGinty by saying that Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, the real hero of Santiago, made a loop and ran away to escape danger. That was the day on which Hon. Samuel W. McCall, a Massachusetts Republican, placing conscience and love of justice and of liberty above party allegiance, made a speech which did him great honor and which worried his Republican confreres very much. That was the day on which Mr. Patterson of Tennessee, a Democrat, offered an amendment to the Philippine bill prohibiting slavery in the archipelago. His amendment was voted down, and, mirabile dictu! every Democrat voted for it and every Republican except two voted against it. That was such a strange performance when viewed in a historic light that I am afraid people will not believe it and that I ought to file affidavits to support the assertion. Wonder what Abraham Lincoln, Salmon P. Chase, William H. Seward, William Lloyd Garrison, John P. Now, I am aware of the fact that the thirteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States provides that slavery shall not exist anywhere in any tarritory subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, and I am aware of the provision prohibit slavery there, but the prohibition of slavery is one thing, the existence of slavery under the protection of the United States government is quite a different So that under this new section which I have offered I want to give the Republican party one opportunity to de-ciare its abhorrence of slavery in the Philippine Islands and to may that it shall not exist there under the protection of the American flag, under this treaty or agreement Bo far as we upon this side of the chamber are concerned, if we are permapently to retain the possession of the Philippine Islands we are opposed to the institution of human slavery. I am aware that when President Mo-Kinley forwarded this treaty, negotiated by General Bates with the suitan of John the senate of the United States he left the whole matter to congress. It has been left in that situation ever since, the congress of the United States having neither affirmed nor disaffirmed this treaty, so that so far as I know this is the first time the question has ever been presented to congress for the affirmation or disaffirmation of this treaty. Now, as I have said, I do not care to take up the time of the committee in any general discussion of this subject. The facts are that there are 300,000 or more human slaves in the Philippine Islands held by these Mohammedan Moros, and dition of infinite horror.
