That paper is the New York Press, That paper is the New York Press, mouthpiece of the protection extremiats; the men who, while posing as the only genuine protectionists, are doing far more toward condemning that doctrine and bringing it into disrepute than all of its open enemies have done or can do. In the case of the speaker the Press does not admit, in so many words, that it prefers Boies, but its remarks are equivalent to such an admission. The Press says that "it would be an extremely diffisays that "it would be an extremely difficult task for any Democrat to carry Hen-derson's district, which is naturally Republican by a tremendous plurality, but the character of ex-Governor Boies is so well known, he is so highly esteemed by the citizens of his state, and his record is so generally good that there can be no doubt, though he should not succeed in carrying a Republican stronghold with Democratic issues, that he will cut the Henderson vote to pieces and thus give the American people an accurate meas-urement of Henderson." That is a splendid sendoff for "Uncle" Horace and ought to be good for a number of votes if skillfully utilized by the Democratic managers. But as Hender-

Journalistic Mendacity. The Globe-Democrat is caught lying about seven days in each week on an average. Here is a fair sample of its everyday lies-lies that are palled as fast as they are uttered. The following is from the St. Louis Republic: Mr. Irwin L. Page, editor of the Bonne Terre Star, was in St. Louis yesterday.

An editorial in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of Friday was shown to him. The editorial said: "Mr. L L. Page, editor of the Bonne Terre (Mo.) Star, has put himself forward about constitutional amendments in to deny facts perfectly well known and to call the Globe-Democrat a liar. Mr. cratic congress is all that is needed— Page's letter may not have been written by Sam Cook, but its publication will in-sure for the Bonne Terre sheet the contariff off of glass, lumber, beef, every- stitutional amendment advertising." Mr. Page said in comment on this at-

"As for the advertising the Globe lies, as usual. The contract for the advertising has been made and not with my paper. So, you see, I am free from bias on that account. According to the evidence obtainable, the Globe deliberately faked the Farmington dispatch about Governor Stone's speech. The Globe's regular Farmington correspondent, Mrs. T. D. Fisher, told me emphatically that she sent a report of the Stone meeting and that the Globe used merely a line or two of it. That part of the published dispatch purporting to give what Governor Stone said about the technical constituto labor unions. Among the number is tionality of the school certificates was not sent by her, and she says that Governor Stone said nothing of the sort. Those Democratic newspaper correspondents in Washington must be a guileless set who will allow themselves to be boodwinked into sending to their papers impossible tales to the effect that the trusts will not contribute to the Republican campaign fund because Roosevelt has uttered a few beautiful platitudes on the subject of their control, Republican talk of controlling about the trusts. I care not if it does the trusts cannot be very sincere when it comes from men who were elected with funds furnished by trust' magnates, who voted for the tariff law that brought the trusts into existence and who refuse to vote for a law to control the trusts, who also refuse to enforce the present law against trusts and who are opposed to any alteration that which is known to be an evil and of the tariff law that makes the trusts take a hand at suppressing organized lapossible. Of course it takes a good deal of gall to enable them to put up a plaint that is so palpably false, but gall has always been the long suit of the Republican party.

But it is strange that the correspondents of Democratic newspapers will bite at the false balt-in fact, they state convention June 17 I declared take the cork clear under-and send the harrowing tale to their papers. Deliberate misstatement of indisputable facts is never politic. While it may be excussible for a party organ to ignore or dodge such facts it never pays to misrepresent them. To state that which is the reverse of true as to the precedings of a congress of so recent a date as the Fifty-sixth is to display something more regrehensible than unwisdom.
