A Most Radical Suggestion.

[Special Washington Letter.] ONDAY, Dec. 1, at high noon, Hon. David Bremner Henderson called to order the last session of the house over which he, in all human probability, will ever preside. This fact created a feeling of sadness in many hearts, for Henderson is personally a prime favorite. He is a most lovable man, wears his heart upon his sleeve and stands by his friends. Nothing but kind wishes will follow him into his retire-

Over near the center of the Republican side was "Uucle Joe" Cannon, radiant and rosy. He is the rising sun. and many did obeisance to him. I don't blame "Uncle Joe" for being happy. It is a vast honor which is coming to him and will perpetuate his name in history and his lineaments "dome in oil" upon the historic walls of the speaker's lobby. Everybody had a kind word for "Uncle Joe," and "Uncle Joe" had a smile and a kind word for everybody. The speakership is an excellent good thing to have in the family.

Tom and Mark. Recently I spent nearly a week lecturing in Ohio, two or three of the days | rules. in Cleveland. Law papers begin, "The county of Blank, in the state of Blank." It would not be improper or setching things much in speaking of Cleveland | he pleases with. If he desires, he may to say, "The city of Tom Johnson, in | place any bill on any calendar upon its the state of Mark Hanna." The senator lords it over the state, but the mayor is supreme in the city. That they are preparing for a death struggle in the mayoralty election next spring is known of all men in Buckeyedom. You of his constituents made known and hear it everywhere-in the hotels, in enacted into law. the trains, in the streets. Tom is playing for a great stake-the presidency. tion to the mayoralty in April and the election to the governorship in November. Uncle Mark wouldn't object to being president himself. He is determined that Tom shall not have it if he can prevent it, and so these two political giants are burnishing up their armor, whetting their knives and laying in munitions of war for the preliminary skirmish in the spring, a skirmish "big with the fate of Cato and of Rome." Having served in the house with Tom, I, of course, had some idea of the secret of his strength, but in Cleveland I inquired into it more particularly, and I found that it consists in two things mostly-the fact that the people believe implicitly in his loyalty to them and, secondly, that he keeps his word with all men. The newspaper jabber to the effect that he is a "fakir." "mountebank," "poser," "demagogue," etc., appears to have no more effect on him than pouring water on a duck's back; no more effect on him than the dollar mark cartoons have had on Senator Hanna's standing with Repub-

A Pleasant Function. While in Cleveland I attended a nonpolitical reception tendered by his admiring constituents to Judge Theodore E. Burton, chairman of the house committee on rivers and barbors. It was, held in the Chamber of Commerce and was a most enjoyable function, and Burton deserved it. He has a most honorable and laborious station to fill, and he fills it with fidelity and capacity. He appears to have a strong hold on the affections of his constituents without regard to party affiliations. Evidently he was very proud of the reception, and he made an exceedingly felicitous speech. Burton's constituents should memorialize him to marry, as it is a pity for such an amiable gentleman to go through life as an old bachelor. The Republicans in the Ohio delegation dealt Burton rather a cold deal in his speakership aspirations, but his town and county, when the names of turn may come after awhile. However | Henderson, Hepburn, Dolliver and othmuch the Ohio delegation may turn the cold shoulder to him, his constituents appear to love him.

The scheme has been suggested many times, but has always been abandoned for the simple reason that so long as the negroes can vote at all there can be found no considerable material from which to construct a "Lily White" party. When the Republicans for purely seifish purposes enfranchised the negroes on masse, they established such a condition in several states that no large number of white men will affiliate with them any more forever.
