They are really performing a superfluous piece of thievery. and to the same extent as the like goods Washington Post, independent, recently contained this editorial squib on the subject:

The Colorado Republicans have fully made up their minds to go ahead and unseat enough members of the legislature to enable them to elect the successor Senator Teller. What are we to think of a party that will steal when it doesn't really need the goods?

That they will do their utmost to despoil the veteran and distinguished senator of his well won honors is beyoud all question, for they have never yet hesitated to steal any office they could steal, from president down to constable. We have the highest authority for the statement that the leopard cannot change his spots or the Ethiopian his skin; but purloining ofnces to which they have no right, legal or moral, has become a confirmed habit with the Republicans. They achieved "the bad eminence" of stealing the presidency from Samuel J. Tilden, thereby robbing the American people of their birthright. They stole the first two senators from Montana, and not

He told the senate he had been trying for a long time to secure a statement from the government of the salaries paid to the present commissioners, but thus far had failed. He added that the best information he could obtain was that those commissioners were still on the government pay rolls for H.000 a month each.

Senator Morgan, commenting on the resome members of congress who were earnest in their talk and are proving it by their actions. Among these is Judge David A. De Armond of Missouri, the ranking Democratic member on the judiciary committee. If is doubtful if there is a better lawyer in con-

We persisted in sowing the wind in the Philippines, and now we have a fine prospect of reaping the whirtwind in South America in the neighborhood of Venezuela. When we grabbed the Philippines, we gave the Monroe doctrine its coup de grace, for it has all along been perfectly apparent to all who had good sense that we cannot at the same time play the freebooter in the eastern bersiephere and the dog is the manger in the western, and that is precisely what we are attempting when we colonize in Asia and refuse the same privilege to Europe here. What's happening in Venezuela is only the beginning of what we will have to face so long as we cling to the Philippines. The rapidity with which the nations of Europe are delivering ultimatums to pour, produced by any trust or other monopoly and all goods, wares and merchandise sold or bartered or offered for sale or barter in revolution cursed Venezuela demonstrates that the assault upon her is a preconcerted arrangement to test the restraint of trade or to prevent, limit or interfere with fair competition or to con-Monroe doctrine: If we held on to the trol, regulate or affect prices so as to cre-Philippipes and also endeavor to mainate, continue or promote monopoly shall be subject to taxation in the same amount tain the Monroe doctrine, we will be compelled one day to fight all Elurope wares and merchandise if imported into the United States would be taxed by and combined, which is not a cheerful prospect surely. There is an evolution in progress in this country as to the manner of nominating candidates for offices great and small. People are beginning to realize the important fact that political reform or lack of qualifications, character or lack of character, Observation teaches that to part with one's party is a painful operation. Of course there are exceptions to this rule as to all others.

The fear of being pointed to as a renehad censed to believe in the political tenets of his party. But all over ine land there are signs that mere care is to be taken to numbers good men and te ascertain the will of the people in making nominations. Evidently the set delegate convention system is in proc-ess of uliffinate extinction, and it is well. It was better than no organization at all, a little better, but it is easy to manipulate and to corrupt and in its results frequently failed to represent the will of the people. The primary election is the coming system. It is being adopted in some shape or fashion nearly everywhere, and it is well.
