TAR DROPS.

—The "city fathers" hold their regular meeting to-night.
—The County Commissioners and the Board of Education will be in session next Monday.

—The new residence of Mr. P. A. Reavis on Main street has been completed, and he moved his family in this week.

—Correspondents must not forget that we cannot publish articles without the names of the authors and they must write on both sides of the paper.

—The river is about to its normal condition and the Louisville Grist mills are in fine shape and running on full time. The planing mill is also in fine running order.

—The street committee are having some very substantial work done on the streets. Between now and the first of June they say that they hope to have the streets in fine shape.

—The John H. Sparks show comes highly recommended for being a clean, up-to-date show, allowing no gambling or games of chance around the grounds. Will exhibit at Louisville April, 8th.

—On the first page of this week's issue will find an advertisement headed, "Drink Kivits." It is a new fountain drink, and its manufacturers claim it to be one of the greatest discoveries of this age. It is sold at all soda fountains at 5 cents a drink.

—John H. Sparks' show is up-to-date and brim full of features. The artists and areas of wild animals are the best ever seen in Mobile, and worth twice the price of admission.—Mobile, Ala., Daily News, Jan. 13, 1902. Will exhibit at Louisville April, 8th.

—All who desire to vote in the town election on the first Tuesday in May must register. It is an entire new registration. M. S. Clifton is Registrar and the books will be open at the store of Ford & Clifton, from the 4th to the 13th of April. Remember this and register, that is, if you desire to vote.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will give a Birthday Party at the parsonage on the evening of April 13th, 1908, from 8:30 till 11 o'clock. Those attending (and the public is invited) will be expected to bring a penny (or more) for each year of their age. There will be a musical programme and refreshments will be served.

—Only items of an interesting nature are desired for publication. Neighborhood personalities—where one neighbor visits another, a short distance away—are not just exactly the kind of happenings desired for publication, and we hope that our correspondents will appreciate this in the future, and send us only such items as will be of general interest.

—The Rural Free Delivery Route No. 2, with J. H. Holloway as Carrier, started up April 1st. As stated last week this route goes out the Laurel road via Moulton to R. H. Strickland's store and thence back to Louisville via Frank Baldard. All those living along the route who desire to avail themselves of the luxury of having their mail brought them every day, must provide boxes as required by law, as the Carrier is not allowed to deliver mail except to those who have boxes.

—There are men (or more correctly speaking "things") in almost every community who profess to be honest, law-abiding citizens, but who are often guilty of little, peevish, mean acts, of which no decent and honest man would engage in. And very often it is the case that these sneaks are not possessed with sufficient moral courage to carry into effect their dishonest purposes, and in such cases they will put into motion schemes to persuade unsuspecting men to aid them in their dirty work. Such "things" should be shunned as quickly as a person would a rattlesnake.

—John H. Sparks' old reliable Virginia show and world's greatest trained animal exhibition will exhibit at Louisville afternoons and nights April 8th. Admission only 10 and 25 cents. Sparks' show is known the world over as the largest, cleanest, neatest and best 25 cent show on the road with all new and up-to-date features. Grand golden street parade at noon. Free balloon ascension and parachute jump at 1 and 7 p. m., rain or shine, don't miss it. It alone is worth going many miles to see, yet costs you nothing but is as free as the air you breathe. Will exhibit at Louisville April, 8th.

—The series of meetings at the Methodist church are still in progress and are increasing in interest. Rev. A. W. Plyler, who has been preaching some very able and effective sermons, the past two weeks, left yesterday for his home in Weaverville, and the pastor is being assisted by Rev. J. H. Shore, of Franklinton. His sermon on Wednesday night, which was listened to by a large congregation was a most powerful one, and stirred his hearers and put them to thinking. Upon several persons had been possessed of faith in the Christian religion, and from present indications these meetings may continue another week.

FOUND DEAD.

George Perry a Negro Found Dead in a Path Four Miles From Town.

On Wednesday morning at Mr. Charles Alford was coming to town, he discovered the dead body of a negro man lying near a through path, near the Four Bridges. He hurried to town and reported it to the proper officers. Clerk of the Court J. J. Barrow appointed J. R. Collier a Special Coroner to inquire into the case. He drove out to the place, and after making a thorough investigation he was convinced that the negro came to death from natural causes; consequently there was no necessity for the summoning of a coroner's jury. The dead body was recognized as being that of George Perry, a half-breed negro, who was in the habit of roving about the country. He was known to be subject to fits, and the appearances indicated that he died while one of these was on him. His torso was badly covered up, but there was no sign of violence about his body. His body was buried yesterday. He was known to be a number as "Crazy George."

Personal.
Miss Nellie Strickland, of Raynor, is visiting Mrs. Ida Hale.
Miss Mary Williams, of Raynor, is visiting Miss Lizzie Tucker, near town.
Mr. A. B. Andrew, Jr., of Raleigh, was here on professional business this week. Misses Orie and Lizzie Tucker returned Saturday from a visit to friends in Henderson.

Miss Charles Johnson, of Rocky Mount, is spending some time with her brother and friends here.
Mrs. Geo. S. Hughes, of Danville, Va., and little son Pendleton, is visiting at Mr. A. C. Hagbes'.
Mr. J. A. Turner, of Raleigh, was here this week in the interest of the Park Region Mutual Hall Association, reference to which is made elsewhere.

The editor was pleased to meet his good friend, Geo. W. Manning in town last Friday. Together with his good lady and little one, he was spending a few days with her people near Ingleside, and took a few hours off to run in and see the burg. They returned to their home at Newport News, Va., this week.

Notice to Confederate Veterans
The Times is requested to announce that the Cross of Honor has been received, and it is hoped that all the veterans will be present. Let each one who sees this mention the matter to his neighbor.
"They Are Just Lovely."
This was the expression of nearly every day who attended the "Spring Opening" at Egerton's store, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Of course a majority of them were referring to the beautiful and stylishly trimmed hats displayed there, but some of them also had reference to the many beautiful and reasonable dress goods, trimmings, etc. To fully appreciate the many nice Spring goods on exhibition one will have to go and see them.

Sparks' Virginia Shows.
The Erie, Pa., Daily Times of Aug. 7, says: The well known and popular John H. Sparks' shows arrived in the city to day and are this afternoon showing to a large and well-pleased crowd. The performance is a first class one made up of new and novel acts in connection with trained animals which comprises some of the best educated horses now on exhibition. Will exhibit at Louisville, April, 8th.

Insure Against Hall.
Our farmers will remember that last year there was an Association which insured the farmers against the loss of their crops by hail storms, and that every farmer who went into it and suffered any loss from storms, got his insurance. By referring to our advertising columns it will be seen that this association will do business in this section again this year. Capt. E. M. Pace, of Raleigh, is the local agent at Louisville. By reference to the advertisement our farmers readers will see a number of testimonials from several reliable farmers whose crops were destroyed last year. Read what they say and call on Mr. Johnson, who will fully explain the terms and workings of the policies.

To Visit Washington.
On to-morrow President M. S. Davis, of the Louisville Female College will leave for a visit to Washington City. He will be accompanied by Mrs. S. T. Beck with and the following young ladies of the Senior class: Misses Rosalind Mason, Belle Davis, Elizabeth Bagley, Pearl Berry, Blanche Egerton, Mary E. Long, Glennie Ayecock, Edna Watkins and Myrtice Gardner. The following undergraduates will accompany the party: Misses Mary Malone, Sallie Baker, Hatie Hill, Eliza Watkins. They are to be joined at Littleton by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davis, of Arcola, at Weldon by Mrs. L. F. Baker of Palmyra, and at Portsmouth by Dr. C. N. Mason of Harlow's. They will be met in Washington by Mrs. J. S. Tomlinson, (see Miss Wilder) of Louisville, whose thorough knowledge of Washington makes her a most charming chaperon.

The Times wishes for the President and his party a pleasant trip and a safe return.

LETTER TO LOUISBURG MERCHANTS.
Louisburg, N. C.
Dear Sir: There are two sorts of furniture. You know both for you sell them both. One sort looks better than it is, and the other is better than it looks. There's isn't any other sort.
The same two sorts of paint, no more, and we make them both—we make two sorts of stuff that isn't worth its freight. Be- long to the business—you have to. Be- long to your business—you have to.
But this is aside. We put into cans, with our names on, the very best paint there is in the world: Devco Lead and Zinc. It takes fewer gallons than mixed paints, and it wears twice as long as lead and oil.
C. O. Brown & Bros., Columbus S. C. write:
Mr. C. O. Brown, employed an experienced painter to paint his house with Devco Lead and Zinc. The painter, on seeing the paint that there was not enough he was so sure of this that he opened up all except one five-gallon kit. When the job was done he returned the five-gallon kit and about as much more in open vessels. Other painters who have been using mixed paints have had the same experience with Devco Lead and Zinc.
Yours truly,
F. W. DAVIS & Co.,
P. S. Allen Bros Co sells our paint.

FROM PILOT.

Mr. Editor:—Thinking that your readers might be interested in reading something from this portion of the country I have decided to "drop" you a few:

The writer was thinking of buying a pair of mules, but my friend, J. D. Bush informs me that I had best change my mind as he paid 83 1/2 cents per pound for one at Springhope. His muleship weighed 700 pounds, so you can calculate what it will cost a man to make a crop with a pair of mules at that price. I wonder if the tax taster will have a pair of scales this year in order to get at the value of 1908 mules?

Since the heavy rains have come and gone, plunging in is full blast, and the gloomy faces of the tillers of the soil, who lost plant beds, are brightening, as some of the beds are not damaged as bad as they first thought.

My friend S. J. Gill has given out the idea of going off to the Springs for his health, and will remain at Pilot this summer.

C. M. Griffin, who has taken the mail route from Pilot to Eagle Rock, six times a week, will make a good carrier, provided he doesn't stop too often "on the road."

Several new buildings are going up here, among them a two-story house by J. M. Brantley.

"Dirt" is something precious around here, as two of our best young ladies walked 8 miles over one gallon of the "precious stuff."

Jona Denton, who bought a new bit eye, has lost two days work "breaking it." He is now in bed, and his wheel is still stuck away under the bed. It is being asked whether he will be as good to "another companion" he is soon to have.

Pilot.
Fewer Gallons; Wear Longer; Devco Sunday Hours.

The following order which the Times is requested by the Louisville operators to publish, explains itself:
HENDERSON, N. C., March 30, 1908
TO THE OPERATORS, LOUISBURG, N. C.
On and after Sunday, April 5th, 1908, you will please observe the following Sunday hours: 9 a. m. to 10:30 a. m., 3:30 p. m. to 5 p. m. Night operators come on duty for the night at 10:30 p. m. You will open promptly at these hours by the time of the Henderson and Rocky Mount electric clock.

IN MEMORIAM.

In the hearts of many of the readers of the Times the name of the good man will awaken tender memories. Having served his generation by the will of God he fell on sleep February 21, 1908, at his home near Weaverville, Wake county, N. C. He was a native of Franklin county, and he was a native of this county sixty years of age.

Though he was a comparatively young man, it was by no means a common one. He was a patriot, serving his country like a soldier in war and peace. He was a philanthropist, spending a large portion of his time in the school room, where he led into the light of knowledge many a boy and girl who will cherish his memory. A boy and girl who will cherish his memory will reveal his was a Christian, loyal to the Master, and to the Master's cause.

His bereaved widow and children in their respectful love have set a prominent legacy in the unblemished name he has left behind. May God comfort their sorrowing hearts.

To the Farmers and Planters of North Carolina:
In reference to the Park Region Mutual Hail Insurance Association, Branch Headquarters, Raleigh, N. C., I wish to state that I insured my crop of six acres, on May 24th, with the Association Agent, Mr. J. W. Brown, for $1,000. On the evening of July 13th a hail storm struck my crop and damaged it badly. On August 13th, the General State Adjuster, adjusted my loss in a very satisfactory manner, paying the damage at 50 per cent, making me lose $500.00.
From an insurance standpoint, and experience with this Association, I can recommend this Association, and there is no reason why all farmers and planters should not join. The Association and obtain reliable hail insurance.

Capt. E. M. Pace, Raleigh, N. C.
Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure I add my testimonial to the satisfactory adjustment made by Capt. Pace, General Agent of the State, on my twenty acre tobacco crop, which suffered by hail, which occurred on the evening of July 13, about 4 o'clock. It is one of the best investments a farmer can make to protect his growing crops against hail, that can wipe it off the
