ned him. "I told you so." Just as soon as your Uncle Mark found he was out of the woods as to re-election to the senate, so completely out that Senator Foraker cannot prevent his re-election. he looms upon the political horizon as a presidential candidate. Of course Uncle Mark had nothing to do with this reinflation of his boom and quietly, very quietly, asserts that he stands by his last summer's declination in favor of Colonel Roosevelt. He is not a candidate. Oh, no! Not he. But if his enthusiastic and multitudinous friends force a nomination on him how can he decline? That would not be violating his declaration in favor of Colonel Roosevelt. Oh, no! One of his most earnest Buckeye supporters boldly asserts that he must be nominated in order to punish the president for having the gall to send Uncle Mark that Wallawalla dispatch last summer de-tion to the senate. See? Senator From Maryland. One of the results of the great Democratic victory in Maryland is that there is going to be a lively scrap for the United States senatorship now held by Senator McComas. For some time Hon. Isfdor Rayher, ex-attorney general, the man who defended Schley, has been an avowed candidate. Now Governor Smith has entered the lists, and the fur is quite likely to fly in large quantities. There will perhaps be other entries. A contest will do the Democrats no harm. If Rayner is elected, he will be the fifth man of Israelitish extraction to sit in the senate. The others were Yulee of Florida.

Benjamin and Jonas of Louisiana and Simon of Oregon. Rayner is a man of shining talents, an orator of rare power, a lawyer of great eminence. Governor Smith is also a man of parts. His triumphant election to the governorship and his satisfactory conduct of affairs in that difficult situation mark him as a man of unusual force of char-Senator McComas, who retires, is persenally one of the most delightful Republicans in public life. He is a handsome, amiable, capable gentleman, and the good wishes of many Democrats will follow him into private life. He is one of the very few men that ever gave up a life position on the federal bench for a United States senatorship. I am not certain, but I believe that David Davis of Illinois was the only one besides McComas. Davis was consumed with the vain ambition of being president of the United States and gave up his position on the supreme bench to enter the senate as the successor to General John A. Logan, hoping therethe White House, but he never went. Whether Senator McComas regrets his swapping of offices I do not know. One of the surest signs that, on the whole, the recent elections were favorable to Democrats is the fact that divers gentlemen are examining their lightning rods to see if they are in best condition to attract the presidential lightning. Your Uncle Grover is out in one of his characteristic bids. The friends of Mr. Olney are declaring that the trend of things political in New Engined is loward the Democrats and that he would, if nominated, sweep

> The New Leader of the House. Hon John Sharp Williams was the Democratic nominee for speaker and therefore becomes ex officio floor leader of the minority. I cannot better reintroduce him to my readers than by

The house Democrate large made ind mistake in choosing for their leader upon the floor the Hon. John Sharp Wallams of Mississippi. It has been und of this office at various times in the past that it-is an empty honor, earlying with it neither power nor opportunity. The truth is, however, that the leadership of the minority is just what the individual incumbent sees fit or is able to make it. The function may be undignified and foolor respectable and authoritative, according to the character of the man who represents it. So we say that the Democrats have done well to select Mr. Wil-liams as their guide. This is not a man of trots and secture. He is no country crossroads demagogue or sophomore orator. He has brains, and three of the finest universities in the world -Tennessee, Virginia and Heidelberghave informed and trained his mind. When John S. Williams gets upon his feet in the house of representatives and it is by no means an hourly or even daily
