Champ Clark's Letter

(Special Washington Letter.)

The name of Artemus Ward as a humorist is in danger of eclipse. Many will think of him as a humorist. Senator Fairbanks has suddenly burst upon an astonished world in the character of a humorist and is running neck and neck with Yocick for first place. He has given it out that he considers Missouri a doubtful state and has asked the national committee to cancel some of its eastern dates and to assign him to Missouri. I wish the committee may do so. There is no place in America, where Senator Fairbanks would be more royally entertained or do less harm. There are 114 counties in Missouri besides the city of St. Louis, which is a jurisdiction by itself. It would be a rattling good thing to have the senator spend every day until the election in Missouri. He would be delighted with the hospitality extended to him, and the people would be glad to have him, for they are great lovers of humor, and since he has placed Missouri in the doubtful column they regard him as a humorist of the rarest sort. By all means let the national committee grant his request to campaign in Missouri.

The Treasury Deficit.

Hon. Henry C. Davis in his letter of acceptance seems to have squarely hit the target in his remarks touching the treasury deficit, as is demonstrated by the fact that Republican papers have jumped on him with both feet for stating that the deficiency grows to the end of the fiscal year at the rate it increased in July and August it will amount to over $140,000,000. Yet he did not state that the treasury statement issued for September shows a surplus for that month of $6,000,000, and they state that that statement was published before he sent his letter to the press, which is probably untrue. The statement was published before his letter was published, but everybody has had anything to do with such matters knows that such documents as are intended for general circulation are given to the Associated Press five or six days or even more before the date of publication, so it can send printed slips to its patrons all over the land. This fact is well known at least to every metropolitan paper which has criticized him.

Now, let's see how the case stands, counting the months of July, August and September, the first three months of the fiscal year. The Republican papers crackle over the $6,000,000 surplus for September as loudly as a pullet cackles over her first egg.

Here are the facts: In July and August the deficit amounted to nearly $24,000,000. In September the surplus amounted to about $6,000,000, leaving a net deficit for the three months of July, August and September of between $17,000,000 and $18,000,000, an average of nearly $6,000,000 per month, which, projected for the rest of the fiscal year will make a deficiency of about $72,000,000 by July 1.

No man with intelligence enough to read the treasury reports and with candor enough to state the truth will gainsay the foregoing figures.

What's more, Mr. Secretary of the Treasury Shaw himself predicts a deficit for this fiscal year. True, he figures it lower than $72,000,000, but he is a very optimistic sort of a statesman, especially in campaign years.

So the evidence proves conclusively that Republican extravagance is getting the country into a hole, and the sooner they are turned out and Democrats put in the better the country will be.

Senator Fairbanks as a Humorist--Republican Extravagance Shows by the Treasury Deficit

(Special Washington Letter.)

There is a phase of this that is considered highly discreditable. Since Artemus Ward returned the office of secretary of the committee it has been understood that he would be appointed postmaster general. The announcement of the fact, it is known in Republican circles that it is the president's intention to appoint Artemus Ward postmaster general has caused a great deal of concern to the various railroads, and a great deal of money has been paid to prevent Artemus Ward from accepting the office. The Republican party has been very successful in its efforts to secure the office for Artemus Ward. The Republican party has been very successful in its efforts to secure the office for Artemus Ward. The Republican party has been very successful in its efforts to secure the office for Artemus Ward.

In a Nutshell.

Blessed is the man who knoweth how to condense what he has to say! The Hon. Marcus Kilian, one of Pennsylvania's four Democratic representatives in congress, seems to know how to do this. In a recent interview he squeezed the political issues into a very small space, as follows:

If I were in Judge Parker's place I would in the forthcoming letter of acceptance answer Roosevelt's letter that everybody would read what I said. I would not say a word about the tariff for the extermination of the common law for the extermination of the common law for the extermination of the common law.

ALL PULL AS ONE.

THE PARKER-BRYAN-CLEVELAND TEAM.

The Result of Their Work is More and More Manifest, the Democratic Prospects Brightening Daily.

By Denis J. Barry.

Washington, Oct. 29.—The Republican papers have persistently misrepresented the facts as to the congressional headquarters here of the Democratic party which they said they were to be transferred to New York. Now, they proclaimed week after week that the Democrats were short of funds they would have to close up, and that they had been "frozen out" by the national committee. None of these statements has been true in any degree. The Democratic headquarters, says Secretary Edwards, will remain open, no big business will enter the election.

At the congressional headquarters at the Riggs House today it is said that advices from New Jersey are to the following effect respecting the next congress: The Democrats will hold all they have, 15-16-17 districts represented by Representatives Benny (the 9th), Hughes (the 6th), and McDermott (the 10th), and gain the second, leaving the able chairman of the labor committee Representative John J. Gardner, electing Perry in his stead; beating Representative Fowler in the 5th, chairman of the Banking and Currency committee, and electing Mr. Jones Norvise in the Trenton (4th) and New Brunswick (3rd) districts, where they have had strong hopes all along. The delegation is now composed of three Democrats and three Republicans.

The situation is brightening daily. Judge Parker's activity and that of Cleveland and Mr. Bryan has done wonders. Besides Mr. Gorman's able conduct of the eastern campaign has brought over large interests that might have wavered and given cohesion to the plan of battle. At least, it is only fair to say that in what many eastern Democrats are saying.

A Self-Evident Fact. Republican articles touching the Democratic situation are so contradictory as to be amusing. Recently a great metropolitan Republican paper stated that the Democratic national committee is so completely out of funds that it had cut down its campaign documents. On another page of the same issue it stated that Judge Parker's only hope of election lies in Tom Taggart's promise to buy Indiana outright. Query: If the national Democratic party is so thoroughly impotent that it has been compelled to discharge a large portion of its office force and to quit sending out campaign literature how is heaving a name can Taggart buy Indiana? The editor of that paper ought to get himself together and tell a fib that is not self-evident. Both of the above tales are not true, and it is a 10 to 1 shot that neither is true.

In the Prime of Life. The lively way in which ex-Senator Henry C. Davis has been stamping Maryland and West Virginia shows that there is lots of life in that venerable statesman yet. "A woman is no older than she looks," so it is said, and "a man no older than he feels." Judging by that rule Mr. Davis is still in the prime of life. Consequently our Republican friends may reserve their "weeps" to borrow an expression from Artemus Ward—by reason of the calamities which have befallen him in going toward Judge Parker he elected and then die before his term expires. The indications are that Senator Davis will be hale and hearty for a score of years yet and will become known as "Artemus' grand old man" as he is now known as "West Virginia's Grand Old Man."

Hon. Arthur Pue Gorman appears to be a source of perpetual worry to Republicans. Early in the campaign he was warning that the Tariff was a danger why he was inactive and torturing the most trivial circumstances into proving that he was lukewarm. Now they are worried greatly on account of what they allege is his pernicious activity. The truth is that Senator Gorman is one of the most astute political managers in the country and is doing his level best to elect Parker and Davis. That's what is causing implicit jealousy among the Republican leaders. They remember too vividly what the great Marylander did to them in 1884 to rest easy when he is in action. He has lost none of his resourcefulness in twenty years. That's what worries the Republicans.

With Judge Parker in charge of his own campaign in the east and with William Jennings Bryan on the stump for both candidates and platform in the west, Democratic prospects are hourly growing brighter as associates daily approach. It looks at this writing that no Democrat will this year play the role of Achilles by sulking in his tent. When Democrats are united they win.

The Tasmanian delegation in the next house will be more strengthened by the accession of Hon. Charles A. Towne, formerly both representative and senator from Minnesota. He is a man of brilliant parts, an actor of rare force and a Democrat of whom the party is proud. Tasmania does a good thing for the country in once more sending him to the national councils where he will receive a most hearty welcome on both sides of the chamber.

The great public marked by the failure of Jay Cooke & Co. occurred in September, 1893, when the Republican party was in power. It was a matter of fact, every sane during the last thirty years originated under the public rule and developed under Republican legislation. It was a matter of fact, every sane during the last thirty years originated under the public rule and developed under Republican legislation.

It is true the Wilson bill was passed ten years ago. That was in 1893. But that panic did not originate in 1893. It did not originate in 1893. It did not originate in 1893.
