LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1905

METHODIST. Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. Gro. S. BAKER, Supt. 11 A. M., and 8 30 P. M every Sunday. Frayer meeting Wednesday night. L. S. MASSEY. Pastor.

BAPTIST. Hunday School at 9:30 A. M. THOS. B. WILDER, Sapt very Sanday. Prayer m eting Thursday night.
H. H. Mashburns, Paster, spisoopal,
duaday School at 9:30.
Ww. H. Ruppin, Supt.

bervices, morning and night, on st. 3rd and 4th Sundays. Revening Prayer, Friday afternoon, Rev. John Lonnon, Rector, PRESENTERIAN.

bervices 4th Sunday in each monthruing and night. LODGES, Louisburg Lodge, No. 413, A. F. A. M., meets 1st and 3rd Tuesday nights in each month.

Professional cards

| Smithwick. MITHWICK & BANKS.

DENTISTS. LOUISBURG, N. C. men in Hicks Building, Main Street.

I B. J. R. MALONE, LOUISBURG, N. C.

dice over Aycocke Prug Company. DR. J. J. MANN, " mon nell son

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON, LOUISBURG, N. C. From thre over Aycocke Prug Co, adrugstore) R. S. P. BURT, PRACTICING PHYSICIAN AND SURGISON.

Louisburg, N. C. ... a Drug Store, on Nastastreet. a lough

I AR R. P. YARBOROUGH, PHYSICIAN AND SUBGROM

LOUMBURG, M. Q. sican at once and foor New, building phone 32.

H. ALLRED. of sent to a to be to ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Will practice in all the Courts. Youngsville, N. C. B . MARRENBURG, ATTORNEY AT LAW

WM. W. BODDIE. ATTORNEY AT-LAW, Louisurne, N. C.

fie, Bobbitt & Co.'s drag WM. HAYWOOD REFFIN.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. LOUISHURG, M. C.

Will practice in all the Courts of Pranklis

F. S. SPRUILL. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, LOUISBURG, M. C. Will attend the courts of Franklin, Vascon Praylin, Warren and Wake counties, the Supreme Court of Rarth Carolina, compt attention given to collections.

Other over Egerton's Store.

W. BIOESTT,

ATTORNEY ATTAWN

Practices in all courts. Office on Main H YARBOROUGH, JR. o. liter addit ATIORNEY AT LAW,

LOUISBURG, N. C. Omes in Opera House publing, Court street
All legal business intrusted to him will receive prompt and careful attention. F. HOUCK, foul Albert heart

NTRACTOR AND BULLDER, LOUISBURG, S. C.

HOTELS.

FRANKLINTON HOTEL FRANKLINTON, N. C. C. W. CODWAY, Prp'r.

good assomodation for the trave Good Livery Attached

MASSENBURG HOTEL I P Massenburg Pro HENDERSON: N. C. Cood secommodations, Good first. Pr

vid," observed the grocer, staring at

By J. J. BELL,

Author of "Wee Macgreegor," "Mrs. McLerie," Etc. COPYRIGHT, 1904, by J. J. BELL was worth."

it were, eh?"

"She's no' that auld."

"In her prime, as it were."

"Weel, I'm shair there's nachody I like better to see comin' ower ma doorstep," said Mr. Oglivy warmly, "even if it's fur nae mair nor a penny's had a complaint frae her except yinst, an' that was when I sent her dog biscuits in mistake for abernethies, an' it was the laddle in the shop that done it because she had cuifed him for roarin' proceeded to relight his pipe.

"That's vers satisfactory, I'm shair,"

"I think it is," said Mr. Ogilvy, puffing with the air of a man who is pleased with himself. "But I was rale prood to be invited to ma tea the night.

Nae doot I lost a bit custom shutting up ma shop earlier nor usual, but what's a shillin' or two when ye're eniyin' yersel'?"

"Mphm!" murmured the younger fnan, checking a laugh.

resumed the conversation.

ished up at Arden?"

dinna tell onybody."

morrow night."

After a considerable pause the procer

"I was gaun to gi'e a hint, David, aboot a job that'il likely be stairtit efter the New Year. Are ye near teen-

"It'll be twa-three weeks yet afore

I'm through. It's been a big job!"
"The bigger the better. Weel, the job I was gain to tell ye about is a benthouse that Mr. Colman wants built big yin to haud three or fower boats,

"Hoo dae ye get to hear o' things?"

exclaimed David, sitting up in his til Mrs. Wallace started up and informed her visitors that they could not remain in her house another minute.

in the best of spirits, they shortly took their departure, David carrying a lantern, for the night was dark. "Davie," whispered Jess as they went

"'Deed, aye, lass. That was weel Aunt won't marry again."

And David told his wife of the new

"Jist that," he said gayly. "Dinna fash yersel", dearie. We're daein' fine. I only wish Dobble wad sand down that gless I ordered the ither day."

"Has it not come?" she asked in sud work in prospect.

"That's fine!" she cried softly.

'Scots wha ha'e!' at her door instead jist at her best."

"Jist that."

said David.

make sure that his feelings had not was a very pleasant one. Mr. Ogilvy, the fire, who had been famishing, finished his "Aye," a ham and eggs and after a deal of press-ing consented to take a second helping.
"Jist a wee taste," he said diffidently,
"Jist a small sensation. It's rale nice ham," he remarked to Mrs. Wallace, then, noticing a twinkle in her eye: "I mean it's rale nicely cookit. In fac', I micht say, I never tastit ham near as nicely cookit, Mistress Wallace." At this point David winked guardedly at his wife, who attempted to look severe, but smiled faintly. "As fur yer scones," said the grocer a little later, "I'm no' exaggeratin' when I tell ye they're the finest I ever encountered in a' ma born days." Such enthusiastic language from the mouth of Mr. Ogilvy was so unprecedented that a solemn pause ensued for several seconds. "I'm shair I'm glad ye like the scones," returned Mrs. Wallace, recov-ering herself and breaking the silence, which would otherwise have been broken by a snicker from David. "Is Mis-

Nell no a guid haun at the bak-"Until the night I thouht she was." came the gallant reply, whereat Hous-ton gave his wife the gentlest of gentle kicks under the table. "I doot ye're an unco blether, Maister Ogilvy," said the hostess, with a Mr. Ogilvy was suddenly abashed, realizing that he had allowed the unaccustomed comfort and cheer to carry Jess came to the rescue. "Have you tian. But that was the only complaint beard how poor Mrs. Neil is tonight?" I ever had, David." And the grocer beard how poor Mrs. Neil is tonight?" "Weel, Mistress Houston, I seen the doctor jist afore I left the shop, an he sald she was a lump better an' wud maybe be back at her wark on Mon-day. But she's gettin' auld, ye ken, an' T'doot she's no' lang for this life, puir buddy "Figur housefroit over! "Wud ye no' be better to get some ither yin in her place?" asked David. "No" as lang's she's leevin'. She cudna thole it. An I dinna ken ony buddy in Kinlochan that wud be carin' about the job."

"Of course there's twa weys o' gettin' a hoosekeeper," said David teas-For an instant the grocer looked pussled. Then he took a long drink from his empty cup and tried to look as if he had not heard the remark at all, "Are you satisfied?" The hostess glanced round the table and rose. "Jess," she said briskly, "you an' me'll clear the dishes, an' Maister Ogilvy an' Davie can ha'e a smoke." "Och, we'll jist wait an' ha'e a smoke in the kitchen efter ye're through wi' the dishes," said David, who had never ret lighted his pipe in Mrs. Wallace's "I'm tellin' ye ye can smoke here," she assured him. "Yer pipes 'll be nas-

Jess," she said briskly, "you an' me'll clear the dishes."

thin' to the ceegaurs o' ma ludgers in the simmer. Ye can smell the ceegaurs yet. I doot they wis chape yins. So ye can smoke yersel's black i the face. an' maybe the new smell 'll help to kill the auld yin. Draw yer chairs in to Aunt and niece speedily cleared the table and retired to the kitchen to wash up, for the former had a theory that the longer a dish was left solled the more difficult it was to cleanse. The two men drew their chairs to-ward the hearth, filled and lit their pipes and for fully ten minutes puffed in solemn silence.

"It's a bonny pauriour this," Mr. Ogilvy ventured after he had taken in every detail of the room, which was a model of orderliness and cleanliness, yet somewhat solidly furnished and primly arranged.

"It's a" that," returned David agreeably, "but when I come in I'm aye feart at first that I dae the wrang thing. I yinst knockit ower a vaze, an', though it's two year syne, I can hear the smash it made on the fender yet. It's no' a nice thing to knock ower a vaze ongin' to the aunt wha's niece ye're that ye might ca' an awkward posec-tion. At least I sud presoome that the posection widna be a thegither pleas-int, though it's no' fur me to say, see o' I'm no' yera fameellar wi' the paur-nrs o' weemen folk."

den alarm.
"Oh, it'll likely be here the morn.
But I was thinkin'o' takin' the day to gang sp' are the duke's chrysanthemums, an' I thoust so micht like to lours o' weemen folk."
"Ab. but it wis gey awkward, I tell ye. But I may say that Mistress Wallace peyer referred to the vaze efter that ulcht—no' but what she referred kin' o' freely to it at the time. It it hadna been fur Jess, I wad ha'e said "That would be grand, but—but"— "But what?"
"Shouldn't you be at Arden tomor

An' it's time ye had a day aft. Jess."

She spoke little more during the remarkable of the walk, but her husband chatted cheerfully. An ugly presentiment assailed her, and she could not get quit of it. She was convinced that she (she did not intend that David should see it first) would find a letter in a business envelope under the door of the cottage, deposited there by old Angus, who asually walled in the shop for the evening post.

David, whistling merrify, purped his key in the door of Hazel Cottage. "Did you shot the gate properly, Da-vie?" she said, trembling. "Aye, but I'll gang back an' see," he returned oblighigh and ran down the path, swinging the lautern.

Jess pushed the floor partly "Aye," said David briefly, but no "Ye'll be gey cheery alang at Haz Cottage that lang nichts," continue the older man, "It's u-a rale fine Davie!" she sighed at within her blouse. thing to ha'e-a-agreeable comp'ny, as

"Aye," said David softly, pushing "Jess, lass, ye're lukin' wearit." he said tenderly a little later. "Oh, I'm all right," she replied, trydown the shreds of glowing tobacco with a hardened foreinger. ing to smile all last a haras "An'-an' yer wife's gey weel aff wi' "Ye'll be the better o' a day aff the her aunt," said the other after som norn, an' I ken ye'll enjye seein' the duke's chrysanthenums. My, if I had jist the time an' money, Jess!" "Keep hoping, Davie," she said very gently. "But I—I don't think I'll come "Aye, Mistress Wallace is jist a fine auld wumman," said the joiner heartwith you tomorrow. I think I'll go to "I didna mean that exacily, but of the town instead. You see, it's a long course she's a guld bit aulder nor Jess an' me. I wudna say but what she's

Her husband looked so disappointed that her will nearly gave way. "I wantit ye wi' me," he said slowly, "but I daur say ye're needin' things frae the toon, an', as ye say, it's a guid while since ye was there. L suppose ye'll be hame in time for Ogilvy."

"Oh, yes. You're not vexed, are you, "Ye've kent her longer nor me."
"Och, aye. She's been a regiar customer o' mine since she cam to Kinlochan, an' I'm prood to say I've never "Na, na, ma dear. I believe ye wud ome wi me if ye hadaa somethin' important to dae in the toon. Eh, Jess?"
"That's just it. And maybe you'll ask me another time." "That I wull, fass!" "And you'll bring home some flowers if you can. I like to see our own ones. growing." Then she added very casually, "I might as well look in at Dobat once Mynt Indiana I have a would

"Aye; jist dae that, Jess." And, with a laugh, he added, "Ye can tell them ye're ma pairtner." CHAPTER V. N'a bottle o' turntture pottan," continued Mrs. Whilace. "A bottle o' furniture polish," repeated the grocer, moistening the point of a stumpy pen-cil and applying it to the dog cared page of a dilapidated order book.

"Aye, an' see an' no send a bottle o' Complexion Cream, the wey ye done the last time." "Complexion Cream?"

the last time-it's a while syne-I or-dered furniture polish. I presoome it wisna your fan't Maister Ogilvy, fur received an evil smile, as the stories on the face o' the laddle that brecht the messages. But it when a -nane o' yer wee boathouses, but a evil smile nor ony ither kin' o' smile when I got the haud o' him the next an' it's to be done up in the best style." | mornin'. Na." "Oh, Mistress Wallace," exclaimed

Mr. Ogilvy in unaffected distress, "I'm "Aw, never you mind about that, but He was list a wee deavil, an' I'm gled if ye want the fob tak' ma advice an' I sent him awa'. Deed, I wish I had gang to Mistress Colman first. She's sent him awa' shinner. In fac', I wish the manager o' the establishment, but I had never seen his implident face. she's a kind leddy, an'-an' ye can men- I was near dementit wi' his pranks tion that I sent ye, if ye like," and tricks. He thocht methin of pit-"Ach, I see it noo!" cried Houston. tin' saut in siftit sugar, an' yin time
"It was her wee lassie that ye pickit he mixed up pepper in pulr auld Maisoot frae among the horses' feet at"— ter Bowle's shuff ah' near kill the pulr "Whisht, man, whisht! That's nae, buddy wi' speezin' an' greetin'. An' thin' to dae wi' 't!" cried Mr. Ogilvy, at the New Year what dae ye think he thin' to dae wi' 't!" cried Mr. Ogilvy, confused. "Jist you tak' ma hint an' done to Mistress Mason's patreet, the biggest order I've had for mony a lang day-what dae ye think he done?" "I cudna say."

"Aweel, I sud explain that the pair-cel contained, as it were, a heap of lux-uries. In fac, it was mustly compos-ed o' luxuries, a' sorts o' guid things an' sweet things, ye ken." ed that he was the possessor of a stock of old and chiefly weird local legends, "Mphm!" with which he regaled the company un-

"I'm tellin' ye aboot the luxuries so as ye may perceive the full meanin' of Without feeling the least offended, but lass cam' into the shop an' said I cud get the paircel back as shin as I liket I needna tell the laddle to ca' fur furthrough the garden gate, "tell Mr. Ogilther orders, an' wi that she walkit on the shop, leavin' me completely dum foouert: But there was naethin' for it thocht o'," he returned and passed the but to get back the paircel an' solve invitation on to the grocer.

"Thenk ye, thenk ye," said Mr. Ogilvy, coughing loudly. "I'll be jist deethe mystery, as it were." "An' whit wis the mystery as it wis?" inquired Mrs. Wallace, a little lighted. Thenk ye, thenk ye."

"When they had parted with him, opposite his shop, David began to laugh "The mystery," said Mr. Oglisy, solemnly, "was a laired size buttle o' castor lie wi' 'A Happy New Year write ten on it, an' Mistress Mason badna or "Oglivy's efter your Aunt Wallace."
"Oh, Davie, I-I believe he is."
"Has he ony chance, think ye, Jess?" dered the ile."

Mrs. Wallace chuckled /"I furgi'e the laddie! I furgi'e the laddie! she

"I'm afraid not. Poor Mr. Ogilvy! "A wumman's got to be askit first said the grocer shortly, "but I gi'ed weel lukit efter, for he's a dacent man an' a guid freen' to you en' me, lass."

Davie, it was such a relief to get that sages. I tell't him that when I peyed awful bill off our minds today, wasn't him his wages fur the last time. But he list made a face at me an' gaed "Deed, aye," he assented lightly.

"But there's a lot to be done yet," was the Setturday nicht, an when I had seen him an the premises I cam back here, whaur I'm the noo, fur to mak, up ma books, an I made to sit suppect more than she wanted him to know. awa' lauchin' like to hurt hissel'. It

There's a world of difference be Father." AMy Father" and "Om

Paint Your Buggs For 75c. to [$1.00 with Dorce's Gloss Carrie Paint. It weighs 3 to 5 cm more to to pint than others, ware longer and give a gloss equal to new work. Sold a tien Bros Co.

The first ray of heaven will dry all the rivers of earth's tears.

Buy It Now.

There are three reasons why merefer One Minute Coope Cure: Fit absolutely harmiess, Second, It cod-outlidren joys It; Third, It

HYGEIA-The Best 5-cent cigar on earth for sale at Aycocke Drug

True courage as never afraid of the charge of cowardice. A Smoth Article.

When you find it necessary to see salv use De Witt's Witch Haarl Salve. It is the purest, and the for sores, bolls, sera-ma, blind bleeding, Itching or protrud-ing price. Get the gengine DeWha's Hazel Salve, Sold by Avecche Drug Co-

Great power for work seldom with great power of wind. Good For Stomach Trouble and Con-stipatum.

"Chemberlain's Stomach and Liver-Triblets have done me a great deal of good," C. Towns, of Rat Poctage, Outstarin ."Being a mild physic the after "freely are not unpleasant and I can recommend them to all who suffer from stomach disorder." For sale by att drog-glats.

Success is a big word, but sinceri

Where are you sink? Headache, for tonge, no appetite, inch energy, pain in your stemach, constipation? Hollister's kocky Mountain Tun will make you well and keep you well. 35 cents. R. A. Robbitt & Co.

It may be there is no greater suf ferer than the saviour.

There is no case of indigestion, dyspepsia or stomach trouble that will not yield to the digestive influence of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This e-medy takes the strain off the stomach by digesting what you est and allowing it to rest natil it grows strong again. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure affords quick and permanent relief from indigestion and atlatopepsia Cure affords quick and perma-neut relief from indigention and atlato-math troubles, builds up the system and so purifief that disease cannot attack and gain a footbold as when in a weakened condition. The constantly increasing use of Kodol Daspepela Cure problem trians of hospital and general practice of trail tells how this modern discovery has proven to be the greatest digestant for the alleviation of both children and adults grows larger day by day; B

LOUISBURG DISPENSARY G. Gump & Son, Baltim

NOTICE.

Wanted. The M. F. Houck Brick Ma in any quantity, will pay $1.50

OUR SPECIALTY.

We are always propared to himled the cost fresh can finder, boungarie and finesh corations in the last eigh at elect senion Palms and ferms to sait you.

FALL BULBS

JACOB EVANS. THE OUD-RELIABLE

EDOT AND SHIP TATES

REPAIRING A SPECIALITY.

DUICKER AND BETTER

Will give just the desired amount of dish to the wheat. No guess work about it. No burst or thiered follow surfaces to ever away and bosen the tire.

We set them rold on hard mond exchange and the value so them and he value socked fellow to shrink away and became the tire, no harm paint to replace. With this matheter we do not over dish and sprain the whest that it may spring back to take up the reaction of the tire when minamed from presents as to not over dish and sprain that excited the earlier will machine that excited the earlier is all machines that excited the earlier the objectionable feature of such machines is overcome in our maghine, single the reaction of the tire when remained from prevents is in proportion to the length of the tire under presents, and we compress only two or them in public at a time, thus the reaction is practically overcome. ton or them inches at a time. then the feature is practically overcome.

Wrystarsties nor work and reland you mayor; if not satisfactory. Who can do more! Give on a trial. You are cordially invited to call and me the unwhite is open. A. T. NEAL.

Garden

Seeds

or Medicine you want don't fail to see us. Our Seeds are Fresh and our Drugs and Medicines Pure. Nice lot of Candles.

M. K. & F. R. Pleasants

pure - old - velvety. the best for the price

louisburg dispensary

Baptist University For Women

bricks, one hour such. Paralty of six mee and twenty frage women. Section of the targets by a full graduate of Make Proper and Newton Thompson fraction theories theretay. But the principal for the principal theories of the principal for the principal the principal physics. Subject of expense, with a face by of two more and six women, and corposed in the south. The southers of molecule inches after by a ladge principal transmitted in the south. bedy physicise, two matrous and a person. Browd, literary terline, best light have, fees for physicise, turns and blowery, $100 per session) is the with from 5 to $100 fees. No firepart to any conservator parameters the same rules. But he the changest school of the grade to the scath. For factber information adde

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose sollies or shything your groser happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about collie that is said to built, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to wook out. Could any amount of more talk have personaled to

Lion Coffee, the leader of all package collegs for over a quarte of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands h

STREETERS does not convince vince yourself, and to make OR IN PERMANENT PURCHASER. ON CHIFFEE is said only in 1 Ib. saided prolymps seeding you so prive god diseas so when it into or

SOLD BY GROCERS EVERYWHERE

A full line of sample straw hats, at toot.

Hay, Flour, Ship Stof, at lewest cash prices. Call and see to and we will guarantee to please you.

PRINTING