TOWN OF YOUNGVILLE.

GRADUALLY BUT SURELY GROWING AND BUILDING UP.

Its Business Men Live and Hustling—Two Tobacco Warehouses—Good Banking Facilities—Fine Graded School.

The editor of the TIMES spent a few hours in our neighboring town of Youngville on Monday of this week, and it is a pleasure for us to state that we found business lively in that growing town. The cotton platform was filled with bales of cotton, which had been bought, as we were informed by one of the live business men, in the past few days, and the two tobacco warehouses, which are run by reliable and energetic warehousemen, presented evidence of the fact that they are handling their share of the weed, while the various stores of the merchants, which are filled with new goods, contained quite a number of customers who were providing themselves with some of the best "before they were picked over."

We had occasion to "call in" at the bank, which is so well officered by W. G. Riddick, as cashier, and J. W. Mitchell, as assistant, and found these two gentlemen in their usual accommodating and pleasant humor.

The graded school, of which every citizen is exceedingly proud, is succeeding, and is being conducted most satisfactorily under the superintendency of Prof. Conley and his efficient assistants.

Quite a number of new dwellings have recently been completed, as well as several new stores, among the latter is the large brick store of J. W. Winston & Co., which they are already occupying. The store of Spivey & Timberlake is nearing completion, and when finished will be one of the prettiest in the State. They hope to complete it by November 1st.

J. W. Winston & Co.

The advertisement of this hustling firm of Youngville, will be found in this issue of the TIMES. The members of this firm are Joseph W. Winston, and Chan. E. Timberlake, both of whom are young but experienced business men and while they are in the business to make a living, they do not want it all. In dealing with their customers it is their plan to take only a small profit, and as a proof of this fact, they rarely ever lose a customer after once getting him started with them. Read what they say in their advertisement.

HEBER STONE DEAD.

He Was a Native of Louisburg.

The editor of the TIMES was handed this week a newspaper clipping, containing an account of the death of Mr. Heber Stone, which occurred at his home in Brenham, Texas, a few days ago. He was a son of Dewitt Stone, who was a resident of Louisburg when Heber was born, August 26, 1853. The mother of Heber Stone was a sister of Col. W. H. and Capt. R. F. Yarborough. Soon after the civil war Mr. Stone and family, when Heber was a small boy, moved to Galveston, Texas. We glean the following from the newspaper article referred to above:

Mr. Stone was married to Miss Louise Giddings on June 4, 1879, and to this union five children were born, namely, Giddings Stone, Mrs. R. E. Nicholson, Heber Stone, Albert Stone and Louise Stone.

Mr. Stone had been prominently connected with the financial institutions of Brenham for a long time, and was at the head of many large commercial enterprises at the time of his death.

Mr. Stone took a prominent interest in politics. He was for a long time chairman of the Democratic executive committee of his county. He was elected state senator in 1896 and served as chairman of the finance committee of the senate in the twenty-fifth legislature. He refused renomination, owing to the press of private interests, but still found time to devote to his church duties. Deceased was a devout Christian, who lived a life above reproach, and whose kindness was proverbial in his county. No needy man was ever turned away empty handed. He gave to charity with a lavish hand, and contributed to every public enterprise.

Death of I. G. Staunton.

Mr. Isham G. Staunton, one of Franklinton's oldest and most highly respected citizens passed away at the age of 74 years on Monday last, after a short illness. For many years he was one of the leading merchants of our sister town, but a few years ago he retired from active business life, and gave the most of his time to looking after his farms. His estate is valued at anywhere from $60,000 to $80,000, the most of which he left to his wife. They had no children. At the time of his death he was President of the Citizens Bank of Franklinton. He was a member of the Methodist Church, in which faith he died, and was a Mason. He was buried with Masonic honors, at Plank Chapel, (M. E. Church) on last Tuesday.

Special Train to State Fair.

The Seaboard Air Line will run a special through train from Louisburg to the State Fair next Wednesday and Thursday as follows:

Leaves Louisburg at 7 a. m.; Franklinton 7.40, and Youngville at 7.52, arriving at Raleigh at 8.35. Returning this special will leave Raleigh at 6.00 p. m. One first class fare, plus 50 cents for the round trip, which includes one admission to the Fair Grounds. Tickets to be sold October 12th to 20th, final limit October 23rd.

The Shoo Fly will not stop to take on passengers between Franklinton and Raleigh on the 17th and 18th.

—Hon. Locke Craig will speak in Louisburg next Monday.

"Send Me the Times."

This is the message we received a few days ago from Mr. Norman L. Jones, who sent us a "crisp" one dollar bill from his far away home in the Canal Zone, Isthmus of Panama. He has a position with the U. S. government.

Card of Thanks.

To the friends who were so kind to my husband during his long illness, I wish to express my grateful appreciation, and to assure them that their sympathy and kindness will ever be remembered.

Mrs. W. G. MURFORD.

Look Out Girls—It's Only a Joke

EDITOR TIMES: I am glad to note the fact that the young men in our community are becoming so brave and strong. There is one young fellow that is particularly so. I refer to Millard Perry. He arose bright and early last Saturday morning and put off to town, his pockets jingling with the filthy lucre. After strutting the streets for some time, no one knowing his business but himself, he went around to one of the leading buggy men of Youngville and bought him a buggy, and into it he jumped, saying as he took his seat, "Get long." But all of a sudden he realized that he had left his horse at home. Amid the laughing among those who had been watching him, he tumbled out and made for home, and everybody he met the only thing he could say was, "New buggy—will see my girl to-morrow." Look out for him girls. Your friend,
R. P. D. No. 5 JINGLE BRAINS.

E. W. POU AND C. C. DANIELS

THEY WILL SPEAK WITH THE COUNTY CANDIDATES.

Let Everybody Turn Out and Hear These Gentlemen, who are Informed, Discuss the Issues of the Campaign.

Hon. Edward W. Pou, Candidate for Congress, will speak with the Democratic Candidates at Poplar Springs on October 24th and at Rocky Ford, on October 29th. He will also speak at Louisburg, on Saturday, October 20th at 2 o'clock.

Charles C. Daniel, Candidate for Solicitor will speak with the Candidates at Stallings on Thursday, November 1st, and will join the Candidates at several other places.

Franklinton's New Hotel.

The new hotel at Franklinton is nearing completion, and will be ready to throw its doors open for the accommodation of guests in a very short time. The TIMES learns that it will be under the management of Mr. G. L. Whitfield, which is a guarantee that the guests will be well cared for. The new hotel is on the former site upon which the old one stood, and at the beginning it was only contemplated to renovate and repair the same, but from the outside appearance we judge that the proprietors decided to put up a new building out-and-out.

Tobacco Notes.

"No use talking about carrying your tobacco to any other market," said a farmer, "as long as the warehousemen here keep up their present lick."

The Riverside intended changing their advertisement this week, as they had something interesting to tell, but they were so busy looking after the interests of their patrons they could not spare the time to write it up. Look out for "another blast" next week.

A number of Wake county farmers were here the past week with the weed, and went away highly pleased.

Craig at Louisburg.

Hon. Locke Craig, one of the finest speakers in the state, will speak in the Opera House in Louisburg, next Monday, October 15th, upon the political issues of the day. The speaking will take place at 2.30, and everybody who wants to hear one of the best speeches that will be delivered in this campaign should make it convenient to be in the Opera House next Monday. The ladies are cordially invited.

Prof. Hobgood at Mapleville.

The TIMES is requested to announce that Prof. F. P. Hobgood, of Oxford, will deliver an address in the Academy at Mapleville on Friday evening, October 26th, at 8 o'clock. Friends and patrons of the school are cordially invited.

No Excuse to Change.

There is no excuse for any one who has heretofore affiliated with the Democratic party to vote the Republican ticket this year. "Abide in the ship." We cannot help quoting the following from the Raleigh News and Observer: "The man who wants to see another legislature adjourning in honor of Frederick Douglas and refuse to adjourn in honor of Robert E. Lee, should by all means vote the Republican ticket in North Carolina this year. No other sort of white man should vote it."—Durham Sun.

Dr. B. F. Arrington, Dental Specialist, will be in Louisburg next Tuesday and Wednesday, at the office of Drs. Smithwick & Banks.

THE MOVING PEOPLE.

THEIR MOVEMENTS IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

And Those Who Come and Go, Some for Pleasure, Some for Business and a Large Number Because They Like It.

Mr. W. J. Allen, of the Foss Gasoline Engine Co., is in the burg.

Miss Nina Ballard, of Franklinton, is a guest of Mrs. J. L. Barrow. Mrs. G. T. Andrews, of Rocky Mount, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. Cooke.

Mrs. P. B. Fleming and Miss Madge Fleming, of Raleigh, were guests at Mrs. S. T. Wilder's the past week.

Mrs. J. C. Conway returned to her home in Louisburg Monday after a short visit to her brother, Mr. J. H. Beddingfield, in Rocky Mount.

Mr. David C. Ballard, made a short visit here this week to see his father, Mr. Frank Ballard. He is now Cashier of the Bank at Roanoke Rapids.

Among the visitors here this week were Mrs. Louis N. Williams and children, and Mrs. Sallie Watson, of Springhope. They were guests at Capt. P. G. Alston's.

Mr. Nat. Beasley, who has been with a firm in Loris, S. C., will leave in a few days for Pierce City, Mo., where he has accepted a position with a leading business firm of that city.

The editor had a pleasant call yesterday morning from Mr. Joe May, who is visiting his father Mr. Thos. May near town. He is in the mercantile business near Morrisville.

Mr. T. P. Afford, of Ringwood, was in our sanctum yesterday, and had his name placed on the "honor roll" of the TIMES. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Pattie, who will be one of the teachers in Sandy Creek during the coming session.

Mrs. Wright Mann, of Carlisle, Ark., is visiting her father, Mr. A. J. Underhill, near Louisburg. Upon arriving here she told a friend that everything looked natural to her as she had kept up with the many changes by reading the TIMES which arrived promptly every Monday morning at her home. The editor is pleased to learn that her good husband and his energetic brother, Mr. W. Y. Mann, who lives near them, are doing well.

INGLESIDIE ITEMS.

Miss Mary Jordan Foster is visiting relatives at Ingleside. She leaves to-day to visit others in Louisburg.

If reports are true, and they sometimes are, wedding bells will be ringing soon and then perhaps our items will be more interesting.

Mr. Macon has remodeled his store, and now has one of the most convenient and attractive places of business to be found in the country and his large and well selected stock of goods can furnish anything needed.

A breath from the western snow brought us a touch of frost last night, and this morning we are building fires and looking up overcoats. But Mr. Editor if you could have seen the large crowd at Ingleside Academy last night, and how every one enjoyed the best cream and cake, how bright and happy every one seemed, you would have had little thought of cold. And too the liberal hearts of Ingleside responded so generously that when all was over we found we had double the amount we had hoped for. You know Ingleside never does things by halves. We feel that we must thank Miss Meta Canady, who is always ready to help in a good cause, for her nice contribution. Our only regret was that the editor could not be with us.

Cozy Homes.

The discovery of a new wick principle—so effective and yet so simple that it's a wonder no one thought of it before—has so revolutionized the manufacture of oil heaters and lamps that explosions, smoke and smell, caused by imperfect wick arrangement, may be safely regarded as things of the past.

The new wick attachment is to be found on the Perfection Oil Heater. Interesting tests show that, although the heater gives intense heat, the wick cannot be turned too high or too low—absolute safety thus being assured. One other feature which is worthy of mention is the smokeless device which prevents all smoke and odor. The portability of the heater also commends it for general household use. Heater is very light and can be easily carried about. Its simple operation, usefulness in heating water and warming cold rooms make it a most handy and useful article in any home. This heater is so far superior to other oil heaters, and is of such fair price that its universal adoption is but a matter of time.

The Rayo Lamp, which is made by the manufacturers of the Perfection Oil Heater, is without doubt the best lamp for all-round household use. It is equipped with the latest improved burner, and gives a bright, steady light at small cost. Suitable for any room, whether dining-room, library, parlor or bed-room.

The Perfection Oil Heater and the Rayo Lamp form a combination that for real home comfort cannot be equalled. When consideration is taken of the simple operation of both the heater and the lamp, their absolute safety, the intense heat generated by the one, and the bright and steady light given by the other—all without smoke or smell—their value in any home, large or small, can be somewhat appreciated. Sold by all good dealers.

CASTALIA ITEMS.

The Democratic county canvass opens here Thursday of this week.

Lieutenant Gray Biss, of the U. S. A., visited his aunt, Mrs. W. J. King, one day last week.

Miss Estelle Neal, of Centerville, is here assisting her Aunt Mrs. Bartholomew, in her millinery establishment.

Rev. G. M. Duke has just closed a series of meetings at Peachtree. About fifty additions to the church was the result.

Mr. Charles Dickerson has been commissioned by Gov. Glenn as a notary public. Mr. Dickerson is a capable man and will make an acceptable official.

Mr. F. W. Whidson, who has had several years experience, has accepted a position as druggist at Emporia, Va., and will move there with his family shortly and begin his work.

Mr. James Bowden, of Justice, has purchased the entire stock of the Castalia Drug Co., and will move his family here and commence business the 1st of December. We gladly welcome him to our village.

The Tar River Baptist Association convened with the church at Red Oak, this county, Tuesday. The weather was ideal and the attendance large. A large number of Baptists from several counties always attend these annual meetings.

Rev. G. W. May, who has been conducting a flourishing school at Red Oak, will move here with his competent corps of teachers, and will begin his school work January 1st. Our people are indeed fortunate in securing so capable a man to take charge of their school.

Mr. Arch Taylor, of Oxford, and one of the cleverest men on the road, was here Tuesday. PLAIN TOWN, Castalia, N. C., Oct. 9, 1906.

Dr. S. Rapport will be at the Louisville Hotel Wednesday Oct. 17th for the purpose of examining eyes and fitting glasses. Remember the day and date. Consultation free.

MONUMENT TO MCIVER

IT IS EXPECTED THAT $15,000 WILL BE RAISED.

Appeal to the People of North Carolina to Erect Heroic Bronze Statue to Perpetuate His Memory.

TO PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA: Dr. Charles D. McIver devoted his life to the service of his people. No man of our day has rendered greater and more lasting service. Moved by love of his people and consciousness of his mission and duty, at great financial sacrifice he rejected tempting offers from time to time to leave the State and enter the commercial world at home. His life stands out perhaps the highest ideal in this generation of North Carolinians of unselfish civic service. We believe that the people whom he served in so many ways with so much fidelity, ability and love, will deem it a privilege and an honor to contribute to a fund for the erection of a heroic bronze statue to perpetuate his memory. The undersigned committee, therefore, appointed by the governor of the State, earnestly appeals to every citizen of North Carolina, who loves his State and honors unselfish service, to send at once a liberal contribution for this memorial.

The statue should be worthy of the man and his people. It is hoped, therefore, that at least $15,000 may be contributed. Fifty men and women in North Carolina could easily contribute $100 each; one hundred men and women $50 each; two hundred men and women $25 each; two hundred men and women $10 each, and a host of men and women will, we believe, gladly contribute smaller amounts. Let all express their gratitude for unselfish service rendered by a contribution to this worthy cause. The committee will make every effort to raise the necessary funds within the next thirty or sixty days. Let the response be prompt.

Send all contributions and pledges to J. Y. Joyner, Chairman, Raleigh, N. C.

J. Y. Joyner, Chairman, W. H. Osborne, Josephus Daniels, F. P. Venable, Miss Gertrude Meadwell, Mrs. J. Lindsay Ferguson.

They Will Come Back.

They go away, but somehow or other they will come back. This time it is Mr. Henry C. Taylor and family, who moved from Louisburg some time last year to make South Boston, Va., their home. They say there is no place like Louisburg, and the TIMES gives them the glad hand. Mr. Taylor has his plans almost matured to go into a new business soon.

The County Canvass.

The Democratic candidates for the Legislature and county offices will open the canvass on Wednesday, October 24th, in Dunn township. The appointments are as follows: Poplar Springs, Wednesday, October 24.

Clifton's Mill, Thursday, October 25.

Youngville, Friday, October 26.

Franklinton, Saturday, October 27.

Rocky Ford, Monday, October 28.

Laurel, Tuesday, October 30.

Centerville, Wednesday, October 31.

Stallings, Thursday, November 1.

Gataville, Friday, November 2.

Louisburg, Saturday, November 3.

Congressman Poe, Solicitor Daniels and other prominent speakers will join the county candidates at some of the appointments. The people are cordially invited to attend and hear the issues discussed.

J. A. THOMAS, Chairman.

Dem. Executive Committee.

I will attend the above places on the days named for the purpose of collecting taxes for 1906.

H. C. KRAMER, Sheriff.
