NUMBER 38.

CONG. E. W. POU SPEAKS.

HE CAME IN A SHOWER OF RAIN LAST SATURDAY.

Although the Weather Was Very Unfavorable Quite a Number Heard Him Preach the Principles of Democracy.

The rain came down in torrents last Saturday about midday, but not sufficient quantities to prevent Hon. E. W. Pou, the present Congressman from this district, and a candidate for re-election, from filling the appointment in Louisburg. He arrived here in the heavy shower of rain about 2 o'clock, having driven over from Franklinton, and began his speech in the Court House about 3 o'clock. He was introduced by Mr. T. W. Bickett in a few very appropriate and fitting manner, and for more than an hour our able Congressman discussed in a most earnest and convincing manner the issues in this campaign. He thoroughly explained the inequities of the present tariff laws, and denounced the policies of Congress that allowed the manufacturers of this country to sell their goods cheaper than they do to Americans. He also took up State affairs and contrasted the Democratic administrations of Aycock and Glenn with the administrations of Euseell, Butler and their gang. The stench of the many scandals that occurred under the latter administration still lingers in the nostrils of the people of the State, and the speaker fervently prayed that the good people of North Carolina would never again turn the State over to that gang. Our people were highly pleased with Mr. Pou's speech. They all like him, and will give him a big vote on the 6th of November.

Tobacco Notes.

It has been quite encouraging to our tobacco men, and also citizens in general, to see so many people here from adjoining counties with tobacco the past week. We noticed some from as far as Moore county. This speaks well for our market, as each and every one seemed to be extra well pleased.

Mr. J. J. Hickey, of Richmond, was on our sales Wednesday and although the weed is selling very high it was noticed that prices began to climb a little in the evening. Our warehousemen and farmers especially, are always glad to welcome Mr. Hickey and are more than glad when he brings with him higher prices.

The breaks at all the warehouses have been larger for the past several days, if possible, than at any time before this season. Double sales had to be resorted to on Tuesday to accommodate the large amount of tobacco on the market.

We are always glad to welcome so many visiting farmers to our market and hope to see them again soon.

Honor Roll.

The following is the honor roll of the Ingleside Academy:

Mr. Jones teacher—Mary Bell Dement, Sallie Louise Macon, Willie Macon, Mattie Lancaster.

Miss Winston teacher—Irene Pace, Ethel Collins, William Faulkner, Cullom Lancaster, Dallas Dement, Ollie Dement, Lillian Beasley, Joe Ben Beasley.

Two Fine Sermons.

Rev. T. N. Ivey, the able editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, the organ of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, preached two fine sermons in the Methodist church on last Sunday. Although the weather was quite inclement he had very good congregations. Dr. Ivey has a large number of admirers here, both as a preacher and as an editor, and they are always highly pleased to hear him.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES FOR COUNTY OFFICERS.

HENRY C. KEARNEY, Candidate for Sheriff.

JAMES A. THOMAS, Candidate for Treasurer.

JOSEPH J. BARROW, Candidate for Clerk of the Superior Court.

WILLIS M. ROONE, Candidate for Register of Deeds.

JOSEPH T. INCOE, Candidate for Surveyor.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

We present on this page this week the pictures of the nominees of the Democratic party for this county, except that of Mr. Taylor, the candidate for Coroner, (as we were unable to secure a cut of him). All of these sterling Democrats received a unanimous nomination in one of the most harmonious conventions ever held in the county, and the efforts to beset their fair names and fair faces in office by a few "wolves in sheep's clothing" will fall flat. The people of the county have tried the candidates on the Democratic ticket, and they have never found them wanting. To the opposite party, however, up to this writing, but not a single Democrat, as evidence of the fact that even the Republicans are satisfied with the management of county affairs. We also give the picture of our next Congressman.

HON. EDWARD W. POUL, Candidate for Congress for the 4th District.

THOMAS W. BICKETT, Candidate for the House of Representatives.

THE MOVING PEOPLE.

THEIR MOVEMENTS IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

And Those Who Come and Go. Some for Pleasure, Some for Business and a Large Number Because They Like It.

Miss Mary T. King, of Warrenton, is a visitor to Louisburg.

Miss Annette Taylor, of Oxford, is a guest of Mrs. R. P. Taylor.

Mr. E. L. Cooke paid Franklinton a "business" visit Wednesday.

Mrs. Gertie Moorman, of Chatham, N. C., is visiting at Dr. J. E. Malone's.

Miss Eula Mitchiner, of near here, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. F. G. Banks at McCullers.

Messrs. A. C. Zollieffer and T. M. Pittman, two of Henderson's prominent attorneys, were here this week.

Miss Minnie Beck, who has been visiting her brother, Supt. K. C. Beck, left for her home in Richmond last Saturday.

Miss Sallie D. Uppermann left Wednesday morning for McCullers, where she will spend a few days with Mrs. F. G. Banks.

Mrs. P. B. Singleton, of Newbury, S. C., who has been visiting her sister, Miss Joe Jones, returned to her home on Saturday of last week.

Mr. H. N. Beasley, after spending several days with his people here, left Tuesday for Pierce City, Mo., which he will make his new home. Mr. Beasley is a very clever and popular young man and though we regret very much to see him leave we wish him much success in his new home.

A Pretty Marriage.

There was a very pretty marriage ceremony solemnized at the home of the bride's father, Mr. W. T. Wilder, on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock when Miss Pattie Wilder was happily married to Mr. L. R. Southall, Rev. L. S. Massey performing the ceremony in a very impressive manner. The bride is a daughter of one of our former county commissioners, Mr. W. T. Wilder, who is also a successful farmer near the Oswego section. The groom is a very clever young man and now has a position as guard of the convicts which place he is filling with credit.

The bridal party was given a reception immediately after the ceremony by the brother of the groom, Mr. James Southall at his home.

The editor of the Times wishes congratulations and wishes them much success in life.

COUNTY CANVASS OPENS AT POPLAR SPRINGS.

Candidates Met by Good Crowds and the Speeches Well Received.

The County Canvass by the Democrats opened at Poplar Springs on Wednesday and the candidates were greeted by a large number of the voters of that township.

The candidates for the county offices present made very brief announcements of the day. Messrs. E. W. Pou, candidate for congress, and T. W. Bickett, Candidate for the legislature. Mr. Pou was the first speaker, who spoke for more than an hour. He was given the very best attention and was well received. His speech was well planned and on account of the fact that he was forced to leave in order to reach Louisburg in time to take the 4:40 train for his next appointment in Chatham county.

Mr. Bickett spoke for an hour and a half. He discussed very interestingly to the crowd, State and National issues, interspersed with a number of very appropriate stories. His arraignment of the Republican party for its failure to carry out its pledges to the people, and the comparison of the state governments of the Democratic and Republican parties were greatly enjoyed by his hearers. At the conclusion of Mr. Bickett's speech one enthusiastic listener exclaimed "hurrah for the second Zeb Vance."

Old Dunns will come up all right on the 6th of November.

The candidates spoke at Clifton's Mill yesterday and are at Youngville to-day. To-morrow they will be at Franklinton.

Mr. Pou will be at Rocky Ford with the candidates next Monday.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

THOMAS S. CHILD

JOHN H. ZEYDEL

NATHAN G. ...

JAMES H. ...

ELIJAH M. GUPTON.

TAKES HER OWN LIFE.

OUR COMMUNITY STARTLED YESTERDAY EVENING.

Mrs. W. H. Waddell, in a Fit of Melancholia Cut Her Throat With a Carving Knife and Bleeds to Death.

Our people were startled yesterday afternoon about half past four o'clock by the report which flew rapidly over the streets that Mrs. Waddell, wife of Mr. W. H. Waddell, had committed suicide by cutting her throat with a carving knife.

The awful tragedy took place in the bathroom of the Waddell home, where the unfortunate woman was found a short time before she was carried by Mrs. H. C. Williams, who was spending the day with her, Mrs. Waddell had left her home a few minutes before Mrs. Williams went to the bath room where she found Mrs. Waddell lying on the floor, and the blood flowing from the wounds. She at once gave the alarm and Dr. M. A. ... were called in. At the time they arrived she had expired.

The cause of the awful deed is attributed to melancholia, the family being afflicted for several days that Mrs. Waddell's mental was becoming impaired.

Great sympathy is expressed by all for the bereaved husband and little children.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Methodist church and the remains will be interred in the Cemetery.

Glasgow Harris.

On Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Mary Harris was quietly united in matrimony by Mr. F. C. Glasgow, of Sta. Ange, Rev. T. A. ... performing the ceremony.

The bride was a daughter of the late Mr. John Harris and lived at ... where she spent some time before she was married to Mr. Harris.

Mr. Harris is a very successful farmer in ... and is a very active and energetic young man.

After the ceremony the bride and groom took the morning train for ... and from there they made their way to the home of the groom's father, where a reception was tendered them.

Both the bride and groom are a set of friends to their neighbors, and the entire community is extending congratulations and best wishes.

Another Franklin County boy Promoted.

We noticed in Wednesday's News & Observer the promotion of Robert Wason Murray to the position of Trainee Freight Agent for the N. A. R. R. with headquarters at St. Louis, Mo. This is a very important position and falls to a young man who will perform the duty well. He is one of our most worthy young men, exceedingly popular, and has all the qualifications to make a high mark in railroad service. The Times wishes him well in the far off field and expects at a very distant day to hear of his making still higher marks on his chosen work.

Laid To Rest.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis, who died in New York last week was tenderly laid to rest by the side of her husband in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va., on Friday of last week. The funeral, which was very largely attended, was conducted by the "old veterans."
