NUMBER 29.

THE COUNTY CANVASS.

VERY GOOD CROWDS MET THE CANDIDATES.

The Speeches of Mr. Bickett are Able and well Received—Every Precinct Gives Evidence of a Full Vote.

Since our last issue the Democratic candidates have spoken at Youngsville, Franklinton, Rocky Ford, Laurel, Centreville and Cedar Rock, and today they are at Gatesville in Cypress Creek. At Youngsville, Mr. F. S. Spruill spoke with the candidates. He was there to represent the County Commissioners, and right well did he perform that duty. He fully explained how they had saved money to the tax-payers by their economical methods in handling the county's affairs, and denounced the attack made upon the members of the Board as unjust and untrue. He also explained to the people about the contract for the county printing and said that the printing was awarded to the FRANKLIN TIMES after a full investigation as to its worth by a committee appointed by the Board for that purpose. He also referred to the excellent financial condition of the county, and showed by facts and figures that the present Board of Commissioners had saved at least one thousand dollars a year to the tax-payers in the way of reduced fees in the various county offices.

The campaign of Mr. Bickett, the candidate for the legislature, is one of the most brilliant ever made in this county. He has delivered able and telling speeches each day, and the people are charmed with him.

Solicitor Daniels and Stallings where the candidates were met by large and enthusiastic crowds. The able speeches of Mr. Daniels were heard with interest and pleasure by the people of those two townships.

The canvass will close tomorrow in Louisburg, when the candidates will appear in the Court House at 2 o'clock. Let everybody attend and hear the issues discussed.

Four Boxes.

There will be four ballot boxes in which to cast your vote next Tuesday as follows: State, Congressional, County, and Township. The Democratic State ticket will be headed with Franklin McNeill, the candidate for Corporation Commissioner, and the county ticket will be headed with Charles C. Daniels, candidate for Solicitor of this district. The Congressional ticket—with the name of E. W. Pou thereon—will be voted for to itself, and the township ticket will be voted in one box.

Dr. P. R. Hatch for the House.

It is said that since the refusal of Mr. Shearin to allow his name to run on the Republican ticket in Franklin County for the House, the name of Dr. Peter R. Hatch, the Postmaster at Youngsville, has been substituted. We had not heard of this until last Friday when it was whispered around Youngsville. As soon as we heard this we could account for the "negro school" that it is said the Dr. had been superintending for the past several weeks. We heard in Youngsville last Friday, on very reliable authority, that he has been "schooling" negroes with a view of getting their names on the registration books. Did you ever? Who would have thought it? A "White Lily" tutoring negroes and teaching them how to register! And now asking Whites men to vote for him.

U. D. C.

A regular meeting of the Jos. J. Davis Chapter, will be held in the Masonic Hall on Wednesday afternoon, November 7th, at 4 o'clock sharp. All members are expected to be present.

Mrs. F. S. Spruill, Pres.
Mrs. R. H. Davis, Sec'y.

A CARD.

I received last night a letter from Youngsville which brought me the intelligence that Willis Tharrington, the man who claims to be a Democrat, but who has been persuaded by Republicans to run against me for County Treasurer, and whose name is already printed on the Republican ticket, is going through the country telling the people that W. W. Boddie made a bid for the county printing for $100. I denounce that statement as untrue. Boddie has never made any bid for the printing. He said he wanted to make a bid but he never made it.

The writer of the letter also says that Mr. Tharrington is charging that the school fund is being squandered. I denounce that statement as untrue.

The same writer says that Mr. Tharrington is making all kinds of charges against me, and is using the old "1896 song and dance" in his efforts to fool the people.

I have faith in the true Democrats of Franklin county, and I do not believe that they will allow themselves to be influenced by the misrepresentations of a man who has not been a citizen of the county for a sufficient length of time to have informed himself of the condition of affairs. Not being informed upon county affairs he is allowing himself to be used by the Republicans and a few disgruntled men, claiming to be Democrats, to disrupt the Democratic party.

I call upon every true Democrat in the county to turn out at the polls on next Tuesday and cast his vote for the entire Democratic ticket, and thereby put his seal upon such double dealing.

Death of Miss Cenie Tucker.

After a lingering illness of several months, all that was mortal of the above named young lady passed from this to the world beyond on Friday morning of last week. She was a daughter of the late J. B. Tucker, and leaves a mother and several brothers, among them Mr. Jno. A. Tucker, of High Point, and Mr. Claude Tucker, one of our efficient policemen. Her remains were taken to the family burying ground in Sandy Creek township on Saturday morning, where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. M. Duke. The pall-bearers were A. A. Clifton, Everard Cooke, D. G. Pearce, R. A. Pearce, E. C. Perry and Blair Tucker. The bereaved mother and brothers have our sincere sympathy.

Hallowe'en Party.

The Hallowe'en party given by the Daughters of the Confederacy at the Court house Wednesday night was well attended and proved a big success. The many good things to eat were all sold to the last crumb and the many devices to catch the coin of the realm such as fortune teller, palm reader, &c., were well patronized. The ladies worked hard and deserve the handsome amount raised for the Confederate Monument fund.

Special Train to Apex.

The Shoo-Fly on the Seaboard Air Line will run through to Apex, on Saturday, November 3rd, on account of the Big Land Sale in that growing town on that day. Persons desiring to go from Louisburg can leave at 8:40 Saturday morning and return same evening. This sale will furnish a rare opportunity for investment, and all who wish to double their money in a very short while will do well to attend.

EGERTON—MACON.

Marriage of a Popular Young Couple of Franklin Co.

Last evening at 8:30 o'clock a large and select crowd gathered at Trinity Church to witness the marriage of two of Ingleside's most popular young people, Miss Mary Elizabeth Macon the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. W. J. Macon, and Mr. Geo. Blount Egerton, a popular young planter, of Ingleside.

The church was beautiful in its decorations—the color scheme being pink and white, and when the girlhood friends of the handsome couple gathered around them, it was indeed a scene of beauty.

Miss Sallie Young Davis sang "Because God made Three mine" in a voice replete with tenderness and beauty, before the bridal party entered the church. Then to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the ushers, Messrs. J. O. Wilson, A. W. Wilson, Jr., S. S. Meadows and W. M. Hayes, entered, followed by the attendants: Mr. Walter Alston with Miss Sallie Allen, Mr. W. L. Beasley with Miss Fannie Davis, Mr. Chas. Egerton with Miss Carrie Thomas, Mr. O. S. Macon with Miss Elizabeth Rae, Mr. John Cooke with Miss Val. Alston, Mr. George Macon with Miss Willie Dunn. These were followed by the flower girls, Misses Lomie and Susie Meadows and Hodgie Williams, and little Miss Sallie Louise, sister of the bride, carrying the wedding ring on a silver tray.

The bride entered on the arm of her sister, Miss Susie Macon, and was attired in a charming princess gown of soft white silk lavishly trimmed in handsome lace, flowing veil caught with a pearl crescent, gift of the groom. She stood at the altar a perfect bride. The maid of honor carried pink carnations and ferns, the bride white carnations and maidenhair ferns.

The attendants wore white gowns with pink girdles—carrying bouquets of ferns. Mr. Ballard Egerton entered with his brother, the groom. Rev. A. L. Ormond gave the vows in a solemn and pleasing manner.

To the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march from the skillful fingers of Miss Asia Collins the party left the church and repaired to the home of the bride where a reception was given, refreshments served in courses.

Those from a distance who were present, were Mr. L. M. Michaux of Goldsboro, Mrs. Lucy M. Moss, of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Crocker, of Middleburg, Mr. I. J. Young of Henderson.

The wedding gifts were numerous and costly. The many friends of this happy couple, wish for them "a fair sky and smooth sailing" on the matrimonial sea, and may the rosy castles built by the young lovers, indeed be a reality to the husband and wife.

CORRESPONDENT,

Ingleside, N. C. Nov. 1st.

Limer—Aycooke.

A beautiful marriage ceremony was performed at the home of our popular citizen and druggist, Gaston L. Aycooke, Wednesday at 12 m. The contracting parties were Miss Ethel L. Aycooke, the beautiful, accomplished and dignified daughter of Mr. G. L. Aycooke, and Francis F. Limer, a young and prosperous farmer of Warren county. To know Miss Ethel was to admire her. We will miss her presence in Louisburg, because she was always pleasant and friendly with that Southern degree of dignity that stamped her a type of true womanhood. We congratulate Mr. Limer because he has chosen well the helpmeet for life's long journey. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. S. Massey, pastor of the Methodist church in a most impressive and solemn manner. Youth, beauty and flowers had right-of-way until dinner was announced. "Then 'th' turnpike road to men's hearts I find is through their mouths, or I mistake mankind," made all parties happy indeed.

Congratulations, kisses, good-byes were indulged, and in the parting, the wish expressed by all was that heavenly sunshine may ever brighten your future path through life, and guardian angels hover over your way was one universal prayer.

A Pretty Marriage.

On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock the Baptist church at Mapleville was filled with friends and well wishers to witness the marriage of Mr. Henry House, of Thomas, and Miss Ethel Webb. The church was handsomely decorated with palms and ferns all being arranged in the best of taste and presenting a beautiful scene as the handsome couples surrounded the altar. Rev. M. Duke performed the wedding ceremony. Mrs. W. H. C. House played the bridal march and Miss Viola Perry sang very sweetly a beautiful solo. The bridesmaids were Misses Lucy Webb and Lela Jackson. The other attendants were Mr. Joseph House with Miss Mary Webb and Mr. C. T. Stokes with Miss Fannie House. The ushers were Messrs. John Hays, Lyman House, John Perry and Eugene Newell.

The bride was attired in a traveling suit of gray broadcloth and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaids wore white crepe de chine and carried ferns with white ribbon. The bride has ever been known for her beauty of person and sweetness of disposition, but on her wedding morn she was even more charming than ever. The wedding was a complete success in every detail and at its conclusion the party drove to the station at Louisburg where they took the 11 a. m. train for Thomas, the home of the groom. The happy groom was showered with congratulations at winning such a beautiful bride. The couple starts on their voyage with the very best wishes of a large number of friends, none of whom extend a larger share than the Times.

W. H. STALLINGS,
Sec. Franklin Co. Alliance.

The dollar subscription asked for by the Republicans having practically proved a failure and most of the government clerks at Washington having ignored the request for a donation of 5 per cent of their annual salaries, the Republican committee is scouring Wall Street for subscriptions from the trust and corporation magnates with far better success.
