THE COUNTY, THE STATE, THE UNION.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 PER YEAR.

VOL. XXXVII.

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1907.

NUMBER 1.

TWO EXCELLENT TRIPS.

TO THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION ABOUT JUNE 1ST.

The Trip is to be Given Absolutely Free to the Two Young Ladies in the County Sending Greatest Number Subscribers

The editor of the TIMES feeling that there are some young ladies in this county who wish to go to the Jamestown Exposition with as little expense to them as possible, and too considering the fact that we wish to increase our Subscription list to if possible double the present number by May 30th, we have decided to offer the special inducements of two free trips to the Jamestown Exposition on or about the first of June—the exact time will be determined later—to the two young ladies sending us the largest and next largest number of subscribers before May 30th. As will be seen from display ad. this trip will consist of railroad fares, Pullman fare hotel bills and all entrances into fair grounds, an offer unequalled. It is worth many times the value of the efforts that will be put to it.

We say you cannot hope to repay us for the trip in the number of subscribers you send in. We repeat it. Then you are puzzled to see why we offer it. It is this way. The value of our advertising space, and the demand for same will increase sufficient to make up for all losses.

The principle of the plan for work is this. First of all honesty and fair dealing to all and publicity. Each month there will appear a list giving the names of every contestant with a correct number of her subscribers giving no one the power to have paid back by us. Every yearly subscriber in advance will be counted as a new subscriber and if one person should pay $5.00 in advance he would count for five subscribers, and if you should receive three at 35 cents then you would have one subscriber, or in other words the basis will be one dollar. And where a person pays up arrears they will count three-fourths that is, if he pays $4.00 he will count for three subscribers, and if any in advance this will be credited same as new subscribers.

There are two prominent objects in this offer which are, first to increase our subscription list, second and in no ways the least, to enable us to give to some young ladies in our county a trip that will always be remembered by them and one that will be an education and benefaction in all stages of life.

Remember you have the same showing and chance of any one else and if you will get to work you can win just as easy as anyone, and after you make the trip you will never regret having entered the contest. Begin now.

Franklin News.

While our reporter was in Franklinton on Wednesday he succeeded in picking up the following items and other things of interest:

Capt. I. H. Kearney had quite a serious fall on Tuesday evening at his saw mill near town. He was standing on a log near the log carriage when the hands were placing a log thereon and when he stepped from the log to get out of the way he stepped upon a large sill that was covered with ice and in a slanting position, causing his feet to fly from under him. Mr. Kearney fell with his breast across the sill he intended stepping on, and when an examination was made by Drs. Winston and Henderson, who were immediately called, it was found that there were three ribs broken—one in front and two behind. We are glad to say, however, that Mr. Kearney is getting on as well as could be expected, and that it is not thought his injuries are serious.

Mr. J. H. McRae's little 7 year old daughter, Anna, had quite a painful accident on Thursday of last week. The little girl was in the room alone, got too near the fire in an open fireplace, and the back of her dress caught fire. The fire was soon extinguished by her mother who hearing the screams of the child, ran to her from the kitchen where she was cooking, and wrapped the child up in her dress, thereby smothering the fire. While the little girl has several pretty badly burned places, we are very glad to know that none of them are serious.

McGhee-Joyner Co. is the style of a new firm to begin business in Franklinton on March 1st in the building formerly occupied by Col. W. L. McGhee. The company is composed of three of Franklinton's most competent young business men. Messrs. C. L. McGhee, A. S. Joyner and J. W. McGhee, and will be incorporated for $20,000. They will do a general mercantile business and we are sure they will receive quite a liberal share of the trade of their section.

It was very evident that in spite of the snow and bad weather the merchants were "doing business." And what impressed the writer most was, although he talked to a greater number of the business men there, he never heard one complain as to business. This is a good motto for all towns to adopt.

The New Hotel is in a flourishing condition and the bill of fare is not "forgotten" as was very forcibly noticed when the dinner hour was announced.

The Crescent Drug Co. is the name of a new drug company now doing business in this town and from observation, we would say their business is as good as could be expected. Mr. D. E. Barkley, the very clever manager, is the proper one to hold this responsible position.

The efficient railroad agent, Mr. E. J. Cheatham, was prominent around his domain and we might say as clever as ever.

Capt. D. T. Ward, always in a good humor, gave the TIMES a cordial greeting and extended a kind invitation to "come again."

It was very encouraging to see the broad smile on the face of Mr. T. C. Joyner, the very cleverest of that place as it was a sure sign of good business.

A SUMMER IN EUROPE.

A PARTY TO SAIL THE LATTER PART OF JUNE.

Organized by Geo. H. Crowell, Supt. of City Schools High Point, and will Spend this Summer in Europe.

The TIMES learns through a friend that Prof. Geo. H. Crowell, former principal of the High School at Franklinton, but now Superintendent of the City Schools of High Point, is organizing a private party to spend the Summer of this year in Europe.

This will afford an opportunity of a life-time to some, and the TIMES is publishing this information for the benefit of any one of its readers who may wish to take the trip.

It is proposed to sail about the latter part of June, and the full crew, including everything, from Baltimore, will be $425.

For full particulars and illustrated booklet which contains a complete itinerary of the tour, write to Geo. H. Crowell, High Point, N. C.

Town Fathers.

The "Town Father" held a meeting on Tuesday night. Present the Mayor and Commissioners Chestnut, Bailey and Cooper. The regular routine of receiving reports and allowing monthly accounts was gone through with, and we are informed that the question of passing an ordinance forbidding raising hogs in the corporate limits was discussed, but on account of the absence of three members of the Board the motion was postponed. Like the "dog" question this hog business is another matter up. It might give better satisfaction and save the "fathers" much trouble to submit the question to a vote.

Bellard-Reid.

Last week's issue of the Reidville Review contains the following account of the marriage of a former Franklin county young man, to one of Reidville's lovely daughters:

The home of Mr. Thomas S. Reid was the scene of a wedding, beautified in its simplicity, on Wednesday night when his elder daughter, Miss Helen Pemberton Reid, became the wife of Mr. William Green Ballard, of Greensboro.

The home, with its broad corridors and spacious rooms, was well adapted to such an occasion, and lent itself admirably to the decorations of palms and other greenery. Garlands of amber draped the stairway and banked mantel and window, while from every ledge and crevice gleaming candlesticks shed their soft radiance. The hall and library, where the many lovely gifts were displayed, were in red. In the dining-room, pink and green were used with artistic effect. In the parlor, where the ceremony was performed, white was unrevealed except by the foliage of palms and ferns. In the bow window an embankment of palms and candelabra formed the altar.

Dr. L. W. Crawford, with that sweet dignity that so distinguishes him, said the impressive service which united them.

After the young couple had received the congratulations of their friends, the dining-room doors were thrown open and a delicious supper was served.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Ex-Governor Reid, and is one of Reidville's most charming and talented young ladies. She possesses unusual literary ability and has taken a prominent part in that circle.

The groom is a son of the late Capt. W. H. Ballard, of Franklin County. He holds a responsible position with the Southern Railway, and is a man of distinction and worth.

Excellent Clerk.

"It is a real treat to have business in the Superior Court Clerk's office in this country now," said a lawyer. "Clerk Barrow certainly is a man in the right place, and he keeps his records in fine shape. It is no trouble to find papers in the proper place." Continuing the gentleman said that the purchase by the county of the type-writer for the Clerk and Register's office, was a fine investment.

Privett-Sherrill.

The editor of the TIMES is pleased to acknowledge the following invitation:

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Sherrill request the pleasure of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Mary Lilly to Mr. Doyle Burkett Privett at half past six o'clock Tuesday evening, February twelfth nineteen hundred and seven Concord, North Carolina.

The editor of the TIMES acknowledges with pleasure the receipt of the following invitation:

The honor of your presence is requested.

Real Estate Transfer.

Quite a large real estate deal took place here this week. Mr. E. S. Ford purchasing from Allen Brothers the large brick Stable on Nash street together with the buildings occupied by the TIMES, and the store house occupied by J. L. Palmer as a feed market. Mr. Ford will occupy similar at once—moving from the "hot-ton."

After reading the minutes of the last meeting the Board transacted the following business:

IMPORTANT TRADE MARK DECISION.

Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 5th, 1907.

A decision of importance to all manufacturers of trade mark goods has been awarded by Judge Pritchard in the United States Circuit Court of this district.

The question involved was whether the Allen Brothers Tobacco Co. of Lynchburg, Va., has the legal right to use on its "Traveler" brand of plug tobacco a tag similar in size, shape, color, and style of lettering but different as to wording, from that used by the H. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., of Winston-Salem, N. C., on its "Schmappa" Plug Tobacco.

In the argument, on motion of the plaintiff, the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., that a restraining order be issued forbidding the defendant company from further imitating its tag, many affidavits were submitted tending to show that owing to the similarity of the tags, the "Traveler" tobacco, purchased by dealers at a lower price, was sold to uneducated smokers for "Schmappa."

In a decree signed
