

EDITORS AT EXPOSITION

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION IS WELL ATTENDED

Exposition Open to the Quill-Drivers—H. B. Varner for President of National Association—A Big Affair.

It might be of interest to the readers of the Times to know that representative newspaper men and editors of this great Nation are assembled this week at the Jamestown Exposition. The greater portion of them are quartered at the "Inside Inn," which is prepared to accommodate several thousand people. Quite a number of the editors are accompanied by their wives and some with their daughters.

The Exposition managers have thrown the whole thing "wide open" to the quill-drivers and the most of them are "taking it in." Last Monday was "Georgia Day" and President Roosevelt was here and made two speeches—one to the Georgians and their friends, and one to the editors. Of course he gave some "good advice."

Well, the exposition is a great big affair, but everything will not be completed until about July 20th, and judging from the "wintry" weather here today (Wednesday, June 11th) about the best time for our people to visit the Exposition will be some time in August. By that time, too, everything will be in good shape. And when you come here to drink Chase City or some other good mineral water, as the water here is very "up-setting." This is not written specially as an advertisement for the Chase City waters, (they are greatly in evidence, however) but as a precaution to the "down-homers" as the Virginians are pleased to call we folks from North Carolina.

At this writing the North Carolina editors are making strenuous efforts to elect H. B. Varner, of the Lexington Dispatch, as President of the National Association. They are hopeful, but not absolutely certain. The election takes place Friday.

J. A. T.

P. S.—When you come to the Exposition bring as little baggage as possible, as we have heard more people complaining along this line than any other, and trunks, etc., are lost nearly every day.

Marriages.

The following is a list of marriage licenses issued by our clever Registrar of Deeds during the month of May:

WHITE—J. E. Bartholomew and Jennie Medlin, Vernon E. Cone and Beatie R. Moore, Walter Evans and Maggie Woodard, J. W. Harper and Guarica Povthress, Rufus Perry and Lucy Bet Solomon, J. H. Tuckery and Estelle Pinnell.

COLORED—Ed. W. Alston and Mary C. Jones, Junius Jones and Liza Horton, Champ Perry and Betsy Summerville, General Williams and Winnie Perry, William Williams and Alice Davis.

Death of Mr. J. W. Williams.

Mr. J. Wesley Williams died at his residence on Main street, last Sunday evening at 8:45 o'clock of heart trouble. He had long been a sufferer from this disease and had been gradually failing for some time past. Death came suddenly as he had swallowed a dose of medicine, his head fell backward on the pillows and he was dead without a struggle. The deceased was 72 years old and was a consistent member of the Baptist church. Besides his widow there survive him, Mr. Chas. F. Williams, of Jacksonville, Fla., Miss Sallie T. Williams and Mrs. A. H. Fleming, of Louisburg, and Mrs. L. Minnie Williams, of Baltimore, Md. The funeral services took place from the residence on last Tuesday morning.

The following were the pall bearers—Messrs. G. H. Cooper, S. T. Wilder, K. P. Hill, W. H. Waddell, P. A. Reavis, Ivey Allen.

Winstead-Jones.

The editor of the Times acknowledges receipt of the following invitation:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Jones request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Annie Connolly to Mr. Marcus Cotance Winstead Wednesday morning, June twenty sixth nineteen hundred and seven at nine o'clock, First Baptist Church, Milton, North Carolina.

Mrs. Cora Yarborough Dead.

Mrs. Cora Yarborough died in Raleigh yesterday about noon. The remains will reach here to-day (Friday) on the 4:15 p. m. train and the funeral services will be held from the Episcopal church at 4:30 this afternoon. Her health had been very bad for quite a long time past and death was not unexpected. She was the widow of John B. Yarborough, deceased brother of Col. W. H. Yarborough and a sister of Mrs. R. F. Yarborough. Her whole life was spent in Louisburg up to about one year ago when she was taken to Raleigh for treatment.

Ball Games.

An interesting ball game between Franklinton and Louisburg was pulled off last Saturday afternoon, in which the visitors "walloped" the home boys to the tune of 8 to 6. The expected just happened that all, as our boys lack practice. To old rosters, it is a source of painful regret to note the absence of that fervid enthusiasm for the greatest of games that once marked this town. Then the stores closed and all business suspended while the boys went forth to lick all comers, but under the new regime the very suggestion would brand the author a lunatic. The chase after dollars is more absorbing than the patriotic duty of fostering good ball.

Jurors.

We give below a list of jurors drawn at the last meeting of the County Commissioners for the August term of Franklin Superior Court:

O. D. Burnette, W. E. Uzzell, H. P. Speed, P. W. Gupton, H. M. Green, J. H. Mitchell, E. J. Rudd, W. A. Person, R. C. Hunt, D. H. Dickey, Henry Beddingfield, A. H. Beddingfield, T. H. Moseley, Willis Gibbs, L. C. Mitchiner, W. H. Hudson, W. E. Gay, W. D. Edwards, A. C. Carter, G. D. West, Le Roy Jackson, G. R. Strickland, L. D. Faulkner, J. B. King, G. D. Aycocke, W. D. Foster, E. A. Harper, J. S. Blackley James Gay, B. J. Lancaster, J. W. Sutt, George Terrell (col), C. L. Thomson, S. T. Gupton, A. H. Sandling, J. V. Young.

St. John's Day Celebration at the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

In the great oak grove at the Oxford Orphan Asylum, on Saturday, June 22nd, 1907, the annual celebration of Saint John's Day will be held by the Masons of the State.

A special communications of the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina will be called.

The Oxford Orphan Asylum Association, composed of former girls and boys of the institution, has planned to hold its second meeting.

Grand Master Francis D. Winston has appointed Past Grand Master, F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, Orator for the occasion.

The children of the Oxford Orphan Asylum will assist in carrying out the interesting program of the day.

A hearty invitation is extended to the good people of the state to be present.

A large attendance is expected. Many bring baskets and enjoy an old-fashioned pic-nic dinner in the grove.

Barbecue dinner, lunches and refreshments will be for sale on the grounds.

The Seaboard R'y will, in all probability, operate excursion trains from Raleigh, Durham and Weldon to Oxford.

Other reads will likely give special rates.

The Brick Yard.

Messrs. Ford and Honck have opened up their brick yard for the summer. This is a big plant and these enterprising gentlemen are doing big things. The capacity of the plant is 40,000 brick per day and good brick too. It is said that Mr. Honck has invented a device in connection with making brick by machinery that will result in a great saving of labor and that an application for patent is now pending.

Moved to Hickory.

Mr. B. H. Meadows and wife and Miss Nan Hight left on Wednesday morning for Hickory which they will make their future home. It is learned that Mrs. Meadows will open a boarding house for the patronage of summer visitors and others. Mr. Meadows has not definitely decided in what business he will yet engage, but those who know him know that something will soon feel the effect of his energy and push in that thriving town. Mr. Meadows and wife and Miss Hight have numbers of friends here who wish them every success and all happiness in their new home.

Tar Heels Get a Jnr.

A mild sensation occurred at the meeting of the National Editorial Association Tuesday when Mrs. Martha Gielow of Mississippi President General of the Southern Educational Association addressed the editors. It is said that she attacked educational affairs in North Carolina and was so abusive in her remarks concerning the state that Governor Glenn arose and left the hall followed by many others. Her remarks related especially to Western North Carolina and the "bitterness of her slander" was such as to win the contempt of all Tar Heels present. Governor Glenn it is said will reply to the speech in his address.

Family Reunion and Birthday Dinner.

On Sunday last the children and grand-children, of H. M. Richardson, met at his home, in Dunn's township to celebrate his fifty-ninth birthday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bailey, of Kenly, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Richardson and Miss Crama of Rocky Mount, Mr. B. H. Richardson, of Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilder, of Louisburg, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hales, of Wendell, with their families and Freddie Richardson, who holds a position with A. C. L. Railway. The family composed the remainder of the party.

The total number of Mr. Richardson's children and grand children was fifty-one.

About 1 p. m. a bounteous dinner was spread in the grove, of which all present participated. After dinner was over all were arranged neatly by Mr. W. F. Washington, photographer for a photograph of the entire family.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson appeared very grateful to see all their childrens faces, and to have all their little bright faced grand-children, play nice games in the grove. Mr. Richardson says it will be June 9th 1917 before his next Reunion and if the family continues its past ratio there will be nearly one hundred at that time.

J. B. W.

THE MOVING PEOPLE.

THEIR MOVEMENTS IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

And Those Who Come and Go, Some for Pleasure, Some for Business and a Large Number Because They Like It.

Prof. and Mrs. W. R. Mills are on a visit to Virginia.

Mrs. Walter Boyd, of Warrenton, is a visitor to Louisburg.

Miss Sallie Y. Harris, of Youngsville, is visiting at S. P. Boddie's.

Mrs. Jennie Harper, of Castalia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. S. Green.

N. B. Allbrook returned Saturday from a visit to his people at Scotland Neck.

Mrs. M. C. Pleasant is on a visit to her husband's relatives in Savannah, Ga.

Miss Emma Webb, of Stovall, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Yarborough.

Mrs. R. G. Burroughs, of Henderson, is visiting her sister Mrs. J. L. Palmer.

Dr. Eugene S. Green and bride returned to their home at Monroe this week.

Mr. Joe Mason, of Emporia, father of Mrs. J. J. Person is on a visit to Louisburg.

B. G. Cooper left Tuesday for a visit to Norfolk and the Jamestown Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Seaman, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting a Mr. Wm. Bailey's.

Messrs. W. H. Waddell and K. P. Hill left yesterday for the Jamestown Exposition.

Miss Mamie Lendon is on a protracted visit to friends in Maryland and Pennsylvania.

M. K. Pleasant Jr., returned this week from Warrenton, where he has been attending school.

Mrs. J. H. Beddingfield and little daughter, Ruby, of Rocky Mount are visiting Mrs. Ida Hale.

Miss Nan Malone returned Tuesday from Durham where she was the guest of Mrs. J. Crawford Biggs.

Mr. W. J. Peale, a prominent attorney of Raleigh was in Louisburg Wednesday on professional business.

Miss Grace Thomas, who has been visiting friends and relatives here the past two weeks, returned to her home in Raleigh Monday.

Mr. C. K. Cooke is in Elizabeth City where he represents the local Lodge Knights of Pythias at the Grand Lodge session in that city.

Messrs. Dwight Ia. and Zollie Culpepper and Mr. Julius Sykes and brother were here Tuesday on business with the Clerk Superior Court.

Mrs. W. J. Nicholson, of Plymouth, and Mrs. Priestly Mangum, of Wake Forest, are visiting their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Person.

Master Daniel Pon Smithwick is on a visit to relatives at Baltimore near Asheville, and Misses Lucy and Helen Smithwick are visiting their aunt in Virginia.

Mrs. Minnie L. Williams, of Baltimore, Md., Miss Beanie Taylor, of Warrenton, N. C., Mr. Charles F. Williams, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. David H. Bland, of Oxford, N. C., attended the funeral of Mr. J. W. Williams this week.

Mr. Hugh Crichton, of Mobile, Ala., after attending the Reunion at Richmond, came over this week to say his old home a visit. Mr. Crichton has not visited here before in 25 years and he has a number of friends who were glad to again shake his hand. He was the guest of the editor while here.

—Read all the new advertisements in this issue.

Invest at Home.

If any of our citizens have any surplus of funds to invest in enterprises would it not be an act of wisdom on their part to put it in some home enterprise? Think about it, you people who contemplate investing in "outside" enterprises.

The Weak in the Mayors Court.

Ruffin Foster was up before Mayor Yarborough on Monday for offensive conduct in W. P. Neal & Co's store Saturday night. Boss was at the bottom of it. Fined $2.00 and costs. The dullest weak the new Mayor has yet had.

Knights of Pythias.

This excellent fraternal order was reorganized on Friday night last. The local lodge has had a nominal existence for several years past, but now a reorganization of live enthusiastic Pythians has been effected. Applications of new members are being received and a visit of the Grand Chancellor is expected in a short time. Brand new regalia has been received and meetings will be held regular using temporarily the Masonic Lodge as a Castle Hall. A meeting was held last Friday night and officers for the ensuing six months were elected.

A Card of Thanks.

To those who have so warmly manifested their love and sympathy for us in our recent bereavement, we would offer our sincere thanks, and assurance of deepest appreciation.

Mrs. J. WESLEY WILLIAMS.

Sad Death.

Our community was saddened on Wednesday afternoon, June 6, about 7 o'clock, when the spirit of Etha Aycock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Aycock, winged its flight to the spirit world. She was confined to her room less than two weeks of that dreaded disease—typhoid fever.

At the age of seventeen she made profession of faith in Christ and attended with Liberty Christian church.

After the funeral services, which were conducted at Liberty church by Rev. Dr. Hudson, a former pastor assisted by Rev. C. E. Newman. In a snow white casket beneath flowers of love and amid hearts that wept but souls that hoped, they laid to rest the last that was earthly of Etha Aycock.

She leaves to mourn her departure a father, mother, one sister, eight brothers and a host of friends. May God's comforting spirit soothe the hearts of the bereaved and sanctify this affliction to their eternal good.

We cannot understand, now, why this happy life of 21 years should be taken, but we shall know someday.

The pall bearers were young ladies all dressed in pure white. These were Miss Cassie Eaves, Carrie Wynn, Lile Pierce, Earle Duke, Beulah Eaves and Lillie Gordon.

KARLE.

Excursions to Oxford St John's Day June 22nd.

The Seaboard will operate special train Raleigh, Durham and intermediate points to Oxford Saturday June 22nd. Rate from Raleigh $1.00, Durham $1.00, Louisburg $1.00, train to leave Raleigh at 8:15 a. m., Durham 8:00 a. m., and Louisburg 8:25 a. m. Returning train to leave Oxford at 5:00 p. m.

This is an annual excursion operated over the Seaboard to Oxford account St John's Day and Masonic Celebration.

For further information apply to C. H. GATES, T. P. A. Raleigh, N. C.

—The Boddie-Perry Drug Company Jamestown cannot close Saturday night June 15th.

Entertained.

Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Green, of Winston, have been spending part of their honeymoon at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Green. Mrs. Green (nee Gaddy) has by her beauty and intelligent grace of refinement steadily ingrained herself into the affections of many of our people who have been so fortunate as to make her acquaintance. Dr. Green was warmly congratulated not only upon winning such a charming bride but upon his success in his new home. He deserves them both as he is a young man of fine character. Mrs. T. W. Watson, Dr. Green's sister, accompanied her back club at her beautiful home on Main street on last Saturday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Green. The feature of the evening was dancing drawing contest. Miss Ann Pasham winning the prize and graciously presenting it to Mrs. Green. Elegant refreshments were then served. The occasion being little white wedding bells and oranges blossoms filled with bride's cake.

Death of Mrs. Wyatt West.

Mrs. Wyatt West died on Saturday last of paralysis. Besides her husband she leaves five children, to mourn her loss. The funeral services conducted by Rev. L. S. Mason were held from Piney Grove church last Sunday and the remains interred in the cemetery near Louisburg.

BLACK ROCK ITEMS.

The weather keeps so hot the crops are looking small in this vicinity.

We are glad to learn that Miss Jacky Gupson is improving. Her illness will soon recover.

Mr. R. J. Ray went off a Wyling trip to Red Oak, Nash county, last week. He reports a good time.

We were very glad to have with us last week Mr. E. Morgan Gupson, of Duke. Hope he will come again soon.

Some of our farmers are not doing so well as they should. Some of our neighbors re-planted a part of their crop last week.

There has been a good many on the sick list for the past few weeks in this section, but we are glad to say they are improving.

Mr. Furney E. Carter, of near Youngville, is in good heart for farming now and wears broad smiles—he is an 8 1/2 pound boy.

Miss Joe Gupson enjoyed her trip to Florida very much.

TWINKLE DA.

CENTREVILLE ITEMS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT:

Mr. F. G. Alston, of Tatum, is visiting his daughter, Mr. A. D. Williams.

Mr. Elijah Griffin spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edith Griffin.

Mr. Frank West, of Fincastle, was one of our visitors on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. H. G. West spent Sunday near Fishing Creek—some where in Nash.

Mr. William Wood, of Dusham, held prayer service at the home of Mr. Arch Radford on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. R. E. L. Whelan returned from Raleigh last week, but only paid our town a short visit as he was on his way to Suffolk Va.

If the people especially the farmers are not content with the old weather and would like a little more rain they should make their wants known to the "Centerville Fishing Crew." They can get more rain than the supposed "fishing" crews of some counties.

K. E. R.