The New Year!

might be likened to an infant—a child of Father Time—a prodigy endowed with the wisdom of ages—inheritor of the power, genius, wealth and knowledge of savants of the past and the Prince Royal into whose lap is showered the fruits of brain and brawn of the present—the foster-child of all humanity!

The great, the lowly, the rich, the poor all bring something to the New Year!

Some bring hopes and ambitions, of which the New Year makes realizations!

Some bring possibilities, of which the New Year makes certainties!

Some bring theories, of which the New Year makes practices!

What can you bring the New year.

Franklinton's Biggest and Best Store
