

Miss Vann Entertains.
 One of the most delightful features of the Christmas holidays was a party given Saturday afternoon by Miss Mabel Vann in honor of Misses Allison and Sams, guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sams.
 Progressive "Stars and Stripes" was played from four to five, after which delicious refreshments were served. To each guest was given an attractive New Year souvenir. The first prize an illustrated copy of Rudyard Kipling's "They," was won by Miss Frances Winston and the second prize, an attractive Calendar, was won by Miss Mattie Conway.
 Those present to enjoy the hospitable occasion were, Misses Nellie and Mattie Conway, Bessie Sams, of Marion, N. C., Jean Allison, of Breward, Katielbet Morris, Josephine Henley, Eleanor Vann, Frances Winston, Mattie, Kate and Nena Ballard, Mrs. R. B. White, Mrs. E. E. Sams and Mrs. E. M. Speed.

Rooster Commits Suicide.
 A very fine white leghorn rooster, owned by a lady near Dunn, committed suicide last week by hanging himself from the back yard fence.
 The rooster was quite a pet of the lady, and she had just shooed him out of the kitchen to answer a call at the front door bell. On arriving at the door she found waiting a Methodist preacher, who was ushered in to await dinner. Upon going to the back yard she saw hanging from the fence her much prized rooster, who, it is supposed saw the preacher and rather than yield to the dinner pot, resorted to self destruction.—Apex Journal.

Case After Case.
 Plenty More Like This in Louisville.

Scores of Louisville people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?
 W. H. Beddingfield, living on Kenmore Ave., Louisville, N. C., says: "I have suffered for years from kidney and bladder trouble. My kidneys were very irregular in action causing me to arise frequently at night to pass the secretions which were always accompanied by a scalding sensation. I had pains through my kidney regions, was unable to rest well at night, and although I took different remedies, I was unable to find relief. Finally it was my good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box and they gave me such prompt relief that I continued using them until cured. At present I do not have to arise once during the night, the secretions set regularly and I have improved in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than any medicine or remedy I ever used, and I cheerfully recommend them to other sufferers."

Heart Strength
 Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nervousness, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Possibly, not one weak heart in a hundred is actually diseased. It is almost always hidden by their nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart's waves continue to fall, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.
 This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, retching, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wavering nerve centers. It builds, strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, stronger these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with
