TAR DROPS.

—Opportunity never knocks at the door of a popular loafing place.
—There are three things nearly every man will fight for—his family, his dog, and office.

—More and more is the pure food law feeling the strain. The maple sap has begun to run.

—Read the new ad of M. C. Pleasants in this issue as he has something of interest to all.

—Hauling butter and eggs to market in an automobile is ideal farm life to the man who lives in town.

—Mr. C. C. Hudson has taken a position with and will travel for the Fremont Cigar Company, of Atlanta, Ga.

—Meantime you have no doubt noted that the spring styles never sees its shadow and goes back into its hole.

—If marriage is "involuntary servitude" for the woman, then the man who backs out is some sort of emancipator.

—The chronic loafer likes hard times because it gives him a chance to stand around and watch other people work.

—The moving picture show in the opera house here last Thursday night was very good, and gave satisfaction to the audience.

—Miss Mary Baker, sister of Mr. A. H. Baker, died at home near Louisburg on Wednesday night. Her age was 83 years.

—The things that are bad for one to eat have a mean way of tasting so much better than those the doctor says you may help yourself to liberally.

—If there were not a thousand other reasons for getting married, every man should have a wife to tell him when to take his umbrella with him.

—Mr. John R. Williams after a lingering illness of several months, died at his home near Trinity Church, on Wednesday. He was about 60 years of age.

—One of the doctors says cock-tails superinduce pneumonia. He must be trying to allay the fears that certain people have had concerning pneumonia.

—If housework is to be designated as "involuntary slavery" in divorce petitions of the future, will the hen-pecked man be able to secure release upon a writ of habeas corpus?

—What diagnosis did the doctor make of your wife's illness? "Said she is suffering from overwork." "Is that so?" "Yes, he looked at her tongue and reached his decision immediately."

—Some folks claim that there is about as much liquor shipped to Louisburg now, as before prohibition went into effect. We have no way of disproving their claims, but one thing is very sure, there is apparently right much less drunkenness and fewer arrests from drinking than before.

—Wilt thou take her for thy 'pard' for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to fondly guard, till hauled off in the hears? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes, make the fires up every day, and help her with the dishes? Wilt thou keep her all the "statut" her little purse will pack, buy her a monkey, boat and muff, a little seal skin sack? Wilt thou comfort and support her father, Aunt Jemima, Uncle John, 13 sisters and a brother? And his face grew pale and blank, it was too late to jilt; as through the chapel floor he sank he teebly said "I wilt."

—Arch Parrish, of Gupton, has taken a position as night Telephone operator at the "Central."

—Mr. J. W. Hollingsworth has purchased the fine residence of Mr. F. S. Spruill and has moved in.

—Mr. J. M. Allen has employed a "professional" truck and fruit grower and will have quite an extensive farm near town.

—The residence of Chief Justice Walter Clarke was partially burned by fire yesterday morning. Covered by insurance.

—We give right much of our space this week to the publication of the "general road law" in order that the people may know its provisions.

—As soon as we can secure them we will publish the captions of such acts as were passed by the legislature that apply particularly to this county and section.

—The Merchants Association of Louisburg had a business meeting one night this week and discussed a number of matters of interest to the town and community.

—The rendition of the "Little Women" in the opera house on Monday night was greatly enjoyed by the large and appreciative audience, and those who took part filled their respective characters very well.

—Mrs. Arthur Arrington died one day this week in Richmond, Va. where she had gone for treatment in one of the hospitals of that city. Her remains were taken to Raleigh, and interred in Oakwood Cemetery.

—Dr. Gallagher, who spent some time in the county last year as a representative of the Government, for the purpose of stamping out the ticks among cattle, is here again. He made many friends in the county, who are glad to see him back again.

—We will have to ask the indulgence of our subscribers this week in being a day late, as several of our office force have been on the sick list. It is no easy matter to get out on time when "all is well" and whenever one or more drops out, the task is much greater. No one who has never tried it knows anything about it.

—In answer to a number of inquiries we will state that there will be no new registration in the road election in Sandy Creek township. Only those who have moved in or become of age since the last election will be required to register. In Franklinton township it is different—an entire new registration having been ordered—as the election there calls for a bond issue.

Stiff Neck.

Stiff neck is caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the neck. It is usually confined to one side, or to the back of the neck and one side. While it is often quite painful, quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires internal treatment. When there is no fever and no swelling as in muscular and chronic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Liniment will accomplish more than any internal treatment. For sale by The Boddie-Perry Drug Co.
