TAR DROPS.

—The gardeners are now busy.
 —Cotton was selling yesterday in Louisburg at 10 cents.
 —Griffin and Beasley are repairing the "Harry Dunston" building on "Bull Run."

—The farmers being quite busy on the farms this week, very few attended Court.

—Several of our citizens attended the closing exercises at Bunn High School yesterday.

—The "barbecue club" gave another of their "cues" Tuesday, and the boys say that it was very good and "juicy"

—Very few "central" telephone offices have better service than are now being furnished the patrons of Louisburg.

—Don't "kick" at every thing around you, and then claim that you are loyal to your friends and your community.

—B. B. Perry and K. K. Allen are preparing to furnish the town with fish. Their "trap" will be ready for a big catch in a few days.

—The repetition of the play "Ma Blossom" by a number of the College girls last Friday night in the Opera House was greatly enjoyed by a very appreciative audience.

—Telephone companies who want to abolish the word "Hello" will not find as much popular interest as would attach to the proposition to abolish the phrase "Line's busy."

—Rev. R. B. John, Presiding Elder, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church in Louisburg last Sunday night—preaching an able sermon. He held services at Shiloh in the day.

—Mr. A. H. Card informs us that he cut up an elm root a few days ago that measured 123 feet in length. This is about the longest root we ever heard of.

—A kicker and a chronic growler is never happy, and by his abominable ways prevents those who are forced to come in contact with him from feeling that life is worth living.

—Any one wishing to supply themselves with "shop coal" can do so by calling on or writing to Greenwood Hill, at P. A. Reavis' Storage House near the depot. See advertisement.

—The small boys of Franklinton and Louisburg crossed bats here Tuesday—the score resulting 6 to 3 in favor of the visitors. It was a good game, and was satisfactorily umpired by Mr. Tyack.

—Look around you, business man and just for your own satisfaction, run over in your own mind the names of the successful merchants. Are they not the ones who have advertised their business freely?

—If you have become of age or moved in town since the last town election—two yeys ago—you will have to see M. S. Clifton and register. The books close to-morrow (Saturday) evening at sunset.

—The commencement exercises of the Youngville Graded School will take place on April 28th—in the morning at 11 o'clock, and at night at 8 o'clock. Dr. W. E. Sikes, of Wake Forest, will deliver the address.

—There was a right good attendance of colored people at the Institute held last Friday in the Court House and they expressed themselves as highly pleased and very much benefited by the addresses and common sense talks of Messrs. Sherman and Parker of the State Agricultural Department. This institute was gotten up at the instance of Rev. J. A. Fuller, and he says that it is his purpose to have frequent gatherings of this kind with a view of training his race along industrial lines.

—Announcement is made of the marriage of Mr. J. W. Weaver to Mrs. Maggie Rudd Taylor, to take place at the home of her father, Mr. W. H. Rudd, at Sheoco, Warran county, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, April 28th.

—It is now time for all who raise chickens in town to see that they are not allowed to run at large, as in so doing their neighbors' gardens are the sufferers, and the chickens, in some instances might "come up missing." A word to the wise, etc.

—There will be a special meeting of the Woodmen of the World in its forest on Tuesday night, April 27th. There will be work in the protection degree and every member is earnestly requested to be present. The hour for meeting is 8 o'clock, and it is especially desired that you meet promptly.

—It is to be hoped that there will be no "factional differences" in the selection of the candidates for Town Commissioners this year, but that the citizens will come together in convention and select six men who have the interests of the town at heart, and who will pull together for the general good and uplift of the town.

—We have heard of no opposition to the re-election of Mayor J. B. Yarborough. This is quite a compliment to one of the best Mayors the town ever had. We can say this without the least fear of offending any of those who have been Mayor heretofore, as the editor occupied the "high and honorable" position for several times himself.

—A citizen and tax payer handed us the following list of names with the request that we publish them as a suitable lot to compose the next Board of Town Commissioners: This is rather against our rules, but as they are all good men, we have decided to grant our friend's request: Wm. Bailey, J. M. Allen, Geo. W. Ford, Dr. S. P. Burt, Paul B. Griffin, W. H. Furgurson.

—Quite a number of our citizens have expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of the suggestion of THE TIMES that we have a regular "Cleaning Up" celebration in town. Everybody take a day off and lets give the old town a sure 'nough drubbing—streets, lots and all. Who will start the ball to rolling? Don't all speak at once.

—Our town fishermen, and we have quite a number, have been making some very fine catches. Capt. Raney, the "Boss" fisherman, seems to be "holding the belt" up to date. It is said that he knows better than the other fellows the kind of "bait" to persuade them.

—The TIMES is requested to announce that the college girls are preparing for a big May Day celebration on the Campus, May 4th. To this the public is cordially invited. The exercises will consist in drills, songs, marches and dances and the May Queen will be crowned. Be sure to come.

—One of the busiest of the busy-looking places in Louisburg is the large store of McKinne Brothers. They keep almost everything in stock, from a jew's harp to a fine carriage, and employ a clever and accommodating corps of salesmen, who seem to vie with each other in pleasing the many customers of this firm.

—Rev. T. B. Hill, of Virgilina, Va., occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church in Louisburg last Sunday, and delivered two able and interesting sermons in the interest of the Theological Seminary, of Kentucky. He is assisting in the work of raising an endowment fund for the Seminary and we learn that he met with right much encouragement among his Baptist brethren here.

—Those in need of good and comfortable wearing apparel, such as ready-made clothing, out and made up by expert tailors, gents furnishings, etc., will do well to read what Frank Wheelers has to say in his advertisement in another column. Frank, you know, has a way of knowing just exactly what each of his patrons need and what suits every one, therefore when you call for it, he invariably convinces you that he "thought about you when he bought it."

—Mr. Aaron Deitz returned Friday last from Baltimore, whither he went to purchase a large stock of spring and summer clothing, and if you want to see some good and cheap clothing it will pay you to call at his store on Nash Street. Read what he says in his advertisement and then go and see for yourself that he has something nice for the old, the middle-aged and the young.

—Is it a nice suit of clothes, or a comfortable suit of underwear, a fine hat, for the men, or is it a beautiful pair of children's or ladies slippers that you are in need of? If either, you should make your way, hurriedly to the store of P. S. & K. K. Allen, on the corner, where you will be greeted with a warm welcome and given a "square deal." Your attention is also called to their advertisement which will be found in this issue.

—A lady went into a dry goods store and blushing asked the head clerk if he "had any of those elastic bands, capable of being elongated and adjusted at pleasure and used by the feminine portion of mankind for putting around extremities of their locomotive members to keep in the proper position and the required altitude, habilaments of their tibias." That clerk is now on a sheep ranch.

—Harper's Weekly describes "the stylish woman," as follows: Her waist begins just below her neck. Her hips have been planned off even with the rest of her body. She is usually buttoned up the back, and around her neck a section of barbed wire, covered with lace. She wears on her head a blonde hay stack of hair, and on top of this a central dome with rings about the same size as those of Saturn. She is swathed in her gown like an Indian papoose, and on the ends of her feet are dabs of patent leather. She walks on stiltlike heels with the exactness of a tight rope dancer. The pores of her skin are full of fine white powder. This is a woman.

—Mr. A. H. Vann and several friends from Franklinton, came over to Louisburg on his "auto" last Sunday, and while going up the street a horse being driven by a Mr. Alford from Nash became frightened at the machine and in attempting to turn to one side broke the shafts to the buggy. It was fortunate that the shafts broke as this kept the buggy from turning over. A lady in the buggy, with a small child in her lap, sat perfectly still, and was therefore not hurt. Mr. Vann and his friends did all in their power to prevent the accident, had a new pair of shafts put on the buggy and otherwise satisfied Mr. Alford, who by-the-way, said that he attached no blame to the gentlemen, as he might have gotten entirely out of the way before the accident occurred.
