TAR DROPS.

The Barbecue Club had another barbecue on Wednesday, and the boys say it was all right.

The long season in May has to come, you know, even if it extends into June, and from appearances it started yesterday.

The closing exercises of the white Graded School takes place today and tonight (Friday). Public cordially invited.

The gun club had a very pleasant shoot last Friday evening, quite a number of ladies being present to see "experts" break the pigeons.

What say our citizens about a "cleaning up" day? Lets get together and appoint a day for everybody in town to give their lots a good cleaning.

Two men, we failed to get their names, passed through Louisburg on Wednesday, in an automobile. They said that they came from Atlanta and were on their way to Richmond, Va.

"I saw a man leaving Louisburg drunk this evening," said a gentleman last Saturday evening, "the first one I have seen in this condition in quite a while." How times have changed.

J. P. says that his automobile may not be as big and good looking as those other fellows', but it can climb a hill (downward) as rapidly as any of them, and he can prove it by John King.

The North Carolina Medical Society will meet this year in Asheville. By special request of the Chairman of Railroad Surgical department, Dr. J. E. Malone, of Louisburg, will read a paper on Railroad Surgery.

Miss Annie Spencer Jones, of Raleigh, a young lady who has quite a number of friends and acquaintances in Louisburg, was married in Richmond, Va., last week, to Mr. L. K. Wooten, of Kinston. It was rather a romantic affair.

A horse left standing hitched to a buggy last Saturday did some fast running about the streets, and when he was stopped there was only a part of one wheel left of the buggy. The horse escaped with a few scratches and bruises.

A mule frightened at the approach of an automobile near the depot, one day this week, almost stood on his head, and the man driving him jumped out of the buggy, and completed the job by standing on his. No serious damage.

Dr. J. E. Malone, Senator B. T. Holden, J. S. Lancaster and F. W. Hicks, attended the District meeting of the Knights of Pythias at Henderson last week. Dr. Malone responded to the following toast: "The little amenities in the life and conduct of a Pythian."

This has been commencement week at Wake Forest and quite a number of our people attended. The literary address was by Dr. Charles F. Aked, a prominent Baptist divine of New York. His address took place yesterday. The attendance is reported as being quite large.

The TIMES is requested by the Chairman to state that G. D. Taylor, of Cedar Rock Lodge, has been substituted on all committees for the Masonic Rally in place of T. H. Sledge, and W. H. Harris, of Franklinton Lodge, has been substituted on committees in place of I. H. Kearney.

The painting "fever" has struck the town, and a number of our people are having their dwellings and stores retouched, which adds very much to their appearance. Among the business houses that are being "redressed" this week are the Farmer's and Merchants Bank and the store of C. T. Stokes. The "fever" should spread, as there are quite a number of houses that need the paint brush.

It is said that a recent event which took place in Washington City, in which the President took the most prominent part, was the cause of quite a large number of "mad Rads" changing their minds this week, regarding a certain celebration in Charlotte. They were conspicuous by their absence.

The Episcopal Convention met in Raleigh last week, and was quite largely attended. The various reports read proved very interesting and showed growth in the church. Those who attended from Louisburg were Rev. John London and wife, Capt. C. W. Raney and wife and Mr. W. H. Ruffin and wife.

The boys say that Wiley Holmes, our trucker, who hauls vegetables to market every day with a fine Jersey Steer, is negotiating with an Automobile Company with a view of swapping off his steer and cart for an automobile. The boys tried to get up a trade between Wiley and J. P. Winston, but J. P. would not stand for the "boot."

The editor regrets to learn of the painful accident which befel little Eugene Marshall, son of Mr. E. E. Marshall, last week. He fell from a feed room and received a fracture in one of his legs and his lower jaw. Dr. Burt was called to attend him, and at last accounts the little fellow was doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

It Is Rockefeller's Money

Statesville Landmark.
 People talk obscurely some times about the gifts of the Education Board—as it was some benevolent corporation composed of various members. Let us not forget the fact that, no matter who dispenses it, John D. Rockefeller gave it every dollar. We are determined that, so far as in us lies, the old bald-headed Baptist shall have full credit for his good deeds.—Charity and Children.

And The Landmark is determined that so far as in it lies the public shall know that the money which this bald-headed deacon is dispensing was made, largely, by unfair, unjust and oppressive methods; and that the company of which he is the head has been guilty of extortion, corruption and dishonest practices. They can praise Rockefeller's generosity, but they know that the money which they receive from his hand was made by practices that cannot be approved in religion or morals; practices which would condemn the ordinary individual in the average community; and the educational and clerical sycophants who bow before the oil king for his largeness would condemn him if he did not buy their silence with his wealth, much of which has been unjustly extorted from others. This is the money that is going to Davidson College and to get $75,000 the friends of the institution and the Presbyterian Church is expected to put up $225,000. If the friends of Davidson College can raise $225,000 they can raise $75,000 additional. If they can't the college could get along without it. But the idea of about all of the educational institutions and the greater portion of the churches now is to get money, no matter how it is made. Bring the money and no questions will be asked.

Mr. Robert B. Harris Corrects a Report.

To THE EDITOR:
 Having had a number of letters in regard to my being a candidate in 1910, and that the report had been circulated that I would not be a candidate, I deem it best to address you this letter for publication. In the first place the statement that I would not be a candidate for Sheriff in 1910 is absolutely unauthorized by me. I do not know where the reporter got his information, nor what his purpose was, nor who instigated it. It is nearly a year before the next campaign will open eyes for nominations, and the report, is voluntary, premature and without authority or suggestion from me or any one known to me. It is time enough to discuss the whole matter and make known my purpose when the campaign year of 1910 opens.

Very respectfully,
 ROBT. B. HARRIS.

The Most Valuable and Enormous Yielding, Continuous Cutting Forage

We strongly recommend our customers who have not done so to sow that splendid forage crop. If a sufficient quantity is sown. It will furnish a continuous daily supply of most nutritious green food for horses and all kinds of cattle all through the summer. It also makes splendid dry fodder, yielding enormously and being more nutritious and even better relished by all kinds of stock than corn fodder. In appearance it somewhat resembles Indian Corn, but the leaves are much larger and broader, and the stalks contain sweet sap. It produces a great number of shoots, very thickly covered with leaves, yielding an abundance of forage. It stools out enormously after being cut, as many as forty five stalks having green grown from a single seed. The first cutting can be made when it is two or three feet high. Sow in May or June at the rate of 2 or 3 pounds per acre, in drills 3 to 4 feet apart.
