

Youngsville Items.

Letha Davis, of Wake Forest, last week in town with Miss Mitchell.

J. E. Winston, sanitary inspector, took a stroll over town last week and some of our citizens got this is the right move to prevent sickness and should be kept.

C. M. Watkins and R. E. Williams, our free delivery carriers, on their vacation this week, their substitutes Messrs. W. G. and R. E. Williams, Jr., are making the rounds.

George May assisted Mr. Copp in his meeting at Oak Grove last week and we learn that many were caused to see the error of their ways and turn before it was too late and his plain and forcible preaching.

Relia Duke, of Durham, is visiting Miss Helen Winston this week.

Maggie Kirk and little son, are visiting at Mr. L. G. Timberlake, of Baltimore, during his vacation here with his mother.

Maggie Finch, of Henderson, is in town, guest of Miss Holden.

Maude Edwards, of Vance county, is spending the week with E. T. Alford.

Mamie Dickens and Annie, of Franklinton, spent last week in town.

Bebe Staunton and Maude, of Franklinton, are visiting with their relatives in town.

J. J. Jeffreys, of Raleigh, and B. Jeffreys and wife, of Hamlet, came this week to visit their parents.

Chief of Police J. E. Winston has moved his family into the residence formerly occupied by Mr. G. C. Patton.

The Seaboard Air Line construction force has finished the cotton gin form and has commenced work on the waiting room. We are glad to see this long needed work completed and think we deserve an up-to-date waiting room, we have waited so patiently for.

every effort to have a fine market.

Mr. J. B. Massenburg spent Saturday and Sunday at Warrenton.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Never Known to Fail.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichol of Oakland, Ind. Ter. For sale by The Scoggin Drug Co.

Cedar Rock Items.

J. A. Coppedge, of Greensboro, W. B. Coppedge, of Cedar Rock, were the guest, of J. D. Harper on last Sunday.

W. B. Coppedge has four acres of the finest cotton in Franklin County, and M. D. Smith has the state beat on a corn crop and our friend J. H. Wood has thirty five sheep which look like pictures in spite of the dogs.

[The above items were intended for last week but were misplaced—EDITOR.]

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocers everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Pure healthful toasted grains, malt, etc. have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute," too. No tedious 20 to thirty minutes boiling. Sold by all Grocers.

YOUNG MEN

LEARN TELEGRAPHY!

Telegraph Operators Are in Great Demand

Boys, this is your opportunity to learn a first-class trade that pays a good salary every month in the year. There will be a greater demand for Telegraph Operators this fall and winter than there has been for many years past. The prominent railroads of the South and other parts of the United States are writing us to qualify as many young men of good character for their service as we possibly can. We trust that the reliable, ambitious boys of the South will rally to this golden opportunity.

Our students qualify or service in only four to six months. We guarantee positions. Graduates begin on $45 to $65 per month, easy and pleasant work permanent employment, rapid promotion. Our tuition is reasonable, board at low rates; Newnan is extremely healthful; fine climate; excellent drinking water. Write at once for our new illustrated catalog. A letter or postal will bring it. It is FREE.

SPLENDID ORCHESTRA DANCING NIGHTLY
Panacea Springs, N. C., July 4, '09

The "New Panacea" means everything new but the same old spring from which thousands have drunk the health-giving water. The never-failing water supply which Nature still gives is now made attractive by offering those who seek it the privileges and comforts of a modern hotel—up-to-date in every respect. The rooms are large, airy and well furnished. The table is supplied with the best, polite service, etc. Those who wish to be quiet and rest from the bustle of a busy life would do well to come here and while resting drink of the world-fame water and get built up, both mentally and physically. Those who wish to enjoy the social side of life will find the privilege the best. A good orchestra and a large ball room is attracting a great number of young people, while the shady nooks on the long veranda lit by the beams of a curious moon are the rendezvous of couples where Cupid makes a third party. Some of the arrivals today are C. W. Temple, Templeton, Md. Mrs. Mary Cross, Preston, Ind. Mrs. Meyers and daughter, Newport News, Va.; H. C. Dockery, Raleigh, Chas. Hasty and wife, Leesburg; R. L. Wester, Henderson, W. H. Wynne, Raleigh, Grimes Cooper, Raleigh, A. T. Basse, Warrenton, Ga.; F. T. Fox, wife and child, Emporia, Va. T. B. Tyack, [Louisburg, Mass Cooper, Nashville, Miss Hyward, Chicago.
