

Things to Do This Month.
 (1) Arrange for some cover crop on the land you can. Have clover, rye, oats, or wheat on every acre possible.
 (2) Cut your corn and save the whole crop. Unless you live in a humid section where you know you cannot do better, don't waste your time and reduce your yield of grain by pulling fodder.
 (3) Pick out the very best and most productive individual corn stalks for seed next year.
 (4) Prepare a good seed bed for fall grain and sow some oats right now.
 (5) Sow some grazing crops for your hogs—rape, rye, etc.—and don't plant them on corn alone.
 (6) Plant vegetables for winter use, turnips, lettuce, peas, cabbage, spinach, carrots, etc. Put up late vegetables and fruits for winter.
 (7) Clean the weeds off the garden and truck patches, from around the buildings, along the roadsides and out of the pasture.
 (8) Look after the poultry, repair, clean out and whitewash the houses, sow some crops for green feed, pick out birds for exhibition.
 (9) See that the barns, stables and other buildings are in good repair for the winter.
 (10) Start some movement for improving the roads of your community.—Progressive Farmer.

Does Seed Selection pay.
 The following illustrations of the results of seed selection are taken at random from hundreds that might be given:
 On 20 rows at Lamar, S. C., heavy seed yielded 1,047 pounds of cotton and ordinary seed yielded 944 pounds. An increase of nearly 10 per cent or an increase of 1 bale on every ten. As a result of two years' selection, the length of the fiber in a variety of Egyptian cotton at Columbia, S. C., was increased from 1 1/4 inches to 1 3/4 inches and the yield also increased.

No cotton grower can afford to ignore these results. The careful and intelligent selection of cotton seed for planting offers one of the very best opportunities for increasing the income of the average cotton planter a large part of the desired $500 more a year.—Progressive Farmer.

HANDICAPED.

This is the Case With Many Louisburg People.

Too many Louisburg citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief, but cannot eliminate the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. The following statement should convince every Louisburg reader of their efficiency.

Rev. J. E. Hartshell, 504 Andrews Ave., Henderson, N. C., Says: "Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, I have had no trouble from disordered kidneys and in return for this great relief do not hesitate to recommend the remedy. Distressing pains across my loins and a dull ache in my back afflicted me for a long time and I was also bothered by a weakness of the kidneys, in fact I felt generally miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills soon drove away the backache, strengthened my kidneys and improved my condition in every way."

The Telephone Girl.

The telephone girl sits in her chair and listen to voices from every where. She hears all the gossip, she hears all the news, she knows who is happy and who has the blues; she knows all our sorrows and our joys, she knows every girl who is chasing the boys; she knows of our troubles, she knows of our strife; she knows every man who talks mean to his wife, she knows every time we are out with "the boys," she hears the excuses each fellow employes; she knows every woman who has a dark past; she knows every man who is inclined to be "Fast;" in fact, there's a great secret beneath each saucy curl of that quiet, demure looking telephone girl. If the telephone girl told all that she knows it would turn half our friends into bitterest foes; she could sow a small wind that would soon be a gale, engulf us in trouble and land us in jail; she could let go a story which, gaining in force, would cause half our wives to sue for divorce, she could get all our churches mixed up in a fight and turn all our days into sorrowing night; in fact, she could keep the whole town in a stew if she'd tell a tenth part of the things she knew. Oh, brother, now doesn't it make your head whirl, when you think what you owe to the telephone girl?—Vernon (Tex.) Call.
