—Do you realize what the Louisburg College is worth to the community as an asset? If you have not put yourself in position of the facts. Go to the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Friday night in the court house and learn its worth, its needs and its future as you will make it.

—Did you know that Louisburg Female College was going to move? Well it is. It is going to move for larger usefulness. It is desired that every man, woman and child in Louisburg shall have a part in this great move. Friday night, October 1st, 1909 at 8 o'clock in the court house, we want to get the rollers under and everybody get hold of the windlass for one great pull together and we will see the dear old college start upon a larger field of operation. Let everybody be there.

—It is the duty of every man and woman in Louisburg to attend the meeting to be held at the Court house, Friday night, October 1st. The meeting is in the interest of the Louisburg College, a noble institution, which has been a power for good and uplifting influence in this community for years. The college is doing a grand work, but it needs support to enable it to properly equip and to meet the competition of the present time. Let every body come out Friday night and attend the meeting in the interest of the college.

WHAT THE BIRD SAID

The town Bird, "The English Sparrow," said when he saw the Automobiles: "I see my finish; no more horse stables."

Now boys, I have sold you about 250 mules and horses, and 5 or 6 car loads of buggies, and great many wagons, a lot of Guano, etc on time. About all of which is due November 1st. From now, and unless you pay me, I see my finish, but your finish first.

The big Annual Mortgage Sales, October 23, which is Saturday, November 23, which is Tuesday, and December 23, which is Thursday will settle all. This year I am paying no favorites.

Cotton is high, don't hold. Pay up and save being busted up. No use to come to see me and trouble your troubles. I have mine, but after the big mortgage sale I am going to sing that famous ballad.

I got mine; or lost out trying, War is on Take my life, but my money, I must have to live on and now gentlemen: Talk is cheap, but what you owe me I must have, and unless you pay me, I will pose your property at vendue to the high dollar, and call your name at the sale. Now to the farmer whom no one will credit and who has a bale of cotton his own, sell it at 13 cents and get your sale, and you can double your change by buying your neighbors horse, mule or buggy at $100.00 promised $95 for last spring

The first mortgage sale for this year will be pulled off at the stables in Louisburg, on Saturday, October 23rd, commencing promptly at 10:30, rain or shine. 0 0 0 0

At which time I will offer 15 or 30 head of horses and mules; 10 or 15 buggies, several sets of harness, wagons, etc., a lot of household and kitchen furniture, etc. Watch out for our big posters at all the postoffices and cotton gins, which will tell you all about the first big mortgage sale. Come to see me if you want to buy a horse, mule, buggy or wagon or harness. I am selling to reliable parties on time. P. S. A car load of horses just received. You can buy a horse from now until Christmas at present prices.
