Why Truth Goes Naked.

Secretary Meyer, at a Newport luncheon, answered an interesting question.

"Why," a naval cadet asked, "do we always speak of 'naked truth?'"

Secretary Meyer smiled and answered:

"There is an ancient fable and one very appropriate to this hot weather, which tells us that on a summer afternoon Truth and Falsehood set out to bathe together. They found a crystal spring, they bathed in the cool, fresh water, and Falsehood, emerging first, clothed herself in the garments of Truth and went her way. But Truth unwilling to put on the garb of Falsehood, departed naked. And to this day Falsehood wears Truth's fair white robes, so that many persons mistake her for truth's very self, but poor Truth still goes naked."
