—“Maidens All Forlorn” at the college on Monday night. Let everybody go.
—Cotton was selling on our market yesterday for from 14 1-4 to 14 3-8 cents.

—Read the new advertisement of the Alston Company on the editorial page in this issue.

—Mr. J. W. Hollingworth is having a new coat of paint put on his residence on Kenmoor Avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Pernell, of near Franklinton, spent Sunday evening with their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Wheelers.

—Read the change of ad of Mrs. A. M. Hall in this issue. She has something of interest to everybody and especially to the ladies.

—The Gem Theatre has started up again, under the management of Mr. J. S. Cobb and we learn that some very good pictures are being shown.

—Read the new advertisement of M. C. Pleasants in this issue. If you want fresh fruits or groceries of quality he tells you where to get them.

—Tobacco is still coming in in pretty big lots and is bringing pretty fair prices. All the farmers we have heard speak of the sales were very well satisfied.

—The attention of our readers is called to the change of ad of K. P. Hill which will be found on another page of this issue. He says he is going make it interesting for somebody.

—Mr. J. H. Bobbitt has opened the old Macon Hotel now as the Bobbitt hotel and is open for transient guests. He will no doubt receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

—A. W. Perry, Jr., & Co., is the name of a new firm that has opened a stock of groceries and general merchandise in the store room recently vacated by Mr. E. Odom, on Nash Street.

—Mr. W. E. White and Dr. C. H. Banks went out to Mr. F. W. Mitchiner on Tuesday evening and the three went possum hunting on Tuesday night. They report catching six and a very enjoyable hunt.

—The attention of our street committee is called to the condition of Elm Street. There is a portion of this street in good shape and there is only a small portion of it that really needs work and we hope they will take it into consideration.

—Mr. Will Cooke wishes us to state to our readers that the idea that the Bargain Store had closed when he opened the 5 and 10 cent store is altogether a mistake. Mr. Cooke is now running both the Bargain store and the 5 and 10 cent store.

—In giving the ballot of the Republican Executive Committee last week for Chairman we were in error by stating that Yarbrough received 4 and Mitchell 2, it should have been that Yarbrough received 6, instead of 4. The error occurred by getting up the article in a hurry and we are glad to make the correction.

—A friend from Katesville gives us the following item: “One of our young men went turkey hunting one day the past week and upon finding and bagging his game became so enthused that he ran all the way back home leaving his fine pointer dog by the way side. He is now offering a reward for the return of his dog who answers to the name of Brownie.”

Bunn Items.

Since the phenomenal sale of lots here two weeks ago things have been getting a move on in Bunn. A number of prospective enterprises are beginning to take shape. Among these are a furniture factory, cotton mill, drug store and so forth. The depot has been completed and beginning with next week the railroad company will put on a regular passenger train from this place to Spring Hope. This train will make two trips a day, making connection with the Coast Line trains in Spring Hope morning and afternoon. By this means Bunn will have excellent railway facilities and business will start in earnest — business which is destined to make Bunn a thriving town. The people of Bunn and the surrounding country are very enthusiastic and hail with great delight the first regular schedule train.

Mr. J. J. Wells, civil engineer of Rooky Mount, is here laying off more lots which will be offered for sale.

Prof. Sanford Martin attended the meeting of State High School Principals, which was held in Greensboro last week.

Mrs. J. H. Weathers returned from Raleigh Sunday, where she had been spending several days taking treatment under Drs. Goodwin and Glasscock.

The faculty of the High School, accompanied by Dr. B. C. Johnson, spent Sunday at the home of Dr. R. P. Floyd, a few miles from town.

Bunn High School is having the most prosperous year in its history. There are quite a number of boarding students besides the large number attending from the High School district. Painters are busy putting a new coat of paint on the Academy inside. A considerable number of books have recently been added to the school library.

CORRESPONDENT.

Agreed With The Court.

A lawyer came into court drunk, when the judge said to him:

“Sir, I am sorry to see you in a situation which is a disgrace to yourself and family and the profession to which you belong.”

This reproof elicited the following colloquy:

“Did your honor speak to me?”

“I did, sir. I said, sir, that, in my opinion, you've disgraced yourself and family, the court, and the profession by your course of conduct.”

“May I—I—please your honor, I have been an attorney in—in this court for fifteen years, and, permit me to say, your honor, that this is the first correct opinion I ever knew you to give.”—Dundee Advertiser.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: “For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference.” For sale by Scoggin Drug Co.

Notice.

A noble effort has been started by the friends and pupils of the late Prof. W. O. Dunn, (who gave his life's work to the boys and girls of Nash, Franklin, Halifax and Warren counties) to erect a worthy monument to his memory at Wise, N. C. where his body lies awaiting that great day.

Feeling that all his old students and friends would be glad to contribute to this worthy cause and not knowing their addresses, we take this way of making it known for we are sure they need only to know such an effort has been started. Any amount will be gladly received and a record kept of all who contribute. May the boys and girls that went to school to him at the different places come to our assistance and help to make this a “grand success” before the year closes.

Give your contribution to Mr. W. M. Boone, Louisburg, N. C. or send direct to the treasurer, Mr. J. R. Pascall, Wise, N. C.
