NEGRO KILLED.

Struck on Head By Coca Cola Bottle.

While engaged in a game of crap near the old chair factory in company with several others Walter Hawkins and Malachi Holden got into a dispute over twenty cents which caused some words and a blow over the head with a coca coca bottle. Malachi Holden being the one to deliver the blow while Walter Hawkins received same. This occurrence took place about 1 o'clock Sunday morning and it is said the two negroes partially made friends again and that Hawkins did not show any signs of being hurt seriously. On Sunday morning about 12 o'clock Hawkins died and upon an examination conducted by Dr. J. H. Harris it was disclosed that death was caused from the lick he received the night before—there being about six ounces of clotted blood on his brain. The blow, however, did not break either the skin or skull. The officers then got busy and before long had the crowd safely landed in the mayor's office where a trial was begun on Sunday afternoon and finished on Monday. In the crowd on trial for crap shooting were Lee McKnight, Blake Roe, Charlie Hawkins, Eugene Mitchell, Ernest Daniels, Randolph Henderson, Cato Perry. They were tried before Mayor C. W. Conway and Squire E. W. Morris who soon found sufficient evidence to bind them over to court under bond. Holden not being allowed bond was sent to jail to await court and Blake Roe and Lee McKnight not being able to give bond were also placed in jail. The others gave bond.

The officers did some very good and effective work in cooping the whole crowd and deserve credit for their special services.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW.

WHAT A HEAP OF HAPPINESS IT WOULD BRING TO LOUISBURG PEOPLE.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

'T would save much needless woe.

Pointed Paragraph.

There's many a slip 'twixt the razor and the lip.

Whoever is worth doing at all gets done to a turn.

It doesn't take much sparking to kindle the flame of love.

Never judge a man by his actions. He may need the money.

More than half our suspicions have foundations like their castles.

Still, a gum-chewing girl may be worthy a cigarett smoker's love.

Don't take up so much room and you will have less housecleaning to do.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Most anybody would be willing to be a good citizen if it wasn't so dull.

A poor excuse for coming home late is better than not coming home at all.

The time a woman demands the strongest that you shall say she's pretty is when she's furthest from it. There's a kind of man that thinks he makes his wife a fine present when he pays a doctor's bill that was for her.

What a woman specially likes about washing her hair is how long she can sit before the mirror watching it dry.
