FORTIETH VOLUME.

With our last issue we completed our thirty-ninth volume. The past year has brought pleasure and sadness in the history of this publication. Pleasure because of the success and patronage we have enjoyed and sadness because of the death of Mr. J. A. Thomas, who for more than thirty years so ably edited this paper.

Since his death and for some time before the present management has endeavored to conduct the TIMES as to merit the good will and support of the public. And with the continued encouragement and patronage of the good people of Louisburg and Franklin county we purpose to increase our efforts in the building up of both, and to stand for what is right irrespective of persons.

It shall be our aim at all times to give the public in full, and to express plainly our own opinion, is for the benefit of the community and the people. However we propose to be strictly broad and allow each and every man the right to his own opinion. And now as we enter upon our fortieth volume we thank our many friends for their many good wishes and past patronage and hope that we may be of greater service to our citizenship and the community.

The strike in Philadelphia is getting to be serious.

From the best reports of the war in Managua it seems as if the revolutionists are getting the best of it.

If the actions of the republicans in Congress doesn't disgust any reasonable man it is hard to say what will.

There is another race riot on at Cairo, Ill. It now looks as if the trouble is coming home to those who laugh.

We see that Wilmington is going to make a fight for the meeting of the North Carolina Press Association this year.

W. E. MASSENBURG, the man who eloped with Mrs. Arthur Nowell, of Greensboro, one day last week, was released under a $3,000 bond in Greensboro on Monday.

Hon. E. W. PEE has introduced a bill in Congress asking that the Government appropriate $25,000 for the purpose of erecting a statue to President Andrew Johnson in Raleigh.

If all the inequities of the Standard Oil Company were in shape for burning and the desire of Senator Davis, of Arkansas, was to materialize, there would truly be a hot time for Rockefeller.

The Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Bankers Association will meet at Wrightsville June 22nd to 24th, as a result of the decision of the executive committee in Raleigh Wednesday.

DURHAM is to be numbered among those cities who have refused the right to present their performance to the "Girl from Rectors." The authorities of these places are to be commended upon such action.

Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, who has been at the point of death for the past few days at Washington, D. C., is right much improved. His physicians say that he is practically out of danger now and will soon recover.

On Monday night of last week the P. D. Gould Publishing Company, of Wilson, was burned out. This company published several papers among them being the WILson Daily Times. The loss was estimated at about $15,000 with $5,750 insurance. The Times appeared on the next day, although in some what smaller form.

If we are to believe in the old adage that an accessory is as guilty as the criminal, and the desire of Senator Davis was to come true, there would hardly be any trouble in finding the republican party after this old world has gone. But no doubt old Nick would be like the traveling man that stopped at a night house.

From a report we notice that ex-President Zelaya, of Managua, who slipped away into Mexico some time ago, was expected in Managua in a few days when he said, he will show proof that the United States was responsible for the revolution. This is rot. If the United States would do him justice they would give him a genteel flogging and then put him up where he could not impose on a lot of helpless people.

In the midst of a race riot Sheriff Nellis, of Cairo, Ill., summoned six negro deputies in a total number of fourteen, for the purpose of guarding a criminal, who had been deliberately taking pocket books or purses from ladies. This is a peculiar way to restore good feeling among the races. And to top the climax he refused to allow the friends of a white man, who had been shot down by the guards, to take him up and to a place where he could receive medical attention, but allowed him to lie out in the snow for three or four hours with the temperature just a little above zero. We do not know of mob law, but we certainly believe that a little common judgment being used in such an affair.

TEDDY IS COMING HOME.

Let's not forget, a quiet, unostentatious, self-effacing, publicity-shunning, shrinkingly modest, unknown, unphotographed, unsmiling, noise-hating, reticent, secretive lion hunter contemplates approaching these shores clandestinely and surreptitiously slipping unnoticed through the crowd at the pier, to seek the solace of solitude and indulge in pious, patriotic meditation.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

To the Members of the Baptist Sunday School.

There are many books, that belong to the Library in the homes of the members of the Sunday School. We would be obliged if every one would look in their homes and see if by neglect they have overlooked any books belonging to the "Sunday School." Please return all books found on the next Sunday.

Yours Respectfully, RAYMOND FAYLOR, Librarian.

In Memoriam.

On the morning of February 11th, 1910, Mr. H. Carter passed from this life to his home beyond the skies, for the Master came and called for him.

He would soon have been fifty-six years old, years crowned with noble deeds and self-sacrifice for his Lord and Savior and for those with whom he came in contact. While he was sick only a few days, he was tenderly and affectionately nursed during his last great suffering. But he went to sleep as peacefully as an infant taking his afternoon nap with an expression on his face radiant as if reflected from the throne itself. One of his chief characteristics was his absolute unselfishness. Whenever there was suffering and sorrow and distress in his community there he could be found ready and anxious to cheer, comfort and help. No sacrifice was too great for him to make if there was to be found a poor troubled soul. He was a member of Bethlehem Baptist church and loved his church with a devotion that was continually beautiful. He was for many years a deacon. He not only gave the Lord his time but gave of his means also. He leaves a wife and an aged mother. We share with them in their sore bereavement, and the sympathy of all is extended to them.

We shall miss him in our church.

work but more in our homes. May the Lords will be that we shall meet again as his servants.

A FRIEND.

Cooley for Solicitor.

We, the undersigned members of the bar of Nash county, heartily endorse the candidacy of Hon. R. A. P. Cooley for Solicitor of the Fourth Judicial District. We can say truthfully of him: (1) that he is an able advocate and fully equipped for the duties of this important office; (2) he has always been an unwavering and active Democrat, and (3) he is a most capable and attractive man. We appeal to the Democrats of the district to aid us in securing Mr. Cooley's nomination.
