We now have on our floor 18 beautiful designs of reliable Pianos, you can come here and get a Piano for $125, $5 cash and $1 a week. If you are not prejudiced against buying at home for less money than from strangers we are prepared to say that we will give you better goods and better terms for the same money that you will get from Piano dealers.

Don't you know it cost Piano Salesmen a lot to go over the country, hire teams and at big salaries, it cost us no more to sell a piano than a five dollar bedstead. We are here to stay in the business we have established now about 12 years and offer you our goods at lower prices and better terms than you can get elsewhere. If you are interested call on us.

LOCALS.

—Did you go fishing Easter.

—Rumer has it that Franklinton will have another automobile soon.

—Mr. J. C. Blackley returned from Richmond, Va., Friday with five more nice horses.

—The Cooke Furniture Co., and the Citizens Bank has treated the front of their buildings to a new coat of paint which helps the looks of them considerably.

—The Kittrell colored ball team came over Monday and played a game of ball with the colored team of this place. The game resulted in a score of 2 and 3 in favor of the local nine.

—Miss Margie Speed, who has recently been successfully operated on at Rex hospital, Raleigh, was brought home last week. Her many friends will be glad to learn that she is improving.

—A number of our boys and girls are enjoying the afternoon and evenings in the armory on roller skates and some are nursing bruised arms and legs. Have you been lucky enough not to fall yet?

—R. W. House and Miss Lizzie Dickerson were married Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride. Rev. Mr. Patton, of Pope's Chapel, performed the ceremony. Their many friends wish them success.

—Mr. Jasper Weathers has resigned his position as operator for the Seaboard Air Line and will accept a position with McGhee-Jeyner Co., April 1st, where he will be glad to have his friends call and see him.

—Mr. J. H. Harris and Miss Mary McElree were happily married last Sunday night at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride in the presence of a few friends only. The ceremony was performed by Squire J. E. Nicholson in his usual impressive manner. The groom is a former deputy of the local law.

Sheriff H. C. Kearney and is well known throughout the county. The bride is a daughter of L. T. McGhee an old soldier, and is held in high esteem by all who know her.

—The Graded School Base Ball team went over to Youngsville last Friday and played the school team of that town, defeating them in a very good game of ball. This was the first time the team has been in action this season and the new men on the team made a fine showing. The score stood five and two at the end in the Franklinton teams favor. The special feature of the game was the pitching of Underwood for our boys. Battery for Youngsville Winston H., and Winston J. For Franklinton Underwood and Daniel. A game with the same team is expected soon on our grounds.

—Monday night at 8:30 o'clock quite a large crowd met at the Mayor's office to advertise for the purpose of organizing a Base Ball Association. Mayor C. W. Conway was made chairman and Capt. E. J. Cheatham, Secretary of the meeting. Several short talks were made as to the object of the meeting, and on motion of Mr. B. W. Ballard an executive committee of five was elected to draft by laws and present them to the meeting Friday night for acceptance. This committee probably will have the power to elect a manager of the team, direct the paying out of the funds, etc. The committee is composed of the following: B. W. Ballard, A. R. Winston, I. H. Kearney, S. C. Ford, A. O. Perry. Geo. L. Cooke was elected Secretary and Treasurer of the Association and all moneys belonging to the Association will go through his hands. Dr. A. R. Winston, C. T. Nicholson and J. R. Cooke were appointed a soliciting committee. This committee will receive pledges and it is hoped to get the amount wanted pledged by next meeting. Next meeting will be Friday night. Come.
