

From Red Bud:
 Ma. Ebron — We have heard right much complaint about Mr. J. H. Woods sheep running out at large recently, and Mr. Wood requests us to state that he has had the place found where they got out and stopped. He also said that he had had his son, B. F. Wood and Frank Parrish in search for the place where they got out for the past three months and they have just found it, just this side of the Bass lot near the old gate place. It took nearly as long to find it as it took Dr. Cook to find the north pole.

 The farmers of this part are doing their duty on their farms this beautiful weather. From all reports Mr. H. A. Hines is expecting to make an unusually good crop this year. He has recently made the purchase of a new horse, and has a tall red headed man (John) to plow for him.
 This community was saddened by the death of Mr. W. H. Bowden, on last Monday morning. He had been seriously ill for some time, and his death was not unexpected. His remains were peacefully laid to rest in the old family burying ground Wednesday afternoon. Rev. G. M. Duke conducted the funeral services. His thoughts were impressive and held the attention of a large crowd. Mr. Bowden was a good man and will be sadly missed in the neighborhood. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family and kindred.
 Messrs Roscoe Wheelers, Emmitt Bartholomew and Miss Kate Wilder of Castalia, were visitors in this vicinity last Sunday.

 Quite a merry party of young people were at the home of Mr. J. O. Wheelers, on last Saturday night. The girls were Misses Etta and Blonnie Wheelers, Geneva and Nan Hines, Sallie and Pearle Hollingsworth and Katie Coppedge. The young men were far too numerous to mention. Every attendant seemed to enjoy the occasion fine.

Mrs. H. A. Hines has returned home. She spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Geneva Matthews, of Spring Hope.

Mr. Aster, Hollingsworth, of Spring Hope, is with his aunt, Mrs. Lucy Hollingsworth, this week.

 The sun rose beautifully on Easter morning and the birds sang as if they knew it was holiday. The little boys and girls had a gay time fishing on Monday. Misses Bertha Neal, Ruth Parrish, Annie Neal, and little Lewis Neal all went to the branch to catch-minners—they had quite a pleasant time.
 We had quite a surprising marriage in our little town Sunday evening at four o'clock, when Mr. Walter Thompson and Miss Nannie Garton were made man and wife.
 R. J. Lewis, of Littleton, and other revenue officers were in our midst last week looking around for blockade stills.
 Rev. B. C. Thompson filled his regular appointment at Sarepta Sunday. He preached another good sermon from Matthew 28th.
 The Sunday School was organized at Sarepta Sunday. Mr. S. T. Gupton was appointed superintendent. The secretary and teachers will be elected the first Sunday. We should try to select the very best christian people for these important places.
 Our school closed its 1910 term on last Friday and the children had a gay time. They enjoyed a basket picnic and Easter egg hunt. Miss Annie Wilder, our efficient teacher, did her full duty and the patrons of this school should feel proud of her work.
 Easter in this community was celebrated by the young people in fishing and other amusements, coming and going.
 Best wishes for the TIMES and its editor. P. J.
