

The Louisburg Guaranty, Loan AND Realty Company

This is the title of the company just established in Louisburg and read below what we can do for you.

REAL ESTATE If you wish to buy a farm, we will buy it for you, and assist you in negotiating a loan to buy it, if you want time to pay for it. If you wish to sell your farm or exchange it for another, we can assist you to do that also.

RENTING PROPERTY AND COLLECTING RENTS If you wish to rent your property, we will assist you in finding a tenant. We will also collect your rents for you if you desire to keep the property insured and in repair.

LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE We will also insure your life against death, and we will insure your property against loss by fire. An insurance policy on your life will not cost much, but it would mean much to your wife and children, in case of your death. Your savings and accumulations of a life time may be destroyed in a few minutes by fire. A fire insurance policy will protect you.

MONEY If you wish to borrow money, we will assist you to borrow it. If you have money to loan, we will place it for you on absolutely gilt edge security, and charge you not a cent. No matter what amount you may desire to place out at 6 per cent interest on gilt edge security, whether only a few dollars, or larger amounts, we will place it for you, and not charge you a cent for our services and the services of our attorney, who has made a specialty of looking up real estate titles.

WE CAN GIVE YOUR BOND We are also prepared to give bond of certain character, and you can have this company furnish your bond, instead of asking your friends to sign your bond.

We have enumerated in the foregoing some of the services our company can render if desired. We are prepared to serve you in a number of other ways and we offer our services to the public. We begin business February 1st.

DR. S. P. BURT PRESIDENT

IAR DROPS.

—April court will convene on Monday, April 18th, 1910 with Hon. O. H. Guion, Judge presiding.

—The attention of our readers is called to the change of ad of F. N. & R. Z. Egerton in this issue.

—Supt. J. R. Williams, with the force of road hands, was busy the past week laying a new floor on the bridge across Tar river here.

—L. P. Johnson, brother of the editor, of Rocky Mount, has taken a position with the TRAXES. In addition to being "devil" he says he intends learning the business.

—It's pretty hard for a woman wearing a dress she has "turned" three seasons and faded cotton hose, with patched heels, to say to her liege lord, "I love you just as well as when we were married ten years ago."

—Mr. K. K. Allen received his gasoline launch Tuesday and has had it placed on the river above the dam. He is having him a boat house built and will soon be in position to enjoy the pleasures held in store by the beautiful Tar.

—On account of being written on both sides of the paper and with the names of the writer left off several lots of items and other correspondence has lost its way into the columns of the TIMES. We are always glad to publish these but the two rules above must be complied with.

—The clock at the Beasley-Alston Drug Company was uncovered on Tuesday at 3 o'clock. It had stopped at twenty-seven minutes and ten seconds passed eleven. Mr. J. L. Spencer received the $2.00 prize for holding card with the nearest number and Mr. J. H. Beat $1.00 for the next nearest.

—As spring assumes its wonted gentle atmosphere there is a general stir and bustle among our mechanics and the saw and hammer so long silent are brought forth and their clatter and bang reverberates on every hand. New dwellings, new barns, new roofs, new yard fences are putting in appearances here and there and clearly indicate a busy season of general improvements ahead.

—A number of our people went over to Henderson last night to see Graustalk.

—Messrs. Ford and Williamson, have secured the services of a vaudeville troupe and have been presenting some interesting and amusing performances at the Opera House this week. They also have moving pictures and make a change of programme every two nights. This will only last through Saturday night so if you would like to see it, you had better go out tonight.

—Spring is come, bright, sunbiny, breezy, muggy spring. In thunder tones it was duly ushered in and now the melodious songs of the blue bird, the robin's warble, the coo of the prairie chicken and the basso voice of the thunder pumper are heard early and late. The husband with the broomhandle can be seen pounding the dusty carpet and swearing at his hard luck and the arch enemy, the stove pipe, still wears its familiar ironical smile. Oh spring! Oh chestnuts.

—The time of making garden is near at hand and it is also time to pea up the chickens. There is perhaps, nothing that causes as much hard feelings in a locality as for chickens to wander on a neighbor's premises and garden. So we say they do not do any harm. That makes no difference, your neighbor does not want to be annoyed with your chickens and you should not cause trouble by allowing your fowls to run at large. A hen that will not stay in the enclosure will usually make a fine Sunday dinner.

—Seeding and planting is the order of the day. Every farmer who may be truly called a farmer is busily employed in putting in his crops. The croaker or paper farmer is sitting about on store boxes at the village store whittling and deploring the state of the weather; "too wet to plow or plant anything" while last week it was too dry. The weather is never just right for those fellows. They, like Wilkins Micawber, are waiting for something to turn up instead of going out to turn up something. The prudent farmer is at home, wet or dry, when it rains doing odd jobs that he need not do when he ought to be in the field. Apportion your time, you need all of it; have a system in performing your work; work in season, and plant in season, so when harvest comes the fruits of your labor will be fully realized. Stop your croaking about the worthlessness of the country. If the country don't suit you pack up your traps and go. Nobody compelled you to come here and nobody will stop you from going, provided always, you can escape the sheriff.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To my Democratic Friends:
I am taking this method of informing my friends throughout the county; that I am a candidate for renomination at the hands of my party for my present office of Clerk of the Superior court. My duties as Clerk compel my constant attendance at my office in Louisburg for the proper discharge of the business of the people is more important than any man's candidacy, and they have a right to expect to find me in my office when they come to town to transact business with the clerk. I am, therefore, deprived of the pleasure of visiting the people at their homes, as I should so much like to do, to solicit their support in my behalf, and am compelled to rely upon my friends to look after my interests at the Democratic primaries. By my friends, I mean the whole body of Democratic voters, for they have shown their friendship in the past, and I believe will continue it in the future, for I am unconscious of having done ought to forfeit the confidence of any former friend. I have endeavored to show my appreciation of the favors shown me, by strict attention to the duties of my office, and by courtesy and accommodation to all, having business with it, and if re-elected, I shall continue to devote my best efforts to the service of the people.

With deep gratitude for past favors, with the kindest of feelings towards all, and with a determination to always faithfully discharge every trust confided to me, I submit my claims to the people of Franklin county.

Respectfully,
J. J. BARROW.
