

HOLLINGSWORTHS FURNITURE AND MUSIC HOUSE

To Piano, Furniture and Music Dealers

Mr. Competitor, please take notice, during last week we sold 4 of our splendid pianos in Louisburg, 6 at our Raleigh agency and it was a very bad week for selling Pianos, we ask the prospective piano buyers to investigate why we are selling so many pianos and investigate the pianos we are selling and the terms we sell on.

We want to call your attention also to our splendid and well kept Furniture which has won for us large patronage. We will treat you right if you want the very best service and prices see us.

Coffins and Caskets

New big lot of coffins and caskets, new copper lined metallic broad cloth sold by competitors for $125, our price only $60. No charge for hearse. Black broad cloth made of hard wood, competitors price $50, our price $20.

The reason competitors fight us so hard is they know we sell goods at half what that ask for them.

Did you ever hear of us going to a home asking to sell a coffin without being sent for, how would you feel about that sort of a thing. The idea is to keep them away from Hollingsworth, because its known we sell them at half price.

LOCALS.

—L. C. Pirie and family spent Sunday with Mr. L. C. Mitchiner.
—Has the Census Enumerator got you yet? If not he is looking for you.
—Don't forget the Crystal Ball at the Graded School Friday night by the school.
—Let advertising help you do your selling. Rates can be gotten from Mr. E. M. Edwards.
—B. H. May & Co., have added to the looks of their store by putting a new coat of paint on the front.
—The larger team expects a game with Wake Forest "scrubs" this week, also Kittrell and Youngville.
—The kid base ball game that was to have been played in Louisburg Monday was postponed on account of rain.
—Only three companies in the State beat company F, in the Dupont trophy shoot. This speaks good for Franklinton.
—The skating rink has changed its headquarters to the old chair factory under the management of Harris & Collins.
—Rev. T. B. Justice, former pastor of the Baptist Church here, but now of Benson, was on our streets the past week shaking hands with his friends here. He preached at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and night.
—Maggie, the little 10 months old girl of Mr. Ed. Casper, died Wednesday morning at the home of its grand father, Mr. Walker Winston, on Obenham street, after having survived its mother just three months. It was buried at Pope's Chapel last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
—Quite a number of our people went to Louisburg, Friday—some as witnesses and some as spectators in the case of C. S. Williams against the Railway Company for the killing of his mother, Mrs. Mary A.

Williams nearly three years ago. The case did not come to trial as a compromise was affected.
—The Crescent Drug Co. have installed one of the latest and most up to date soda fountains, in use today in their store. The old one used by them will be installed by B. H. May & Co.
—The local lodge of Odd Fellows here celebrated the anniversary of the establishment of the first lodge of Odd Fellows on April 26th, 1819 in the armory by serving refreshments to the lodge and their friends last Tuesday night. The occasion was enjoyed by all present. Short speeches were made by several local members.
—We will again call the attention of the people of Franklinton to the fact that in order for this department, to be made more interesting it will be necessary for each one of you to give our reporter, Mr. E. M. Edwards, all the items of news you can get. It might be remembered that this department is being run at a great expense and as we are getting no revenue therefrom we feel that each person in Franklinton should do all in their power to help us advertise their town.
