

BUGGIES

HARNESSES

WAGONS

HACKNEY BUGGIES,

BABCOCK BUGGIES

DURHAM BUGGIES

Largest, Best and Cheapest Stock of Harness in Louisburg

We are going to sell the above regardless of price or terms, so come first and take your choice.

WHITE HICKORY WAGONS

GATE CITY WAGONS

The Riverside Independent Warehouse

EDWARD S. FORD

LOUISBURG, N. C.

P. A. REAVIS COMPANY

WHOLESALE GROCERS

LOUISBURG, N. C.

We Solicit The Trade of The Retail Merchant Only

AND CARRY IN STOCK HERE EVERYTHING HE NEEDS

We Save You The Freight, the Other Fellow Makes You Pay. Phone, Write or Come and See

LOCALS.

—"Zip" and its all over.
—Did it scare you, and how did the gas smell.
—Did you see it when we went through? The comets tail we mean.
—A party of Automobilist from Henderson came over last Sunday.
—The Franklinton Grocery Company have painted the front of their store.
—Postmaster W. P. Edward, who has been sick for several days, we are glad to note is able to be out again.
—Is there anybody in your neighborhood dead as a result of the comet?
—A large number of our people attended the County Convention at Lonsburg Monday.
—If you are living 75 years from today you can have the pleasure of telling those around you about it, when it is scheduled to appear again.
—Two very important events have transpired this week and are over, to wit: Going through the comets tail and the County Convention. "Phew" cant you rest now.
—There was more interest manifested in the primary here Saturday than has ever been shown before. The fight mainly was with the candidates for Sheriff, Register of Deeds Clerk and Constable. There were 307 votes cast for these offices.
—Next Sunday will be observed at the Baptist and Methodist Sunday Schools as "The World's Sunday School Day" here with a special programme at both schools. The World's Sunday School Convention will be in session in Washington, D. C. next Sunday.
—"Stuart," the hustling South paw that will catch for the Franklinton baseball team this season arrived Saturday for business. Others are expected Friday of this week and still more next week. We are anxious to interest our friends this summer if we don't take any of the games. The boys practice now every day at 4 p. m. Come out and encourage them.

—H. C. Ray has commenced the erection of his new home on the sight where the old Female Academy formerly stood. He hopes to have it completed this summer.
—R. D. Collins asked us to say that he now sole owner of the skating rink and that it will be run on full time during the next few months at the old chair factory Tuesday and Thursday nights.
—The Census enumerator is anxious to get the census report correct and having to take up where it was left off by another man possibly might miss some, so if you have reason to believe he has missed you or if you know of any one or have reason to believe he has missed some family near you, you will confer a favor on the Deputy by calling his attention to it.
—The Third Regiment North Carolina National Guard of which our local Company is a part, will encamp at Morehead City this year some time between the sixth and twenty sixth of July. Some of the boys will be disappointed to know this as it was hoped the Regiment would camp at some new camping ground this year, having been to Morehead City now the last three years.
—Geo. Langley, of Wendell, while en route to Franklinton last Tuesday stopped over in Raleigh and purchased marriage license for himself and Miss Vanza McGhee, daughter of Mr. Edward McGhee, of this place, an account of which appeared in the Evening Times of that day, which was read by Mr. McGhee who promptly interfered, preventing the marriage.
—The following change of schedules on trains passing here went into effect Sunday. Northbound trains No. 32 formerly due at 8 o'clock a.

m. changes to 4:43 a. m.; No. 30 Shoofly, formerly due at 6:05 p. m. changed to 6:55; No. 38 due at 12:35 p. m. does not change. Southbound No. 33 formerly due at 3 o'clock a. m., changed to 2:15 a. m.; No. 29 Shoofly, formerly due at 9:05 changed to 9:15; No. 41 due at 2:57 does not change. Trains leave for Louisburg at 9:25 a. m. and 3:10 and 7 p. m.
—At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Franklinton Graded School last Tuesday afternoon Prof. E. E. Connor, of Youngville, was elected Superintendent to succeed Prof. Samms who goes to Fitzgerald, Ga. Prof. Connor has high endorsements and is said to be a worthy successor Mr. Samms who has conducted the school so successfully the past four years. The other teachers elected were as follows: First grade, Miss Ella Harris; second and third grade Miss Minnie Morris, fourth and fifth Miss Ora Winston, sixth and seventh Miss Lela Beves, eighth and ninth Miss Francis Winston.
—Mr. J. H. Einlator, the popular young conductor on the S. A. L. train to Louisburg and Miss Bain Best, of this place, were happily married last Tuesday morning at the home of the brides parents Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Best at 10 o'clock, in the presence of only a few of their closest friends. The marriage was a secret one and the bride and groom had left for Kittrell, where they took the North bound train No 38 before it was known in town. Rev. Mr. Bailey of the Louisburg M. E. Church officiated. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. W. M. Best. Their friends wish for them a prosperous and happy journey through life together.
—The Township Road Committee met on last Wednesday and elected for another term the same executive committee that has served the past term, consisting of Messers S. C. Vann, B. T. Green, and C. S. Williams. An auditing committee was also elected to take some work off this committee. Those elected on this committee were Messers B. W. Ballard, H. E. Peare, and J. O. Green. It was stated on the streets by one of the regular committee after the meeting that about 20 miles of road had been worked and at a cost of about $750.00 per mile and that the worst of the roads had been worked. He thinks that the remainder of the road to be worked will cost far less per mile than this as those that have been worked are mostly the principal roads and are 30 feet in width while the most of the remainder will only be 20 feet.

Personal
Miss Sue Royster is visiting in Oxford.
S. R. Holmes visited Henderson Sunday.
B. F. Britt left for Portsmouth Thursday.
Jest. E. A. Long, of Oxford, was in town Friday.
A. O. Perry and L. C. Prie spent Tuesday in Henderson.
A. S. Powell visited his sister in Wilson last week.
Mrs. Presly Person left Thursday for a visit to Roxboro.
Sol B. Allen, of Wake Forest, was in town Thursday.
J. E. Whitfield and J. R. Cooke went over to Creedmore yesterday.
Mrs. Ballie Whitfield, of Tarboro, is visiting friends and relatives here.
Mrs. G. F. Norman and son, Scott returned from a visit to Littleton the past week.
Miss Fannie Pritchard, of Portsmouth, Va., visited friends and kindred here the past week.
Rev. W. W. Rose left last Wednesday for Asheville to attend the Southern Methodist Conference.
Mrs. S. C. Vann, Miss Mable Vann, Mrs. R. B. White and Miss Fannie Bell Allen attended the Womens Missionary Conference in Roxboro, the past week.

NOTICE

You don't know the real value of a metal roof until you have been burned out then you see your mistake. Get me to cover your next roof with tin, slate, metal tiles, tin shingles, or any other metal roof. Gut and lock repairing. Repairing old roofs—make them new again. Give me a trial if not satisfied no charges will be made.

E. A. ROGERS, The Tinner
Shop in the Strickland building next to Hill

For MONUMENTS

TOMBSTONES, CURBING and IRON FENCING Write to

Suffolk Marble Works, - Suffolk, Va.
Watch This Ad

BARGAINS IN MATTRESSES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION

I make and repair mattresses any grade or quality Workmanship guaranteed. Prices to suit the people

I Also Rebottom Chairs and Back Them With Cane.

I do upholstering of all kinds. Give me an opportunity to do your work. My shop is at the old colored Odd Fellows Hall, Main Street, Louisburg, N. C.

E. MORRIS, JR.