Drops From Cypress Creek.

This part of Franklin is not heard from often, yet it is still in the ring, although some of the farmers of this section look as if they are about to drop out on account of dry weather.

Master Linwood Perry spent Saturday and Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. Sue P. Alford.

W. H. Creekmore and Miss Sadie Wilder paid Spring Hope a flying visit Sunday.

Sorry to note that Mrs. C. C. Williams is on the sick list this week.

Troy Pierce and Foster Hill were visitors in the Pine Ridge section Saturday and Sunday.

W. D. Alford, who is now assistant postmaster at Spring Hope, was with his people Sunday.

Misses Pearl and Sallie Hollingsworth, accompanied by Miss Lizzie Alford were visitors at Spring Hope Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Annie Culpepper has been visiting her sister, Idolee, who is stopping a few days in Nashville with her aunt on her return from John Hopkins hospital. We are glad to learn she is much improved.

Best wishes to the TIMES and its readers.

THELMA.

Castalia R. F. D. No. 1. Items.

Right many of our young men seem to be very busy trying to lay by their crops so they can sport their new buggies.

Miss Patience Davis is spending this week with her friend, Miss Annie Swanson.

Mrs. Hoggie Stallings, who has been at Rex Hospital the past few weeks, is rapidly improving. Her many friends hope she will return home soon.

Two of the Misses Pittman, of Louisburg, are spending this week with Miss Lillie Leonard.

Miss Maggie Lancaster, of Red Bud, and Mr. Walter Blackwell, of Castalia, were quietly married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. J. Lancaster, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. There were not many present, only the intimate friends of the bride and groom.

On Monday evening, July 18th, Miss Annie Swanson gave, at her home, a party in honor of her guest Miss Patience Davis. Many of her friends were invited and several games were played. The parlor was beautifully decorated with green and white. Many instrumental and vocal selections added much to the evening's enjoyment. About 9:30 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room where dainty refreshments were served. The dining room was decorated with roses and ferns. Those present were Misses Patience Davis, Annie Pearce, Cornelia Griffin, Ziffie Pearce and Annie Swanson, Messrs. Norman Smith, Boddie Upchurch, Fred Leonard, W. P. Leonard and Walter Griffin. About eleven o'clock the guests repaired to their homes wishing Miss Swanson many such occasions.

ALLIGATOR.

In Loving Memory.

We regret to note the death of our beloved aunt Mary Bartholomew, who after a long and tedious illness, passed from among us to join the realms above.

Aunt Mary was seventy years old, had been a member of the church for many years, and was living an upright Christian life. She always did her duty and was willing to lend a helping hand when ever she was called upon. She leaves three sisters and four children to mourn their loss. She was married three times and died a widow.

She was always jolly and wore a pleasant face and carried sunshine with her wherever she went.

Her funeral services was conducted by Rev. John Sledge and her remains were laid to rest in the old Fulgham burying ground near Cedar Rock Church.

Aunt Mary will be greatly missed in her home and community.
