FRIDAY, August 26 1910.

A MAN cannot be a Democrat and run for political office on the Republican ticket.

THE world is full of wonders, the greatest of which we have seen lately is the man who says he is satisfied to follow Butler.

DEMOCRATS from principle are not to be had as catspaws to pull chestnuts out of the fire for republican monkeys.

THE TIMES endorses Mr. Cooley's motion to make the nomination of Ed Pou unanimous—and the people will make his election almost unanimous.

A TRUE Democrat will never leave the party, especially after taking part in conventions and after running for nomination before one of them.

AN independent candidate is usually a republican who is ashamed of his crowd, and endeavors to retain some of the respectability of the party that he has left.

PRESIDENT Taft cannot say that he was not warned of what would happen if he accepted the counsel of those reactionary and standpat statesmen Cannon and Aldrich.

THAT Liberian loan appears to have encountered a kind of American Monroe doctrine invented by the French. Must we shoulder "the white man's burden" in Africa as well as here?

WE understand Butler is sending orders to all the county Republican organizations in the State demanding that fall tickets be put out in each county. Now who says they have no boss?

WHAT the Republicans need is harmony, and they can't get it. What the Democrats need is cash, and they can't get enough to pay office expenses, while the Republicans have trust money to burn.

No thank you, Mr. Butler, we don't need the money of the bond syndicate and we have no votes for sale. We are not in the trading business, and if we were, we'd be afraid to trust you with the goods.

THEY must want office bad when they run as independent candidates.—Greenville Reflector.

Right you are, Bro. Whichard, and especially when they have just finished a campaign for nomination.

AND still another big Republican made a speech in Lenoir the past week in which he also failed to explain to the farmer why the Republicans had placed the extra tax of two cents a pound on tobacco. It looks as if it is a question they don't love to talk about.

THERE is a big scandal brewing in the Coast and Geodetic Survey; the charge being openly made that the coast survey steamer Bache "had been repeatedly converted into a private yacht by some of the officials."

THEY are going to tag lobbyists in Georgia and compel them to register. What a bunch of tags it would take to fit out Indian land and other lobbyists at Washington. But there is no fear of Congress following the lead of Georgia.

IT is now discovered that a large batch of Rubber Trust Stock is in the name of a clerk of John D. Rockefeller. As Senator Aldrich is father-in-law of young Rockefeller this keeps the control of the Trust in the family, and explains why the increase in the tariff in rubber goods was easily secured from the Trust-ridden Republican majority in Congress.

SOME people have queer streaks. Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, objects to "Dixie." "This is a Republican meeting," said he, "we want no such tunes here." Senator Heyburn must be a trifle crazy and will end up at St. Elizabeth Asylum.

SENATOR CRANE, of whom President Taft now seems to learn, voted with Senator Aldrich with a constancy that proves that he belongs to the old reactionary gang. The Insurgents would give greater heed to one that is less of a standpatter.

WITH the Colonel giving out his "keynote" on the 23rd inst, and the President sounding his slogan on September 30th, the air will be charged with politics, and just fancy what the divided Republicans will do if the double keynotes should be out of tune.

THE Chicago grand jury is after the meat packers and has already indicted Thomas G. Lee of Armour & Co., for perjury. The Press report says: "more indictments are expected." That grand jury should have mercy on beef consumers for the nearer they get to those "higher up" the higher the price of meat will be.

FOR a party that so long professed to believe in the principle, the Democrats are displaying an amazing degree of ignorance as to the meaning of local self-government.—Greensboro News.

Oh no, you are mistaken. They are not fooled or showing ignorance. The Democratic party has never given up the right and principles in local self-government, and as State prohibition is the only thing along this line that the party has received the least criticism for, and every man honestly knows the party is not responsible for it, there is nothing left for the Republicans under this part of their platform but to come out openly for whiskey. It is either that or you are getting on the Democratic platform.

EVEN IF GOD DID NOT HATE A QUITTER.

It has been well said "God Almighty hates a quitter." But if this were not true, now is the best time in the world for to quit the Democratic party.

It is the best time in the world: 1st. Not to quit the party of "Honest Joe Davis" for the party of "Jeems I. McCre." 2nd. Not to quit the party of Judge Connor, who Taft said was fit, for the party of Hicks, Timberlake and Skinner, who Taft said were not fit to be Judges.

3rd. Not to quit Kitobin, Glenn and Aycooke, whose names stand for all that is high, for Butler, who is denounced as a TRAITOR and FILIFIRE by the Republican Organ in North Carolina, or for Adams, who Butler says is a villain who ought not to be allowed to run at large.

4th. Not to quit the party that has made such a fight for all the people that in the very home of Republicanism tens of thousands of men are leaving it, and its triumphant shout has changed to a dying wail.

Soldiers of Democracy! In the hours of darkness and defeat you put up a great fight. You kept the sacred faith of the fathers. Now when the day is at hand, when the shouts of victory are heard all along the line DON'T BE A QUITTER.

Mr. Cooley's Mistake. The friends of Mr. R. A. P. Cooley, of Nashville, regretted yesterday to read his card in which he stated that he would be an independent candidate for Congress in the Fourth district. They regretted it on Mr. Cooley's account recognizing that he had taken a step that would do him no good but much harm. Aside from his error in taking a course that can have no effect but to encourage the Radical plotters, Mr. Cooley is in the position of having sought a nomination in the Democratic primary this year for solicitor, receiving a large vote in Wilson, Nash and Franklin.

Mr. Cooley's Mistake.

The friends of Mr. R. A. P. Cooley, of Nashville, regretted yesterday to read his card in which he stated that he would be an independent candidate for Congress in the Fourth district. They regretted it on Mr. Cooley's account recognizing that he had taken a step that would do him no good but much harm. Aside from his error in taking a course that can have no effect but to encourage the Radical plotters, Mr. Cooley is in the position of having sought a nomination in the Democratic primary this year for solicitor, receiving a large vote in Wilson, Nash and Franklin.

support the Democratic nominees this year. More than that, he attended the State convention at Charlotte, and by his action again pledged his support to the nominees of the State Convention. More than that, in the Democratic Congressional convention held in Raleigh on July 6th, Mr. R. A. P. Cooley, of Nash, was a delegate. Mr. Cooley was a member of the committee on Resolutions, which endorsed the work of Mr. Pou in Congress and after Mr. Pou had been placed in nomination in eloquent speeches, Mr. Cooley was recognized by the chairman and The News and Observer of the next day said:

"Mr. R. A. P. Cooley, of Nashville, moved that the nomination of Mr. Pou be made by a rising vote. The motion prevailed and the nomination was so made."

With the above record Mr. Cooley cannot consistently ask the support of any Democrat in the district against Mr. Pou, whose unanimous re-nomination was made by acclamation with a rising vote on the motion of Mr. Cooley. Since that date Mr. Pou has done nothing to warrant Mr. Cooley's opposition.

In his enforced absence from the district the loyal Democrats in every county in the district will redouble their energies in support of their nominee, who has received the honor of being placed on the Ways and Means Committee, the most important committee in Congress—an honor that has come to only one other North Carolina Congressman in fifty years.—News and Observer.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET SUGGESTED FOR WAKE.

Inasmuch as No Decent Democrat Can Be Persuaded to Run on Radical Ticket—The Old Crowd is Ready to Fill the Places.

Certain Republicans have been moving heaven and earth—that is a figure of speech, for they have no connection with heavenly things—since the first of July two endure two or three Democrats to run for office either as Independents to be supported by Radicals or to run on their ticket. None has been found. That breed of Democrats do not thrive in Wake county. Therefore a politician yesterday suggested the following ticket for the consideration of the Republican convention that is shortly to assemble:

- Senator—Claude M. Bernard.
- House—James I. Moore, W. T. Barrow, J. C. L. Harris.
- Sheriff—Ham T. Jones.
- Clerk—Hill E. King.
- Register of Deeds—Alf Powell.
- Commissioners—Everett Banks, Thad Ivey, James H. Young.

"That would be," said the party talking, "a real Republican ticket, truly representative of the party, embracing men of both the Duncan and Morehead factions. And inasmuch as the Republicans are working on the quiet this year to get out the negro vote, that race is given a place on the board of commissioners."
