

RIVERSIDE INDEPENDENT WAREHOUSE

The following took place at this warehouse on its Opening Sale.

Try us With a Load

AN Enormous Break, Big Prices, Big Band of Music and a Big Dinner for Everybody.

Satisfaction Reigned

Riverside INDEPENDENT Warehouse

Schloss Slush.

Mr. Henry P. Speed, our popular carrier, has returned from a ten days vacation which he spent quite pleasantly at Ocean View and other resorts around Norfolk. Mr. Morris Person attended strictly to Uncle Sam's business during Mr. Speed's sojourn by the sea.

Mr. Al. Alston, of Airlie, who spent a few days with friends in this section, returned home last week.

A number of our people attended the protracted meeting at Shady Grove in Warren county last week. The meeting was conducted by the pastor, Rev. B. C. Thompson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Moye, former pastor of that charge. I understand it was one of the best meetings held there in some time, and great good was accomplished, there being a number of converts. The meeting closed last Friday.

Mr. Henry Speed has a very fine field of young corn which may be classed a "brag crop." But he does not claim that it is as good as some he has seen.

Friends of Capt. P. A. Davis will be pleased to know that his health is improving. While Mr. Davis has not been confined to the house, his impaired health has kept him at home more than usual for some months past, and I am glad to note that he is feeling better and looking younger.

Long faces are assuming normal conditions and a more cheerful expression is noticed on account of a brighter prospect for crops than was shown a short time ago. Cotton is growing fast and fruiting well. It is also losing some of the small squares and bolls by shedding.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Strickland and son Wilton, have returned from a visit to relatives in Nash and Johnston counties.

Mr. Wilton Strickland has a new bicycle which he enjoys riding around "Schlossburg," and giving pleasure to the small children as he takes them out for a ride every morning and evening.

Mr. John D. Alston, of Warren county, who is not a frequent visitor up here greeted his Schloss friends last week.

Messrs. Julian Alston and June Egerton left Saturday for Panacea Springs, where they expect to enjoy the hygienic influences of that famous water and radiant smiles of the pretty girls for a whole week.

Mrs. Mattie Williams spent a short time visiting Mrs. Pattie Alston last week.

Miss Lula Massenburg, of Louisburg, is visiting Miss Annie Belle Alston.

Miss Mattie Belle Alston has returned from a brief visit with Misses Jennie and Ring Alston at Inez.

Schloss folks were treated to a vocal serenade by the young ladies and gents, guests of Miss Mary Alston, on Friday evening last. We regret that they did not remain longer to enliven us with their sweet music, fearing that they might disturb some of our sound sleepers they retired at an early hour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Williams made a business visit to Hendersop Tuesday.

Mr. Hugh Hayes was a Schloss visitor a short while last week, guest of Mr. Julian Alston.

Mr. J. J. Murray has the best crop of tobacco I have noticed around here. He was making cures last week.

Last week was quite lively in social circles with many of our young friends. The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Alston was open to the pleasure of a happy party of young people, guests of their popular daughter, Miss Mary Alston and her brother, Mr. Julian Alston. Those present were, Misses Ernestine and Susie Hayes, Estelle Davis and Hodgie Williams; Messrs. Arch Alston, Morton Alston, Henry Davis and June Egerton. A number of visitors from the neighborhood added to the pleasure of the "house party" during the week, and the occasion was a most pleasant one—not only to the guests but to the charming young hostess whose chief delight consists in contributing to the pleasure of others.

Several of our young folks, accompanied by some of the visitors, attended the Sunday school picnic at Epsom last Friday. They report a very large crowd and a most enjoyable time. Among those who went from here were, Morton Alston and Miss Myrtle Alston, Julian A. Alston and Miss Ernestine Hayes, June Egerton and Miss Mary Alston.

J. W. Taylor, of Dukes, Nash county, came up Saturday, paying a short visit to his uncle, Mr. F. H. Strickland.

Edgar Frederick and Sydman Williams, of Warren, spent Sunday with Edward Alston.

It is very encouraging to note the rapid growth of all kinds of crops in this part of the county. Present indications point to a fairly good yield especially cotton, with the exception of the crop on old or sandy land.

Schloss is coming. Our girls are wearing big hats and our boys are wearing sachet powders in their "jeans."

X.

LAST GRAND EXCURSION

OF THE SEASON

To Asheville, N. C.

"THE LAND OF THE SKY"

via

SOUTHERN RAILWAY

September 6th, 1910

Rates and Schedules as Follows

LEAVE	Goldboro	6.45 a. m.	$5 00
"	Selma	7.33 a. m.	5 00
"	Raleigh	8.35 a. m.	7 75
"	Durham	9.50 a. m.	4 75
"	Melbane	10.48 a. m.	4 75
"	Burlington	11.18 a. m.	4 75
"	Gibsonville	11.37 a. m.	4 75
"	Greensboro	15.30 p. m.	4 50
"	Oxford		5 00
"	Henderson		5 00
"	Chapel Hill		4 75

Rates from intermediate points in same proportion. Tickets good returning on any regular train leaving Asheville September 9th. For further information ask your agent or write.

W. H. PARNELL, T. P. A.
Raleigh, N. C.

Candler-Crowell Co.

Are at home to their friends and patrons. They report a very successful trip to the Northern Markets and are ready to show you a complete line of Dry Goods, Notions and Shoes. Miss Clara Aycocke, our Milliner, is still in the Northern Market in order that she might become thoroughly acquainted with the fall fashions. Millinery opening will be announced later.

COME TO SEE US

Yours to Serve

Candler-Crowell Company
Louisburg, N. C.

THE P. A. REAVIS COMPANY

WHOLESALE GROCERS

LOUISBURG, N. C.

Fruit Jars, Jar Rubbers, Tobacco Twine, Lanterns and Seed Rye

Everything the Retail Merchants Needs. Let us Figure With You on Delivered Prices, We Save the Freight.