

Public Speaking!

With Music, Eloquence and old time Enthusiasm the Campaign of the Democratic Candidates of Franklin County opened at Poplar Springs on Wednesday, October 26th and will continue daily throughout the county, as indicated by the following list of appointments, until and including Saturday, November 5th

When a great demonstration will be held at Louisburg. In connection with the arrangements for the county campaign it has been the aim of the executive committee to secure for every meeting, in addition to the regular no nires of the party, a speaker of state-wide reputation to enliven the occasion by the discussion and presentation in a broad and able manner of state and National issues and policies from a Democratic Jeffersonian standpoint. Accordingly the following program has been arranged and will be followed, being selected because it best consults the convenience and wishes of all the people of the county. As can be seen from the list entertaining speakers have been arranged for each meeting, so that all can look forward to a regular Carnival of music and eloquence such eloquence as proceeds from the enunciation of time tried Democratic doctrines, the truth of which were never before in such bold relief as they are at the present moment.

Important Information Concerning the College.

We have reached a crisis in our work of raising money for the Mat thew S. Davis Memorial Building. At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last year the town of Louisburg together with the Alumnae Association promised to raise $5000.00 toward the new building; only about $4000.00 of this amount has been pledged to date. This amount together with what I have pledged from out side of town, if paid in in cash would justify us in beginning the brick work at once. Men outside of town when asked to pay their subscriptions want to know if the town people have paid theirs and want to know if we have begun laying brick. When I tell them that these pledges have not been paid, they put me off "saying when you begin you can call on me." People in town say wait till you get ready to go to work and we will pay ours, so one is waiting on the other. The committee will not begin the structure until there is money in hand sufficient to put the building in such shape that it will not damage. The town of Louisburg, must lead in this matter. The Board of Trustees will meet on November 10th to consider plans for the future and make recommendations to the annual conference board of Education. This Board last year appropriated $1000.00 for the improvement of the old building, which will not be available until about December, 15. The old building has been repaired. This has been made possible because the executive committee borrowed the money necessary for this work which could only be done when the building was empty, and the bank holds our personal note to cover a part of the amount spent. The agent will call on every subscriber in the town next week for payment of their pledges. And it is sincerely hoped that every one will respond with the cash. Much will depend on the action of the town people as to what action the Board will take. A crisis is upon us; what shall we do with it. Some few have paid their notes promptly as they have fallen due, for which we thank them. Let everyone remember that the agent will have his hands full to see each subscriber once, so don't put him off when he calls, for it is impossible to see every one at the last minute. Other towns are bidding for the conference support of a college and if the people of Louisburg do not care for this help there is danger of its going elsewhere. As a financial enterprise it brings more money to our midst than any other enterprise we have and takes only knowledge away in return. We can not afford to lose it. The conference has shown its faith by sending a man to you to look after this work and give you the opportunity of demonstrating your faith in the enterprise. What will you do about it? As for myself I have labored incessantly since I took charge and have traveled thousands of miles, made speeches, distributed literature solicited subscriptions, taken collections and comparatively speaking have received more encouragement outside the town than I have here at home.

How to Get On in the World.

Most of our successful men began life without a dollar. They have won success by hard work and strict honesty. You can do the same. Here are rules for getting on in the world:

1. Be honest. Dishonesty seldom makes one rich, and when it does, riches are a curse. There is no such thing as dishonest success.
2. Work. The world is not going to pay for nothing. Ninety per cents of what men call genius is only a talent for hard work.
3. Enter into that business or trade you like best, and for which nature seems to have fitted you, providing it is honorable.
4. Be independent. Do not lean on others to do your thinking or to conquer difficulties.
5. Be conscientious in the discharge of every duty. Do your work thoroughly. No one can rise who shirks his work.
6. Don't try to begin on top. Begin at the bottom and you will be surer of reaching the top, some time.
7. Trust to nothing but God and hard work. Inscribe on your banner: "Luck is a fool; pluck is a hero."

BIG ANNUAL

MORTGAGE SALE

Home Coming Day in Louisburg, N. C.

Tuesday, November 22nd, 1910

For horses, mules, wagons, buggies, surries, harness, cows, oxens, hogs, household and kitchen furniture, public auction. This will be a big sale $10,000 worth of personal property at the high dollar for cash, if I do not finish on the 22nd will continue sale from day to day until all stock is sold, and I have the cash.

SAY BOYS

A bob-tail dog can't walk a log, because he has lost his balance, a bob-tail farmer can't farm next year if he owes me and don't pay, because he will have lost his power at the sale. Auction sales used to be called Vandues but hereafter I am going to call them squeeze and pull, because paying for buggies and harness in the fall seems as painful to some as squeezing a boil, and as to pulling, I have always heard the old folks say you pull a watermelon when the curl dies, and I figure a little pass due chattel mortgages is like a ripe watermelon, needs pulling, and I find the curl dead on a great many little notes I hold, and said notes are secured by cows, hogs, horses, mules, buggies, etc. I am going to pull all the above property and sell same November 22. Sale commences at 10:40 and continues all day rain or shine. Come and tell your cousin and your old uncle who wears home made underclothes, made out of flour sacks, smokes his pipe, and has his wife to cut his hair, he has the goods I want and if he will come he will double his dough

K. P. HILL

Some hound dogs, 2 guns, an organ. Come soon.
