CRUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

A Happy New Year to every reader of this department.

How often we smile as we look back over our fears and find they were phantoms.

What is your worst fault? What is mine? Are you going to reform with the new year.

To make your New Year a happy one be sure and make some one else have a happy New Year.

Regrets for the past will not strengthen your will for the duties of the future. "Forgetting the past, press on," is the better way.

Good society is that which is not personal in its talk, but which finds sufficient topic of interest to discuss without dilating on the sins of neighbors.

Do not be too confidential, no one ever gave her family affairs into another's keeping without living to regret it. There are plenty of other things to talk about. Be as friendly and sociable as you like, but talk on matters that do not touch either of you too nearly.

Ring out blithe bells of the New Year. Ring loudly and lustily, that every heart may be filled with joy and gladness; that the sweet, mellow resounding echoes gradually dying out in the distance, may bring a sweet content to all, quieting fear for the future, and making each hearer fully resolve to faithfully keep the good resolutions made when first thy joyful and sweet sound burst upon thy hearer's ear

Yes, a year has brought many changes in many homes, and many of them sad ones, too. There are hearts with a loneliness in them that is inexpressible. The cherished one of their hearts best affection, their very life and light, their joy supreme is no longer here to cheer by their presence, to encourage with kindly voice or soothe with the tender touch of the hand. Alone and in silence we may the cheerful face and pleasant smile.

A good resolution for the hard worked housewife to make for the New Year is that she will find time each day for a nap, or rest at least of fifteen minutes; that she will take every other evening at least for reading or playing games with her children, and at least one afternoon in the week for a social visit, a ride, a walk. These would not be impossible for the busiest woman, who will look carefully into her methods and see if there are not superfluities she can cut off, trimmed underclothing that can be made plain, and save sewing and ironing; cakes and pies and preserves, for which plain- er wholesomer food can be substituted.

New Year greetings are greetings of good will. How they soften hard hearts, purify base desires, sweeten bitter thoughts, and make every deed purer and holier; every wish kinder and tenderer. Let hearts expand, sympathies enlarge, and good will reign. Let benediction drop from lips, and substantial gifts fall from overflowing hands. Make cheerless homes radiant, and hopeless hearts to thrill with unspeakable gladness. Forgive your enemies. Bury the past. Rise above the mean and petty resentments which you may have harbored against those who have not used you well. Be generous. Get ready to start the new year with kindly feelings and more noble ambitions. Make the New Year of 1911 a day to which you can always look back with pleasure and gratitude. Peace, good will unto you, dear reader and a "Happy, Happy New Year to you all."

Christmas, the religious holiday of the whole world, will soon come and the bells will soon ring in the new year, 1911, and the holidays, with all their gaiety and gladness—and gloom and loneliness and sadness as well—will be but a memory.

We can look back to them but cannot live those days over again. They are gone with the things that are gone, and when we remember how poorly we spent them, how we reproach ourselves. Hearts may be aching today because of our uncharitableness—they may go on through the years, and try as we may we cannot drive the pain away. Souls are around us on the verge of despair and yet we took not a step to hold them back. Mortals were tempted and tried, almost beyond endurance, and we spoke no words of encouragement or sympathy. The friendliness and the poor and the sick and the solitary we have neglected and passed by. Oh! how cold and selfish and uncharitable we, nearly all of us, have been! And thus the New Year comes to us freighted with memories. For the good that we have done there is so much of genuine satisfaction, and for our uncharitableness so much of regret, that it ought to be lesson enough without this sermonette of mine.

She Broke down Entirely.
Lantz, W. Va.—Mrs. Tebe Talbott, of this place, says, "I had been troubled with womanly ailments for some time, and at last I broke down entirely. I got so weak I could scarcely walk across the room. Thanks to Cardui, I improved right off. Now I do my housework, and am feeling well." During the past 50 years, more than a million women have been benefited by taking Cardui. You must believe Cardui will help you, too, since it helped all these others. Cardui is a safe, harmless, vegetable remedy, of positive, curative merit, for women. At drug stores. Try one bottle. It will surely help you.

THERE'S NO RISK.
If This Medicine Does Not Benefit You Pay Nothing.

A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made. Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders. Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain them only at—The Rexall Store.

SAVE THE MIDDLE MANS PROFIT

If you will see me or let me see you before you get your fall mattress I can save you money. Men are generally in business for what there is in it. If that is true I can save you money. Those whose keeping house want to save all the money possible, so see me. I make mattresses of the best feather proof ticking with a plenty of nice clean cotton and husk. You can have any grade or of felt or hair mattress you wish and you can see and know what you get.
