NOTICE OF ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that in accordance with the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, Public Laws of 1911, entitled "An Act to provide for the issuing of bonds by the Town of Louisburg," adopted at the session of 1911, the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Louisburg do hereby order an election to be held on Tuesday, the second day of May, 1911, at which election there shall be submitted to the voters of the Town of Louisburg the question of the levy of a special tax not exceeding ten cents on the $100.00 worth of property and thirty cents on the poll, and the issuance of bonds not exceeding $15,000.00, as set out and provided in said Act of 1911, a copy of which is on file with the Clerk of the Board. The proceeds of said bonds go to the discharge of the floating indebtedness of the town.

The same registrar and pollholders appointed to hold the regular biennial election of officers, namely R. O. Bisset, Registrar, and E. F. Yarborough and A. F. Johnson, pollholders will hold said election.

The voting place shall be in the Town of Louisburg at the place selected for the election of town officers upon that date, and the same shall be held and conducted as is provided in the aforesaid Act of 1911. No new registration is required but all qualified voters of the Town of Louisburg are entitled to vote in said election. Those voting for the issue of said bonds shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words, "For Bonds," and those voting against the same shall have written or printed thereon the words, "Against Bonds."

The registration books will be kept open in the office of the Town Clerk at Hill's Stables on Nash street for the time required by law, and those who have become qualified to vote in said town since the last election or who were qualified at that time but did not register are notified to register for said election.

By order of the Commissioners of the Town of Louisburg, this April 6th, 1911.

J. R. COLLIE, Mayor.

R. O. BISSETT, Clerk.

Lesson VI.—Second Quarter, For
May 7, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Chron. xxvi, 8-21. Memory Verses, 19, 20—Golden Text, Prov. xvi, 18—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

As we consider the lives of these kings of Judah we must remember that the throne at Jerusalem is called the throne of the Lord, and those who reigned there were kings for the Lord their God (I Chron. xxix, 23; II Chron. ix, 8). There were eight kings of whom it is written that they "did right in the sight of the Lord," and this Uzziah, or Azariah, was one of the eight (verse 4; II Kings xv, 1-3). But they only did right in some measure, some more, some less, and all failed in many things. The time is still future when the twelve tribes shall be one kingdom and a king sitting on the throne of David at Jerusalem who shall reign in righteousness, bringing peace, quietness and assurance to all His people and to all the world (Ezek. xxxvii, 21, 22; Isa. xxxli, 1, 17).

But it shall be, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. "They shall call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord, and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem" (Jer. lli, 17). At that day it shall be said "The King of Israel, even Jehovah, is in the midst of thee; thou shalt not see evil any more" (Zeph. iii, 15). "And Jehovah shall be king over all the earth" (Zech. xiv, 9). In those days the kingdom and nation that would not serve Israel shall perish and be utterly wasted (Isa. ix, 12). Although Uzziah reigned fifty-two years, his whole story is found in this lesson chapter and in the first seven verses of II Kings xv. In his days Isaiah and Amos were the prophets, the Lord's messengers (Isa. i, 1; Amos i, 1), full of rebuke for sin, but also of prediction of a glorious future for Israel when she shall receive her Messiah. Every good king should turn our thoughts to the Son of God, the King of Israel (John i, 49), and their failures set Him forth more brightly as the one who will never fail nor be discouraged.

Uzziah seems to have been greatly helped by a prophet named Zechariah, who had visions of God (verse 5)—not the one who wrote "the book bearing his name, for he lived after the captivity, nor the one of II Chron. xxiv, 20, 21, who was stoned to death for his faithfulness. It is a great thing to see God, and this we can do in Jesus Christ, who said "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father" (John xiv, 9). We can by the Spirit behold the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ (II Cor. iv, 4, 6), and thus we shall be enabled to help others to see Him, too, and know Him. While this prophet helped him he sought the Lord, and God made him to prosper (verse 5).

He seems to have been prospered through most of his reign. God helped him against his enemies, other nations brought gifts to him, and his name spread abroad (verses 7, 8). Thus God honors those who honor Him. It was so during part of the reign of Solomon when the queen of Sheba and all kings of the earth sought him and brought him gifts (II Chron. ix, 8, 9; 22-24). So it shall be in an unprecedented degree when Jesus Christ shall be King in Jerusalem. Then shall all nations, like the wise men from the east, bring their treasures unto Him (Isa. li, 9-11).

Uzziah was so greatly blessed that he became self sufficient, strong in himself instead of in the Lord, and then he fell. He presumed to take upon him the office of a priest and to burn incense in the house of God, and the Lord smote him with leprosy, and he became a leper unto the day of his death and had to live in a separate house. The only King of Israel who will be a priest upon his throne will be the man whose name is the Branch (Zech. vi, 12, 13). He will be a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek, who was both priest and king (Gen. xiv, 18; Ps. cx, 4; Heb. vii, 1, 17).

If we are redeemed we are kings and priests unto God and shall reign with Christ when He reigns (Rev. i, 6; v, 9, 10). Back of this sin of Uzziah it is not difficult to see the great adversary who said "I will be like the Most High" and who said to Eve, "Ye shall be as gods" (Isa. xlv, 14; Gen. iii, 5). Humility, not pride, is the characteristic of a true child of God, realizing that we are not sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God (II Cor. iii, 5). The only way for us to be "strong in the Lord and in the power of His might," having no confidence in ourselves, for in us—that is, in our flesh—dwelleth no good thing (Eph. vi, 10; Phil. iii, 3; Rom. vii, 18). We have a great High Priest who is touched with a feeling of our infirmities and who is able to save to the uttermost all of those who come unto God by Him.

Let us rejoice in Him and serve Him with all humility, remembering to do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with our God. All self righteousness, self sufficiency, pride and ambition to be somebody or something apart from Jesus Christ we must shun as we would the devil himself.

It is written of Uzziah that "as long as he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper" (verse 5). This is in accord with Josh. i, 7, 8; Ps. i, 1-3. True seeking is always according to Jer. xxix, 11, and the exhortations therein are very plain in Isa. lv, 6; Zeph. ii, 3. Consider Hezekiah in II Chron. xxxi, 20, 21, and also see Ezra vii, 10

Chandler, N. C.—Mrs. Augusta L. Max, of this place, writes: I had smothering spells every day, so bad that I expected death at any time. I could not sit up in bed. I suffered from womanly troubles. My nerves were unstrung. I had almost given up all hope of ever being better. I tried Cardui, and it did me more good than anything I had ever taken. I am better now than I ever expected to be." Thousands of ladies have written similar letters, telling of the merits of Cardui. I relieved their headache, and misery, just as it will relieve yours, if you will let it. Try.
