To Tax Listers.

The attention of those tax listers of Louisburg township and other townships, who have not listed their taxes is called to the advertisement in another column of G. W. Brown and J. R. Perry. You will notice that the time for listing is growing very short and it will be to your advantage to attend to the same at once.

Do You Get Your Paper?

We have had several complaints from subscribers not getting their paper on time and some not at all. This is a condition that the postmasters and carriers should attend to and see that these papers are delivered on time. In many cases we are positively sure we mailed the papers and our subscribers say they never received them. And in any case we never mail later than Friday evening and most all our subscribers should receive their paper on Saturday and in only a few cases later than Monday. However, if you do not get it let us know and we will send you another.

Death of Mrs. Dr. H. H. Harris.

Mrs. Dr. H. H. Harris died suddenly on Tuesday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. M. Person, on North Main street, in her sixty-seventh year. She was formerly Miss Martha L. Person, daughter of the late Mr. Tom A. Person, of this county and is a sister to Messrs. J. J. Person, S. J. Person, Mrs. W. M. Person and Mrs. W. P. Montgomery, all of Franklin county. She was married to Dr. Mal H. Harris, of Wake Forest on the 6th of October, 1891. She was preceded to the grave by her husband on December 6th, 1908, since which time she has been living with her sister, Mr. W. M. Person in Louisburg. On Tuesday afternoon she went to her room as usual to take an afternoon nap and after having been asleep for sometime her sister, Mrs. Person, went in to call her and fearing she was dead, she immediately summoned Messrs. W. M. Person and A. W. Person who upon investigation found that from all appearances Mrs. Harris was dead, which was confirmed by the examination of Dr. R. F. Yarborough, who had arrived by that time.

Her death was a peaceful one—as going to sleep, there being no evidences of struggle, which was characteristic of the faithful Christian life she so earnestly lived. Mrs. Harris had many friends and relatives in Louisburg and surrounding country who received the news with much regret as she was a woman whose disposition and manners caused her to be admired and loved by all who came in contact with her. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. R. W. Bailey and L. W. Swope from the home of Mrs. W. M. Person on Wednesday afternoon and the interment was made at the cemetery here amid a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives. The procession was large and the floral tribute profuse and beautiful. The pall bearers were Drs. R. F. Yarborough, J. O. Newell, A. H. Fleming, Messrs. F. B. McKinne, L. P. Hicks, T. B. Wilder.

The family has the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Bernhardt-Crenshaw.

One of the prettiest and most impressive marriage ceremonies that has taken place here in many years was solemnized at St. Paul's Episcopal church on Wednesday night when Miss Helen Shaw Crenshaw became the bride of Mr. Robert Lynn Bernhardt, of Salisbury. The doors of this pretty little church, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion were thrown open at 8:30 o'clock and the many friends of the contracting parties began to enter in large numbers. The church was soon filled to overflowing and at nine o'clock the bridal party entered in a pretty and most impressive manner. The ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. J. B. Cheshire, who was assisted by Rev. John London, the former rector of this church. It was indeed a pretty service and the beautiful ring ceremony was used. Music was furnished throughout by Levin's string band, of Raleigh, assisted by Miss Sallie Williams, who presided at the organ.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the beautiful home of the bride's mother, when an elegant formal reception was given.

The numerous beautiful and costly presents gave evidence of the extreme popularity of this young couple.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Katie Crenshaw and is the grand daughter of the late Judge Joseph J. Davis. She is a young lady with many accomplishments and possesses such qualities as has made for her friends among all her acquaintances.

The groom is a successful young business man of Salisbury, N. C. and by his strict application and business ability has made a host of friends.

After the reception a dance was given the bridal party at the Opera House where a most enjoyable evening was had by the many young people who were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhardt left by automobile for Franklinton after the dance where they boarded the north bound train for a trip to points in Canada.

One of the prettiest dances had here in some time was given at the opera house on Tuesday night in honor of the bride-to-be. There was about twenty-five couples dancing and the different figures were very pretty and interesting. The dance was gracefully led by Mr. W. C. Cooke, of Spartanburg, S. C., assisted by Miss Beard, of Washington City. Music was furnished by Levin's Orchestra, of Raleigh, a large number of invited guests were present to witness the dance.

[Owing to the absence of some important facts in connection with the marriage the descriptive article, which is being prepared by a friend of the bride, was not completed in time for this week's issue, but will be published next week.]

Fulghum-Ridout.

On June the third at ten o'clock, there was solemnized a quiet but most beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony, at the palatial home, among the oaks, of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ridout of Warren county, when Mr. James Barlin Fulghum, of Franklin county met at Hymen's Altar, Miss Martha Virginia, more familiarly known as Misses Jennie Ridout.

At the appointed hour while Mrs. R.

R. Rodwell, a special friend of the bride, most charmingly played Mendel-shon's wedding march, the bridal party entered the parlor, which deft fingers had made a veritable thing of beauty, being decorated with ferns and roses. As the nuptials met at the altar the bride was given away by Mrs. J. L. Johnston, of Littleton, sister of the bride, while Mr. E. S. Fulghum, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The music ceased, and Rev. B. C. Thompson, of Warrenton, the brides Pastor, most impressively performed the marriage ceremony.

Again, Mrs. Rodwell presiding, the piano pealed forth the notes of Lohengren's Wedding March, while Mr. and Mrs. Fulghum received many hearty congratulations and best wishes.

The bride was most handsomely attired in blue satin trimmed with netting and breadings and wore white gloves. Mrs. Johnston, dame of honor wore white embroidery. The groom wore a neat suit of blue serge and his best man a suit of black.

The groom was accompanied to the bride's home by Miss Madeline Kearney, who so kindly consulted to go in Miss Nellie Sledge's stead, she being prevented from going on account of sickness and by Mr. E. S. Fulghum with Miss Irene Sledge, at the bride's home on the night of June 2nd, the bridal party and special friends were given a reception, merriment, music on piano by Mrs. Johnston and Misses Sledge and Ridout and refreshments were enjoyed to the fullest.

Immediately after the marriage on June 3rd, the bridal party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Fulghum, Mr. E. S. Fulghum with Miss Emma Ridout, Mr. T. Palmer Ridout with Miss Madeline Kearney, Mr. Willie P. Ridout with Miss Irene Sledge, repaired to the home of the groom, where a real wedding feast was enjoyed by them and invited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulghum were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents consisting of rugs center pieces cut glass and other useful articles which attests the popularity of these young people.

Mrs. Fulghum is a most excellent young woman, beautifully accomplished noble and cultured. She is a member of Providence M. E. church and will be greatly missed in her neighborhood and gladly welcomed to Cedar Rock.

Mr. Fulghum is one of Franklin's most useful citizens. He is sober, honest, truthful, and holds positions of honor and trust. He is a christian gentleman and stands for all that is right and best. Best wishes to them for a long, happy, useful life.

Receivership.

The Tar River Manufacturing Co. in a decision Monday was placed in the hands of a receiver temporarily; until the case could be heard by Judge C. M. Cooke, at Chambers, on June 15th.

The Correct Location.

In connection with the article we published of Mr. Jno. Mitchiner last week in regard to the location of the pole upon which the first Confederate flag was raised, we publish the following letter from Mr. J. J. Allen:

As there seems to be some misunderstanding and uncertainty as to the spot on which the first Confederate flag was raised in North Carolina, I, as one who knows whereof he speaks, take the liberty of informing the public that the pole, on which it was raised, was made of two poplar saplings cut on my father's land by Bill Allen, colored, and Henry Lucas an old issue free negro then in the employ of Orren R. Smith. These two poplars were hauled to Louisburg and thence to the mill where old Dick Duce, the fiddler, had set himself up as a blacksmith to run the shop for said O. R. Smith who then owned the mill and at this shop the two poplars were spliced together with iron bands, thus making a pole over a hundred feet in length.

Now as to the exact spot, I can confidently and knowingly declare that it was erected on Main Street near William G. Collins' corner now known as L. P. Hicks' corner.

Now as my recollection as to this matter is perfectly clear, I have given a correct history of the first Confederate flag pole.

Cedar Rock for Special Tax.

Cedar Rock Academy school district in Cedar Rock township swung herself into the column of up-to-date progressive communities on Tuesday of this week when the good citizens voted a special school tax by a vote of 45 for to 28 against. This was a surprise however as our people know the make up of it is progressive township too well and we would not be surprised to learn that they had carried a bond issue election for good roads at any time. This is a splendid showing gentlemen and you have the congratulations of your sister township that have gone on before you in this matter and with the hope that you may soon follow with the good roads election.

Dedication Services.

Sunday, June the fourth was a happy day to the members of White Level Church and its pastor, Rev. J. W. Sledge. Only a few years ago they began holding services in the academy, and so faithfully have they labored, sacrificed and struggled on, that now they have a splendid church building, all completed, paid for and dedicated to God.

The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. L. W. Swope, pastor of Louisburg church. Mr. Swope took for his subject "Church Growth" and his message being logical, strong, forceful and beautiful, will linger long in the minds and hearts of his hearers, who numbered, perhaps, six or eight hundred. At the conclusion of his sermon, Rev. G. M. Duke prayed most appropriately, offering to God White Level church as one of His beacon lights.

Board of Health Met.

The Board of Health of Franklin county met in Louisburg on Tuesday morning, with all members present. After attending to the regular routine of business the matter of the new quarantine law was taken up and discussed at length, after which it was decided to require all persons who have small pox or who have been exposed thereto to remain at home until they are sufficiently recovered to go about without scattering the disease and the Superintendent of Health was instructed accordingly. This question occupied the most of the time of the meeting after which the Board adjourned until called.

Six Things to do for the Comfort of the Baby.

1. Remember that a mother should know, not guess.
2. The milk for the baby should have your first care. Just one feeding of impure milk may be sufficient to bring on an attack of diarrhea or other grave symptoms.
3. When babies are teething rub their gums with cold water. It will often prove a great relief.
4. Begin early teaching the baby regular habits. Two or three months old is not too young—a certain time for the bath, after the bath, the food, then a nap.
5. Arrange a separate bed for the baby. It should be placed, when in use, in a spot protected from excessive light and strong drafts.
6. Keep in mind that it is not enough to love our babies. We must love understandingly.—Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer.

Ten Things to Do in Typhoid Fever.

1. In all cases of typhoid, however mild, the patient should remain in bed. The course of the disease may be greatly shortened by keeping the patient in a prostrate position.
2. The vessels used in the sick room should be thoroughly scalded after use.
3. All food utensils should be washed and scalded separately before placing with dishes used by the family.
4. Bed linens, towels, wearing apparel, should be plunged into boiling water or water containing a strong solution of carbolic acid before they are washed.
5. Chloride of lime, which can be bought by dozen cans, or bichloride of mercury, are safe disinfectants for vessels used in the sick room.
6. The caretaker should cleanse her hands with a disinfectant (carbolic acid, creolin, bichloride of mercury), before taking food.
7. Treat all excreta from patient with disinfectant of sufficient strength that all typhoid germs may be killed before removing from the sick room.
8. Bury all excreta from typhoid patient.
9. Keep all flies from the sick room.
10. Write to your State Board of Health for literature upon the care and treatment of typhoid fever.—Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer.

Pointed Paragraphs.

The best thing out—a conflagration. It's a shame the way some people forget to remember. Hard cash is so called because it is hard to get along without it. A woman will gladly compromise if her husband is willing to make all the concessions. Some men don't seem to realize the difference between the simple life and the silly life. A wise girl is indisposed when a young man calls unexpectedly after she has been eating onions. In the course of time a woman may forget why she hates a man, but she will continue to hate him just the same.
