

"CURED MOTHER OF ULCERATIONS"

Rev. B. C. Thompson, of Ablesie, N. C., writes: "My mother was a great sufferer from a ulcerated trouble peculiar to women. She took Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash, and found it invaluable. It cured her, and she heartily recommends it to those suffering from cancerous or lupine blood affections."

Ulcers and Old Sores are the result of bad blood, and can never be cured until the blood is thoroughly purified, and all poisons driven from the system. External applications alone never do it. You must get right down to the seat of the trouble and eradicate the disease from the blood. For this purpose there is nothing so good as

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY. It is the best Tonic, Alterative, Blood Purifier and Nervine ever offered. It has the signed testimony of hundreds of living witnesses to prove it. These witnesses testify to the marvelous curative powers of this great remedy in cases of Eczema, Scrofula, Old Sores, and all troubles resulting from Impure, Involuntarily and Poisoned Blood.

Many of these cures seem almost miraculous—patients given up by doctors and relatives brought back to the full bloom of health as if by magic—literally snatched from the grave. But these witnesses are so reliable, and speak in words of such convincing truthfulness that those who read can doubt. We will be glad to send this written testimony to all who desire to know what Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash have done for others.

We want to help our afflicted brothers and sisters who are now hopelessly enduring the agonizing tortures of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach Trouble, Nervousness, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Female Troubles and Blood Poison. We don't care how long standing your trouble—Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy will cure you, because it sends pure, rich blood through your veins, puts sound, healthy flesh on your bones, and gives you strength to drive out disease.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy is a strictly vegetable compound, absolutely harmless. It contains no dangerous minerals, and can be safely given to the smallest infant. Whenever the trouble is external, it is necessary to use the Wash with the Remedy.

For sale by druggists, or supplied direct on receipt of price: $1.00 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5.00; 1 dozen by express prepaid, for $10.00, by

CRUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

There is no fault so hard to overcome as the hasty temple. We may make any number of good resolutions, and then the first time we have any provocation away we go without an instant's warning and before we realize what we are doing the unkind words have been spoken, and no matter how much regret we feel they cannot be unsaid.

Children are very observant and even the tiny little ones notice the difference between the smile and the frown on the parent's face. Year by year, as children grow older, and the souls, minds and hearts begin to expand under the influence of the environments, sensitive children usually cultivate unconsciously the mother's disposition. The child will be sad and melancholy if the mother sighs and complains. If the child is independent and self-reliant often under such circumstances it will become stubborn and defiant. When the child leaves the childhood behind and becomes a young man of woman then the evil effects of the sad mother becomes still more apparent.

It is in the home that woman rises to her truest heights and wields her widest influence. Every home is a miniature world and the wife is a crowned queen. The wife who makes society the field of her accomplishments soon finds her husband a devoted club man. The woman who fills her head with many of the ideas and pleasures of much that is called society, soon wants to entertain her husband any evening she may not have some other engagement with cards. She plays just as she did to win some prize at progressive euchre or whist parties. She cheats a little, and they have a little spat over it, and then another and another, and presently she fires something at his head, but misses it and his motto over the door, "God Bless Our Home." Their little boy say: "Ma, you missed pa's head, but you gave the motto hail Columbia." Often the only question to be decided in that home is, who shall have the boy? God pity the woman who has set her heart on much that is in modern society.

There are a thousand pretty, engaging little ways, which every person may put on without running the risk of being deemed affected or foppish. The sweet smiles, the cordial bow, the earnest movement in addressing a friend, the inquiring glance, the graceful attention which is so captivating when united with self-possession—these will insure us the good regards of even a churl. Above all, there is a certain softness of manner which should be cultivated, and which, in either man or woman, adds a charm that almost entirely compensates for lack of beauty, and inestimably enhances the latter where it does not exist.

Time was when woman was described as the helpmeet of man. Was it only a phrase, and meaningless? Possibly; but then, words on the Bible mostly did mean something. The time, too, was and yet is in some quarters of the world, when a woman was a helpmeet and accepted and worked up to her position as such. She did not demand everything and do nothing. Why is marriage easy and universal in such a country as Japan? Life there is simple; two or three small rooms, a few dishes, a mat upon which to sleep, one dress, a little rice and some fruit—these suffice for all, rich and poor alike, in a great city like Yeddo, which has a civilization as perfect and as old as ours. And it is not a life of stupidity of barbarism; all can read and write; manners are good; books and pictures are plenty; theaters abound; processions and festival days enliven life. It is easy to see, therefore, why marriage is not a fearful thing in that far-off land; and by contrast it is easy to understand why we have the courage to dare it here.

Let our homes be places of love, joy and brightest sunshine, places of enduring love that outlasts the wedding day, and which produces a life of one long unbroken honeymoon, the moulding place of character, a place where the child breathes an atmosphere perfumed by the choicest flowers of heaven, where it finds the greatest earthly security in mother's loving, toasting care.

There is only villainous abominations in the doctrine that leads a creature, called by courtesy a man, to announce that a transfer of his affections warrants a breach of loyalty and desertions of one who has become his wife and the mother of his children. No guise of prophecy can cover so vile a principle; no charm of poetry gild so hateful a treason, and the breath of perdition is on the lips all such as advocate anything else than loyalty to wifehood and manhood.

There are a few things more tantalizing to a man than to go home with something on his mind he wants to scold about, and find company there, and be obliged to act agreeably.

There is nothing more convenient for the lonely dwellers of the rural districts as well as for the more certified inhabitants of a town than the telephone. It is really a most obedient and faithful servant, ready to carry your important or unimportant messages without a murmur. It brings and keeps practically the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker as well as the doctor, the preacher and the merchant at your door.

There is one medicine that every family should be provided with and especially during the summer months; viz, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed. It costs but a quarter, can you afford to be without it? For sale by all dealers.
