ANNA BELLE'S BROTHER JACK'S GOAT AND WAGON

"Buster," Jack asked me yesterday as I was planning what to have for you, this week, "why can't you show my goat and wagon?" You never have let me have anything all my own.

"But what would my little girl friends think?" I asked. "Maybe they don't like goats!" Lots of boy friends have written you, suggested Jack, and I'm sure they will. Don't you think the girls will also? I wish to, here he is. His little friend's name is Billy, and the goat's is not "Billy" but "Candy" for a change. Of course, he doesn't really eat candy. Newspapers are his favorite dish! We are having the department now.

Some of you haven't written to me in a long time. Please don't forget me. Tell me of new things you want. Address me care of this paper. Lovingly ANNA BELLE.

CAN YOU DO IT?

EAT US UP CIRCUS

COMING SOON

The billboard has pulled down and been wrong. Cut it into six pieces and put it up right. Can you?
