Lesson XIII.—Third Quarter, For Sept. 24, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Dan. vi, 10-23. Memory Verses, 21-23—Golden Text, Ps. xxxiv, 7—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

These historical lessons from the book of Daniel are most fascinating and most practically helpful, inasmuch as the God of Daniel and his friends is none other than our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the same yesterday, today and forever and always ready to hold strongly with all whose hearts are wholly for Him, not keeping us from trials, but manifesting His presence with us in the trial and bringing us through to His glory. Men and women who believe God were never more needed than now.

Oh, for a testimony such as was given concerning Daniel, even by his enemies! We shall not find any occasion against him, except we find it concerning the law of his God (verses 4, 5). Knowing something of his habit of prayer, they asked the king to sign a decree that no one should ask a petition of any god or man save Darius for thirty days under penalty of being cast to the lions.

Although Daniel knew the decree had been signed, he kept on as aforesaid, kneeling upon his knees in prayer three times a day, with his windows open toward Jerusalem, remembering 1 Kings viii, 47-49. His enemies did not need to watch long in order to catch him in their net, and the king was promptly informed that "that Daniel of the captivity of Judah regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed" (verse 18). If the king had not before seen the design of his presidents and princes against Daniel he saw it now and was sore displeased, not with Daniel, but with himself that he had not seen through this plot before signing the decree.

He labored in vain to deliver his prime minister, whom he evidently esteemed and loved, but even the law of God, which is holy and just and good, cannot save any one, much less this law of the Medes and Persians, which was only a great iniquity. Our deliverance from the condemnation of the holy law of God is accomplished only by a sinless person taking the place of the guilty and suffering in our stead (1 Cor. v, 21; Rom. iii, 19-24; x, 4).

We do not read that Darius so loved Daniel that he gave himself for him and went to the den of lions in his stead, but we do read just that virtually of Jesus Christ (1 Pet. ii, 24; Gal. ii, 20, 1 Cor. v, 21). Daniel was cast to the lions (probably not very gently), a stone laid upon the mouth of the den and sealed with the signet of the king and his lords. Imagine the rejoicing on the part of his enemies because they were now rid of him, and no doubt they ridiculed the God of Daniel who could not deliver him from the lions nor from their power.

After a night of sleeplessness and fasting very early in the morning the king is found at the den of lions calling aloud to Daniel if perchance he may still be alive. Surely Darius must have learned something of the power of Daniel's God to be able to imagine such a thing possible and to encourage him as he did on his way to the den. With what joy and gratitude the king must have heard the voice of Daniel and the words, "My God hath sent His angel and hath shut the lions' mouths that they have not hurt me" (22).

So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him because he believed in his God (23).

Thus shall it be in the morning of the first resurrection. No matter what the saints have suffered here in their mortal bodies, the resurrection body will be perfect, for we shall be like Him (1 John iii, 2). The accusers of Daniel were then cast into the den of lions, with their wives and children, and there was no deliverance for them.

As to the righteous and the wicked, we read in Ps. xlix, 14, that the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning. Study the morning deliverances of Scripture, but note that there will be no morning for the enemies of God (Isa. viii, 20, R. V.). In verses 25 to 27 see how by a worldwide decree the living God, the God of Daniel, was magnified. How telling are the words in verse 28, "So this Daniel prospered," and according to the last sentence in his book we shall find him in his appointed place in the kingdom—that kingdom under the whole heaven which is to be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, when all dominions shall serve and obey Him (Dan. vii, 27). That will be after or in connection with the overthrow of all the kingdoms of this world, as set forth in Dan. ii and vii. The great, self-exalting, God-defying antichrist shall come to his end, and none shall help him (Dan. xi, 36-38, 45).

Then shall "the stone" without human aid break in pieces the world powers and fill the earth with a kingdom of peace and righteousness, and the enemies of the Lord shall perish as truly as did Daniel's enemies (Dan. ii, 34, 35-44; vii, 9-14; II Thess. i, 7-10). The Messiah has been cut off without receiving His kingdom, but at the end of the seventieth week everlasting righteousness shall be the portion of Daniel's people (Dan. ix, 24-27; Isa. lx, 21; xxxii, 1-17; Jer. xxiii, 5, 6).

"I HAD NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA 8 YEARS"

Mr. R. M. Madia, of Creedmore, N. C. thus relates his experience: "I was down with nervous dyspepsia for eight years. I weighed seventy pounds and it reduced me to 115. I could not touch solid food, and here it would have killed me. I had to live on sweets and the lightest diet. Had severe nervous spasms every day. Doctors could not even relieve me. I was so weak that for three months I was not able to walk across the room. I was persuaded to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and it cured me. Can eat anything, and as much as I want."

A feeling of heaviness in the stomach after eating, lagging appetite, nausea or sickness of stomach, frequent vomiting, acute pains, irritable temper, nervousness, twitching of muscles, sense of danger and great restlessness are nature's danger signals pointing to impaired digestion. If you have any of these symptoms, you need

RELIABLE AGENTS WANTED

If it's a surface to be painted, enameled, stained, varnished or finished in any way, there's an Acme Quality Kind to fit the purpose.

5 Strong Reasons for Fall Painting

1. The wood is thoroughly dry. Summer's sun has removed all moisture.
2. Paint penetrates deeper into dry wood. The deeper it goes the better it holds.
3. Fall weather is warm, dry and dependable. Little danger of cold, damp, rainy days, which endanger the durability of the paint.
4. Wet weather decays and destroys unprotected surfaces. Lack of paint means unsightly and less valuable property.
5. Fall painting keeps out winter moisture. The greatest enemy to the life and beauty of all structures.

Ask us about ACME QUALITY HOUSE PAINT. It insures the greatest protection and beauty, at the least cost per year of service. Questions cheerfully answered.
