ANNA BELLE'S NEW FALL CLOTHES

I went downtown shopping with mama a few days ago and I will show you some of the nice dresses and other things she bought for me. You know I have been the "Miss" of the house for sometime now and of course, being a "Miss" I must always have nice clothes to wear. I hope you guessed the real cause of Sister Mary's and our happiness and before long I will show you some of the nice things that are being made for it. I covered the basket myself and now I'm at work on some other things. I put in most of my spare time after school in doing this. A few days ago several of us girls organized a sewing society and instead of making things for ourselves we will give them to poor little girls and boys who never have nice things. I really didn't expect it, but I was elected president, and Marjorie—you remember her—is to be the secretary. We have only met once so far and haven't made any of the things we have planned, but very soon I hope to show you some of them. I know it will make the poor girls and boys happy to get nice things, don't you? Jack and Harold were busy raking leaves yesterday, but papa says we must be very careful when we burn them. He says so many real fires are caused by boys and girls being careless about burning leaves. Yesterday the mail brought me a great bunch of letters, and I am so happy to know that my little friends think of me, for I know they must be busy with school work just as I am. There's nothing I appreciate more than your good, kind suggestions, and whenever I can do so I always use them. I like to please everyone I can. Please write me as often as you can and tell me of some new things you'd have me do or wear. Address me care of this paper I think I will show you some more of my fall clothes next time. Are you going to make your Christmas gifts early? Lovingly,

Anna Belle
