THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

Pleasant Evening Reveries.—A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide

RUDE THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITORIAL PEN

OUR SCHOOLS.

While this paper has always been a warm friend to the schools of our town it intends to take a deeper interest in them during the ensuing year. We believe it is the duty of every citizen to take a live interest in our schools. During the years that are past, scores of diplomas have been handed out as a class after class of our young people have stepped out of school's life into life's school. Would that we could in this issue of our paper place before its readers the familiar face of each and every one, but such is among the impossibilities, for Grim Death, on his white horse, has thinned the ranks and as "Death loves a shining mark," many of the most promising fell before reaching the noonday of life, but we can assist in keeping green their memories. Our school home! What words fall upon the ear with so much music in their cadence as those which recall the scenes of school days now numbered among the memories of the past. Intervening years have not dimmed the vivid colorings with which memory has adorned those joyous days. While we all graduate in much the same manner, how different has the wheel of fortune turned. Some with plaintive tongues have had to walk in lowly sales of life's weary way, others in loftier hymns have sung of nothing but joy, as they have trodden the mountain top; but no matter how near the summit or base of the mountain of fame you will meet with a graduate from our schools, you meet with one who is a credit to society. "As the twig is bent, so is the tree inclined," and habits were formed under the moulding power of a moral atmosphere which seems to permeate the schools of our little city, which stay by one through life. Our school life is indeed the golden link that binds youth to age, and he is still but a child, however time may have furrowed his cheek or silvered his brow who can yet recall, with a softening heart, the happy school days passed in this city.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Let every reader of this column plan for a jolly time on the Fourth. We live too fast in America. We have not enough holidays—not enough resting places—not enough intermission in our work-day world. It were better if—oftener—to have laid aside its tools—traffic and trade stopped, now and then, now and then, and to consider its aim and end.

There must be an oasis in every desert. The black Sierras has its sunlit valleys. There are smiling nooks even among the Coralleras. Halting places they are, great rocks and their shadows, even in the dreariest land. He who builds up a shelter for the storm-bested and foot-weary pilgrim over the road trod by the "great caravan" is a benefactor to his race and his memories should be cherished while holidays are observed.

Holiday time! Who would care to know why and whence came the custom. Enough to know that care per-force must smooth his wrinkled front, and fun and frolic for the time rule the hour. It were folly not to enjoy the glimmers of sunshine that come through the cloud rifts, short lived and evanescent though they be. They prove that there is brightness beyond—that no clouds are so dense but stray beams may penetrate them.

Rosy faces, wreathed and joyous, welcome the festive season. With its merriments, its reminders, its regrets, and its hopes, comes the happy holiday. It is well that the ancient builders set up mile posts on the highway of time, else it were a dull and tiresome road.

DON'T FORGOT FOR WIVES.

The leader of Rockefeller's church at Cleveland, Ohio, recently took the above heading for his text, and he asked his hearers to put the following ten don'ts up in their wife's mirrors:

1. Don't marry a man for a living, but for love. Manhood without money is better than money without manhood.
2. Don't overdress nor underdress; common sense is sometimes better than style.
3. A wife with a hobble skirt and a husband with patched trousers make a poor pair. A woman can throw more out of a window with a spoon than a man can put into the cellar with a shovel.

HOW NOT TO RUN A HOUSE.

4. Don't think that the way to run a house is to run away from it. It is wrong to go around lecturing other women on how to bring up children, while you are neglecting your own.
5. Don't tell your troubles to your neighbors. They have enough of their own. Fight it out with yourself if it takes all summer.
6. Don't nag. The saloonkeeper is always glad to welcome your husband with a smile.
7. Don't try to get more out of a looking glass than you put into it. Nature's sunshine is better for a woman's beauty than man's powders and paints.

8. Don't make gamblers and drunkards of your children by running whist parties for prizes and serving punch with a stick in it.
9. Don't forget to tell the truth especially to the conductor about the age of your child; honesty is worth more to you and them than a nickel. A boy who is 8 years old at home and 6 on the cars will soon learn other things that are not so.
10. Don't forget that home is a woman's kingdom, where she reigns as queen. To be a mother of a Lincoln, a Garfield, or a McKinley, is to be the mother of a prince.

Makes the Nation Gasp

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Buckley's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25 cts. at Aycock Drug Co.

Perfect lines for the woman of stout figure are most easily secured by wearing a Kabo form-reducing corset.

This new idea known as

KABO

"THE LIVE MODEL CORSET"

applies especially to the corsets for women of full figure. The model used for fashioning these corsets has quite a full figure.

These corsets are fashioned in such a way as to give a reduction in hip measurement of from three to four inches and at the same time are wonderfully graceful and comfortable. The material is very strong and the boning is guaranteed unbreakable and it will never rust.

Style 7014. The stout woman will find this is the corset she has been looking for. Is made of a fine quality of mercerized batiste with embroidery trim. Has 12-inch graduated front clasp and three pairs of supporters. Sizes 20 to 36. $3.50

Kabo corsets can be had with either metal eyelets or with the loop cord eyelets. All Kabo Corsets are guaranteed non-rustable throughout.
