OPINIONS OF WM. J. BRYAN AS TO SENATORIAL CANDIDATES.

WHAT BRYAN THINKS OF WALTER CLARKE.

"The name of Chief Justice Walter Clark is brought forward by Mr. Bryan in an editorial in the Commoner as available for the Presidency" said Hon. Thos. J. Pence in the summer of 1911, and continues: "Mr. Bryan gives a list of those he deems fitted for the honor, and Judge Clark is prominent in the list." It will also be recalled that Hon. William Jennings Bryan strongly endorsed Judge Clark for the Presidency of the United States in 1904.

WHAT BRYAN THINKS OF F. M. SIMMONS

"The Commoner does not take part in contests between Democrats excepting where a principle is involved. In NORTH CAROLINA WHERE Senator Simmons is a candidate for re-election a principle is involved. HE (F. M. Simmons) IS NOT A PROGRESSIVE AND IT IS A MYSTERY TO THE OUTSIDE WORLD WHY A STATE LIKE NORTH CAROLINA HAS TOLERATED HIM SO LONG."—W. J. BRYAN, Aug. 30, 1912.

Senator Smith of New Jersey was shorn of his power by the voters, in which Woodrow Wilson took a hand, by reason of his non-progressive ideas. WHAT BRYAN THINKS OF W. W. KITCHIN.

A Five Dollar Bill To The First Man who discovers anything Mr. Bryan has said in favor of Kitchin.

HOW WOULD BRYAN VOTE FOR SENATOR?

Paint Put-On

Think of paint put-on and not by the gallon.

A gallon of paint in the can is of no account to anybody. Put it on. Now reckon its cost and value.

The secret is; one paint goes twice as far as a bad one.

You have a job, say an average job. It'll take 10 gallons Devco and 12 or 15 or 18 or 20 of middling poor very poor and trash. You know painters wages in your town. Put the price of a gallon of paint and the painters days wage together. You can, we can't.

Devco costs less than any inferior paint; there are hundreds of them. One paint is as good as another, so long as it last good; one lasts months and another years; and the one that goes furthest lasts longest.

DEVCO.

McKinnon Bros. Co. sells it.
