DEMOCRATS SWEEP NATION

WILSON AND MARSHALL

ELECTED BY GOOD SAFE MAJORITIES.

A Regular Landslide in National Politics—Returns Credit Wilson With Carryover Party States.

The election Tuesday recorded one of the largest national victories in many years and making a change in favor of Democracy. Late returns give Wilson 389 electoral votes—having carried forty states, in which was New York, Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey and California. The victory is one of the most complete ever experienced. Many of the heretofore republican states got into the democratic column by electing the Democratic candidates for Governor. In the late returns Democracy is credited with elections that will insure its control in the United States Senate. This gives the party absolute control of the government affairs. Mr. Bryan expressed himself as being "more pleased over the result than Woodrow Wilson," and Teddy wired his congratulations to Wilson before 12 o'clock Tuesday night.

The State Democratic ticket was elected by around 45000 majority and the county democratic ticket, which had no opposition by a vote of 1985.

It seemed to be a Democratic year all round and many states have added to their Democratic representation. The vote in most cases especially North Carolina was light as compared with four years ago.

At Ingleside Academy.

We are requested to state that there will be an ice cream and oyster supper at Ingleside Academy on Saturday night, November 9th. The proceeds will go for Academy improvements. The public is invited to go out and enjoy an evenings entertainment.

Tobacco Market.

Activities on the tobacco market the past week have been somewhat off compared with former weeks, the cause of which being due to the lack of the weed present. The prices have been holding their own and big averages have been apparent each day. The market is still active and proving its value to the farmers.

Tomlinson-Mitchiner.

Invitations reading as follows have been received by friends in town: Mrs. Edith Comelia Mitchiner invites you to be present at the marriage of her daughter, Nell Wilder to Mr. Samuel Phil Tomlinson, Wednesday evening, November the twentieth, one thousand and one hundred and twelve, at eight o'clock, Perry's Chapel, Franklinton, North Carolina.

Miss Mitchiner is one of Franklin county's most attractive and accomplished young ladies and is especially popular among a host of friends. Mr. Tomlinson, has recently located in this county, and has won the admiration of a host of friends. He is a successful young planter and possesses exceptional ability.

Mission Meeting.

At the Parsonage Tuesday afternoon the Home and Foreign Missionary societies held a joint meeting for November, over which Mrs. R. W. Bailey, President of the W. F. M. S., presided in her usual systematic and graceful manner.

There were twenty-six present, including several visitors, two of whom enrolled their names as members.

Mrs. Malone led the devotional exercises, using Scripture lesson, Matt. 7:21-23, and remarks as given in the program for November, followed by the beautiful and impressive hymn, "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown."

After the business of both societies had been attended to, quite an interesting and instructive debate was held, the query being, Resolved, That the work for Orientals in America will do more to establish the kingdom of God on earth than the work in China. Mrs. T. S. Wilder led the affirmative and Mrs. W. B. White the negative side. Strong points were brought to bear on both, leading these present into clearer vision of the great need both at home and abroad. Mrs. Bailey stated that since this was the purpose of the debate, no judges had been appointed, and asked Miss Page, whose presence with us is always a benediction, to make a few remarks, which she did, giving reasons why each seemed to her the more important, and in closing stressed the oneness of mission work in its different phases.

A committee was appointed to draft resolutions in memory of Mrs. G. W. Brown, whose recent death has again depleted our ranks.

Mrs. E. S. Ford then sang very sweetly, "O for a Soul," and the meeting was adjourned with prayer by Miss Page.

Halloween Party.

On Saturday night last Mrs. Ivey Allen and the ladies of the Y. W. C. A. entertained the faculty and students at a Halloween party at the college from seven-thirty to nine o'clock. All except the juniors and seniors were disguised as robbers, ghosts and fortune-tellers and several selections of instrumental music by Misses Lottie Kerr, Helen House and Mollie Johnston. Recitations by Miss Henniger, the expression teacher, were enjoyed by all present. Several games were played after which refreshments were served.

Register of Deeds Yarborough issued marriage licenses to the following couples during the month of October.

Holloway Letter.

The following letter was received Wednesday from Mr. J. H. Holloway:

THE FRANKLIN TIMES,
Louisburg, N. C.,
Dear Mr. Editor:

While I do not believe in rubbing it in when you have the other fellows goat, I cannot forego the pleasure of saying like the old lady "I told you so."

One of the Kitchin followers in Louisburg, who also professes to be a follower and teacher of the lowly nazarian told me yesterday my predictions in the FRANKLIN TIMES on the ultimate result of the Senatorial campaign reminded him of a statement once made by a minister who visited Asheville, N. C. He made the very broad sweeping statement that Asheville was the wickedest city in the world and when he was called on to prove his statement or show what reason he had for making it they found he had never been anywhere to amount to anything. My good Kitchin friend said my dogmatic manner of making my political prognostications reminded him of the minister, I spoke as an oracle.

Please let me ask my friend if it is possible for any man to state a fact and be dogmatic.

The writer challenges any reader of the TIMES to show an error in his forecast, but on the other hand every claim was more than realized and it certainly is the greatest pleasure of my life to announce the elimination of the most monumental specimen of egotistical, vituperative, negativeness, from political power that North Carolina has ever known.

Never again will North Carolina see another such campaign as the one just closed, all other candidates will know better.

JAMES H. HOLLOWAY.

Dickens Items

The farmers have been quite busy for the past several weeks, trying to save their crops. The majority are getting on all right with picking out their cotton and will soon have the short crop housed. Those who have tobacco seem to be very well pleased with the price they have been getting. Many are glad to see the nice rains we have been having lately so they could put in their clover, rye, wheat and other seed.

Mr. Ollie Sledge made an interesting talk to the farmers of our vicinity on Tuesday night, October 22nd, at the Academy in behalf of the Farmers Union. We were glad to see a lot of the young people out.

Miss Tonia Collins, of near Sandy Creek, spent some time last week with her cousin, Miss Annie Collins.

Eld. J. W. Valentine and Mrs. Collins spent last Sunday and Monday in Nashville.

Mr. Garland Parrish and his friend, Mr. Gupton, of near Centerville, were in our midst last Sunday.

Mr. T. C. Collins is having a new building put up on Main street near the Academy. It will add right much to the appearance of our little town. J. G. and E. C. Collins who have the contract say that they expect to have the job completed within two weeks.

The "Hickory Grove" Saw Mill Company have their machinery down and about ready to begin work.

Mr. Charlie Joyner has contracted to plaster the new dwelling of Mr. Ollie Sledge and has employed E. L. Collins to help him do the work. They will in their fast way soon have the work finished.

It is a fine boy and Mr. Hill Thorne is wearing a broad smile.

The Farmers Union gin came near getting burned on last Tuesday morning. It seems the fire caught from a little boy up stairs supposed to have been smoking.

Good wishes to the TIMES.

DANDY.

Constable Elected.

Mr. R. W. Hudson was elected constable for Louisburg township on Tuesday by a vote of 385.

Barbecue.

There will be a barbecue at Moulton on next Wednesday night, November 13th, for the benefit of the school. Come prepared to eat a big supper and contribute liberally to the cause.

Election Returns.

The election returns were received in the court house where a telegraph apparatus had been placed in position on last Tuesday night and were listened to by quite a large number of our citizens who were especially interested in the outcome of the general election. Mr. T. G. Boddie and Capt. L. L. Joyner were especially alert on this occasion and handled the wires well. Returns were received up to about two o'clock.

Simmons Carries Franklin County.

Gen. F. M. Simmons carries Franklin county with a majority of 328 over both of his opponents. The tabulated vote will be seen in another column. His majority in the state is estimated between 20,000 and 30,000. By a vote of this kind the people of the State have shown that they prefer a campaign fought upon issues and achievements rather than personality. The vote is quite a compliment to the Senator and his record.

Box Party.

There will be a box party at Cedar Rock Academy Saturday night, Nov. 9th 1912, given by the young ladies of the community. The proceeds derived from the evening's entertainment will be for a worthy cause.

Everybody is cordially invited to come.

"Gone But Not Forgotten."

The death angels visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Young on Sunday morning Oct. 27, and saw fit to take away their beloved daughter, Agatha Estelle, which she so dearly loved and all who knew her. She had bore a lot of suffering for some time, but for the last few days she grew worse. [She was a bright little child, her age was 18 months and two weeks.

The family has the sympathy of our town. For we know 'tis sad to see the little one close its bright shining eyes to shine on earth no more, but in heaven among the angels where it will rest forever, without any sorrow.

A precious one from us has gone, a voice we loved is still; a place is vacant in our home, which never can be filled. God in his wisdom has recalled, the boon her love had given, and though the body slumbers here, the soul is safe in heaven.

God does all things well, for those that love him.

So weep not dear mother, but try by the power of God to meet your sweet one again. There is not words to express a mother feeling of a lost child. We all know not what hour, God may call. For your little one is constantly beckoning you to come. May God be with us all until we meet again.
