

Franklinton News

C. G. and D. B. Kearney went to the inauguration Monday.

Mrs. Annie Rowe and Susie Moye, visited Miss Lillie Leonard, of the Louisburg Female College Monday.

Rev. H. M. North, of Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, filled the pulpit at the morning and evening services at the Methodist Church last Sunday.

We were on the sick list last week had a severe case of grippe and could not get in any items in time but we hope it will not be the case any more.

Only seven went from here to the inauguration on the S. A. L. special last Sunday night. A good size crowd went from Louisburg also Co. D.—the Louisburg military company had a special car.

Mr. W. A. Fuller had a hen which had been lost for several days. He thought of the well and had it cleaned out and found the hen dead on the water, and on the bottom he found a newly laid egg which was not even broken.

Rev. W. A. Cade, a student at Trinity College, will fill the unexpired year of W. W. Rose of the M. E. Church. Mr. Cade will fill the appointment here until the commencement, when he will graduate, then make his home here for the remainder of the year.

Mr. Hardy a former operator in the S. A. L. telegraph office who was carried to the hospital in Petersburg several days ago died last Tuesday. Mr. Hardy made many friends during his stay in our town and his family have the deepest sympathy of our town and community in their sad bereavement.

The singing class from the Oxford Orphanage will give a concert here on next Tuesday night, March 11, at the graded school auditorium. This class has never appeared here but what the concert was worth twice the price of admission. So now good people lets turn out and give them a full house. You should not fail to do it. It is a worthy cause and should be liberally patronized. The people in the country are especially invited.

A man calling himself Klondike Bill made his appearance in our town last Saturday driving six dogs to a wagon. He carried a tent and all his effects on the wagon. He says the wagon and contents weighed 1200 pounds. The dogs seemed to carry it easy. He is making a tour from Nome, Alaska, to San Francisco, California, for $100,000 for his book and also gets $40,000 from the government for his ideas as to building good roads. He left Monday for Raleigh.

Our town is spreading now and we already consider it one of the "big ones" and we wish to call attention to those who are looking after our towns interest to the fact that we sorely need a large, modern waiting room at the S. A. L. station. We deserve it and the people of Louisburg deserve it. The present eyesore chicken coop has been erected twenty or thirty years perhaps, and we have no accommodation at all at this unsightly structure. Twelve people will fill it up and if it is raining most of the patrons of the road have to stand under the drip and get soaked good before their train arrives. Then again there is a big lot of travelers from Louisburg and these people certainly deserve some courtesy at the hands of the S. A. L. We have seen ladies from other trains while waiting for a belated train have to walk the streets or visit the stores to get a place to sit down comfortably. There are many more reasons we could put forward against the old structure and in favor of a new up-to-date waiting room and all the latest furnishings and etc. and have a shed across the tracks to protect the passengers in rainy weather. Some one who has influence with the railroad authorities should bring this matter to their attention. We are certain the road will investigate it and give us what we want.

Many suffers from rheumatism have been surprised and delighted with the prompt relief afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. This liniment is for sale by all dealers.

T. F. Bowen Dead.

Mr. Thomas E. Bowen, the old Confederate veteran, watchman at Sterling Cotton Mills, died Thursday evening, February 20, at 3:30 o'clock at his home. The funeral services were held from the house on Friday and the interment was in Fair View cemetery that evening at 4 o'clock. He was 70 years old. "Uncle Tom," as he was familiarly known, has held this position as watchman at the Sterling mills for fifteen years. He entered the Confederate ranks some time in '61 and remained till the close in 1865. He was a member of Co. G., 7th N. C. regiment and was a fearless and gallant soldier. He highly prized his veteran badge and honored it as a precious souvenir of the days of '61. He has heard the last distant bugles call, he has laid down his old musket, his gray uniform is hung up to be a reminder to his grandchildren and their children that he had a true Confederate. His life was spent ever under the shadow of the Confederate flag. The old soldier is gone. The flag is faded. In the distance he hears the band softly playing "Nearer My God to Thee." The cannons cease their roar. Taps is sounded, the battle is ended, the victory won.

Jr. Order Banquet

On last Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Jr. Order gave quite a swell banquet in their hall over the Cooke Furniture store. A large crowd attended and enjoyed the occasion. Not only the members of the order but invited guests also. The refreshments were oysters, chicken salad, pickle, various kind of cake and fruit and was served in splendid style. The speakers were Messrs Harward and Sorrell, of Wake Forest. They were introduced by Mr. B. W. Ballard of the local lodge. The occasion was greatly enjoyed and will long be remembered with pleasure by those who attended.
