HOME AND HAPPINESS.

Many a young wife is so negligent of her husband's comfort, is so glum and blue and cheerless, that home to him is not a place to stay, he'd rather be out among the boys, there's life and fun among them, while there is nothing but fault finding and cross looks at home. The woman who cannot talk intelligently and pleasantly to her husband about business matters that concern them both, and make the home a cheery place that he will not be ashamed to invite his friends to visit, is lost. He most likely will bring his friends when she is cleaning house, or has a sick headache, or there is nothing good for dinner, but that doesn't make any difference, it doesn't excuse her for getting out of sorts about it, she must smile on and do the best she can, not forgetting that a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, it is a priceless possession that can only be obtained by being put through the fire furnace. This is the way true metal is tested. Let the young husband and wife not grow discouraged at defects they find in one another. They are always there, but time and patience smooth our wrinkles, and adapt the pair to each other's ways.

To twit and continually say, "I told you so," shows a lack of good breeding and kindly feeling. We would not think of using such a phrase outside the household. Are not those within the precincts of home as precious as those without?

Conscience is the heart's safety valve.

Energy and persistence conquer all things.

Hold up your heads, girls! The ugliest of you may have the beauty of health and purity of health and innocence. The plainest may make herself so beloved that the hearts of those who know her will long for her presence, and to them she shall seem the very queen of beauty. If your lips are too thick and lacking in curves, teach them to utter sweet words of sympathy and noble words of inspiration. If your hands are large, let them ever be ready and helpful, the glad almoners of a generous heart. It will shine through and be apparent to the dullest eye, and while making the mind and heart beautiful, do not forget the body. Keep it clean, wholesome and pure, and you will be a delight to yourself and those about you. No matter how bright the eyes may be, if they reflect unkind, unlovely thoughts they are not beautiful. No matter how soft and white the hands may be, if they cannot work they are useless members, commanding no respect.

It is easy to be noble among the nobles. The difficult thing is to keep the nobility one's nature unperverted among the petty and the ignoble.

A false friend is like a shadow on the dial, it appears in clear weather but vanishes as soon as a cloud approaches.

Contentment is the only true happiness of life; and a pleasant disposition and good work will make the whole surroundings ring with cheerfulness.

In idleness alone there is perpetual despair.

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when they have colds. Whooping cough, diphtheria, scarlet fever and consumption are diseases that are often contracted when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is safe and pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.

Home grown virtues are not counterfeited.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs and cold. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by all dealers.

Save Farm Labor Make it Produce More

With practically the same labor, horses, mules, wagons and implements, you can produce bigger crops from the same, or less acreage. It takes no more work to raise 60 to 90 bushels of corn, or one and a half to two bales of cotton, to the acre than it takes to make ordinary yields. It is not necessary to plant a larger acreage to get a bigger yield. Simply work and cultivate the same amount of land more thoroughly. You can produce bigger crops of
