

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer.

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pain.

Cardui worked like a charm." There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your troubles. N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XI.—First Quarter, For March 16, 1913.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Gen. xxii, 1-13
Memory Verses, 12, 13—Golden Text
Heb. vi, 6—Commentary Prepared by
Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In the last part of the previous chapter we see Abraham dwelling at Beer-sheba, the well of the oath, having made a covenant with Abimelech. There he called on the name of Jehovah, and for the first time we have the name of "the everlasting God," which carries us on to Ps. xc, 2; Isa. xl, 28. Every new name of God has some new revelation of Himself.

The everlasting God not only tells us that He is from everlasting to everlasting, but He loves with everlasting love and carries us in His everlasting arms and is always the same Jehovah. (Jer. xxxi, 3; Deut. xxxiii, 27). Whether He blesses us or tries us, He is the same God of love. For years the heart of Abraham had been made glad by this boy, this beloved son for whom he had waited full twenty-five years, and now he is commanded to offer him for a burnt offering. There is nothing quite like this in all the Bible story. The demand seems overwhelmingly awful, but God is love, and God is faithful, and Abraham knew it. The New Testament record is that, knowing the promise and being certain that God would somehow fulfill it, even if He had to raise Isaac up from the dead, He did receive him from the dead in a figure (Heb. xi, 17-19).

After some twenty years Jacob received Joseph back as from the dead. God spared Isaac and Joseph, but He spared not His own Son (Rom. viii, 32), and, He being literally alive from the dead, all things are made sure to us in Him.

I cannot think that Abraham talked this over with Sarah; but, being sure that he would bring the boy back again, he started off early in the morning, taking only two of his young men with him. His destination was Moriah, which is now part of Jerusalem, the same hill that David bought from Ornan, the Jebusite, where the destroying angel stayed his hand when Jehovah said, "It is enough," and where Solomon built the temple (II Sam. xxiv, 16, 24, 25; II Chron. iii, 1).

How wonderful are the associations of truths and places in Scripture and how all center around the cross and the indescribable sacrifice of the Son of God! It was on the third day that the place was reached and the great transaction accomplished (verse 4), and how often a third day event calls our attention to the great center of all past history and to the resurrection time, ever drawing nearer! Consider Jonah and the marriage in Cana and all others that you can find in the book.

Note the confidence with which Abraham says to the young men, "I and the lad will go and worship and come again to you" (verse 5). He was fully persuaded that it would be so. Now see the lad carrying the wood and the father with the fire and the knife, and they went both of them together (verse 6). One cannot but see the Son of God bearing His cross and remember the words, "It pleased the Lord to bruise Him; He hath put Him to grief" (Isa. liii, 10). It was the only way to save us and so wondrously foreshadowed in Abraham and Isaac.

Hear the lad as he says to his father, "Behold the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" (Verse 7). Oh, the anguish of the father's heart! But do we ever consider the anguish of the heart of God the Father?

What did he know of "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world?" (Rev. xiii, 8.) Was it just then or when he placed the ram on the altar in Isaac's stead or through the whole incident that he saw Christ's day and was glad? (John viii, 56.) Notice the repeated saying, "They went both of them together" (verses 5, 6, 8), reminding us of the "they two went on" of II Kings ii, 6, 7, 8, 11, and suggesting perfect oneness and accord. We do not imagine any resistance on the part of Isaac as his father placed him on the altar upon the wood and bound him and took the knife to slay his son. We think of such words as "of his own voluntary will." "I lay down my life of myself." "I delight to do Thy will; O my God" (Lev. i, 3; John x, 17, 18; Ps. xl, 8; Hab. x, 7, 9), and we remember how the Lord Jesus gave Himself into the hands of His enemies and suffered them to take Him and bind Him and scourge Him and crucify Him, and He took it all as a cup which His Father gave Him to drink. It was enough. The child of promise was given back to God. Abraham saw God and not the child, and now the Lord speaks, the uplifted hand is stayed, and the ram is placed on the altar in Isaac's stead.

Isaac was spared and given back from the dead in a figure. God spared not His own Son, and as truly as the ram died in Isaac's stead so did Jesus Christ die in my stead. "His own self bare my sins in His own body on the tree;" "the Son of God loved me and gave Himself for me." By His being made a curse for us all who truly receive Him are delivered from the curse of the law (I Pet. ii, 24; Gal. ii, 20; III, 13). The Lord did see and provide—Jehovah-jireh (verse 14 and margin). What He has provided in Him see Eph. i, 3-7; Rom. viii, 32; I Pet. i, 3, 4, and remember that all is freely by grace (Rom. iii, 24).
