Williams-Mullen.

A most interesting marriage was sol emnized at the pretty little country church at Popular Springs on Wednesday afternoon when Miss-Lingie Mullen became the bride of Mr. John E Williams.

This was one Franklin county's most popular young couples. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A Mullen, one of the most popular and suc cessful families of Dunn's township and is a young lady of many rare qualities. She has hosts of friends who will regret to give her up from the social life of Bunn.

The groom is one of Louisburg's most prominent and deserving young men, is a son of Mr. John R. Williams, who for a number of years was the Superintendent of- Road work in this township, and has hosts of friends among whom is justly popular.
After the ceremonies the bridal par ty accompanied by many friends repaired to the home of the groom about since his marriage, will make his three miles east of Louisburg where a delightful reception was given and bountiful supper served. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by all pres-ship, killed 1,433 pounds. Mr. J. L. Byron, of Harris township kulled four averaging 300.

Secures Trained Nurse.

Dr. E. M. Perry informs us he has secured Miss Maggie Roberts, a graduate trained nurse, and who has serin Raleigh, to assist him in his practice of surgery. She arrived in Louisburg and took, up her duties on January 1st. This is quite an addition in the medical profession equal to brides dinner gown was of white charanywhere in the State.

A Real Occurrence.

One of the most laughable and amus many years took place in Louisburg lady with a host of friends throughout on Christmas eve. It seems that a the State wife wish her a happy fucertain citizen of our town who claims ture. himself a strong prohibitionist and ing the law to the letter, and even in bride. a very techinal way, saying that he (the mayor) should go to the express and ornamental prove the esteem of office and make note of all packages their friends. over one gallon in size and have the whom addressed "lackedup" in court to answer to a charge under the search and seizure act. The mayor made an engagement with the of packages that exceeded the limit and auto-returned over town. He saw one of turn Pranklin's best citizens whose name inc. It would be about to connect with any-hom thing pertaining to whiskey, and went up to him saying "Mr. A. I noticed a 3 gallon package of whiskey at the express office addressed to you. Isn't this. exceeding the law," to which Mr. A. expressed a little surprise, but informed the mayor that it wash't his but that it belonged to Mr. D. and E. who had ordered it in his name. The peculiar part of the transaction is that Mr. D. was the citizen who was roasting the mayor so for not looking after these shipments.

Shearin-Neal.

On the afternoon of December 21st 1913, Mount Zion Baptist Church was the scene of most beautiful marriage when Miss Hattle Lee Neal became the bride of Mr. Arthur A. Shearin. Never has Mt. Zion been more beautifully decorated, it seemed that fairles had been busy with flowers and fern forming such a lovely picture. The recess pulpit was festooned with trailing evergreens. On eithen side inimediately in front of the pulpit was a column entwined with running cedar. The columns supported an arch formed of evergreens and white roses. A large bell covered with roses hung from the center of arch. Dozens of small candles glowed above it shedding a soft light over all. An improvi sed chancel formed of running cedar and roses made the scene still more beautiful. As herald of the bridal party Mrs. Percy Cook, of Louisburg, sang "Loves Old Sweet Song." Mrs. Cleacy Parrish giving the organ accompanyment. Then Miss Sallie Lewis Bridges, of Elm City, went to the organ and Mendelssohns Wedding here.

March thrilled the many listeners.

First in the procession came the flower girls, little Misses Annie Neal, days. sister of the bride, and Myrtle Drake, of Castaria, cousin of the groom. Com renton. The evening was a most ing down the center aisle they opened pleasant one and was greatly enjoyed small gates on either side the chancel. They wore dainty white frocks and baskets of fern and white carried chrysanthemums. Next the ushers, United States Marshal Dortchestated Messra, S. C. Foster, of Louisburg, visited his people in Louisburg the and G. B. West came down the center aisle, entered the gates, - crossed in office of the marshal to Goldsboro, and front of the arch and took their places the removal will be effected as soon by the columns. The attendants were Mr. Johnnie Neal with Miss Viola Shearin, Mr. Frank Taylor with Miss uties appointed by Marshal Dortch Bettie Shearin, of Rocky Mount, Mr. Opie May, of Nashville, with Miss Myr tle Hollingsworth, Mr. A. W. Perry, of Mapleville, with Miss Ruby Lancaster, of Bouisburg. The brides maids were dressed in dainty creations of white charmeuse and lace, and carried boquets of ferns. The groomsmen wore blue suits, tan gloves and shoes.

The bride came down the center aisle with the maid of honor, Miss Annie May, of Nashville. The bride was handsomely gowned in a tailored suit of brown cloth, with hat, gloves veil and shoes to match, and carried a boquet of white carnations and fern The maid of honor wore a beautiful dress of crepe de chine and lace. The groom and best man, Mr. Z. V. Jones, of Castalla, entered the right aisle and met the bride at the chancel. Rev. G. M. Duke read the ceremony, the ved several years in the Rex Hospital vows were made and two lives were joined as one. The ceremony ended, the organ sounded forth Lohengrin's march and the party passed down the center aisle. The bridal party with a and shows the progressiveness of Dr. few friends returned to the home of Perry in his desire to give to the the bride where an "old time" wedding people of Franklin county services dinner was served at six o'clock.
